

MOVIE SHOWS were enjoyed by approximately 600 youngsters in a special roped off area of the new Food Fair Market in the Kendallwood Center at 12 Mile and Farmington Road last Saturday. Complimentary tickets were given youngsters in the area of the market that they might enjoy the open house at the store on Saturday with their parents. Shown here is a portion of the 300 youngsters who gathered for the first showing of 2 1/2 hours of movies by the Food Fair management. The same number enjoyed an afternoon program of movies. This, the second Food Fair Market to be opened in Farmington, officially opened its doors for business Wednesday morning, January 13.

College Information Day Set Sat. by 7 Eastern Colleges

The College Entrance Examination Board will be in the spotlight Saturday, January 14, in answer period at the Detroit Committee for Seven Eastern Women's Colleges sponsors its annual "College Information Day." The alumnae of Bardonia, Bryn Mawr, Mount Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Vassar, and Wellesley will be hostesses for this event, to be held in the auditorium of the Women's City Club of Detroit at two o'clock. Information on entrance requirements, expenses and scholarship opportunities will be the main speaker for the afternoon. Mr. Roberts will speak on the functions of the College Entrance Board and Shop in Friendly Farmington!

Ports' Daughters Here for Holidays

Visiting their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Preston Ports, for the Christmas holidays, were their two daughters and families. Lt. and Mrs. Jack K. Evert and their children, Terry and Kurt, from Dayton, Ohio.

Mrs. Evert is the former Diane Ports. The Everts also spent the holidays visiting Jack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Evert of Javonia.

The former Jean Ports, and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. O. Keith Helferich, came from Long Island, New York for the holidays. They also visited Keith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Kenneth Helferich of Utica, Mich.

Subscribe to The Enterprise.

Kendallwood News Bits

MRS. EDWARD COVE
GR. 4-0769

Adding to the joy of the arrival of their baby girl, Kam, born January 1, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Towns of Thorny Brae received the news that she was the first child from Farmington born in the new year winning the 1949 First Baby Contest sponsored by twenty-four Farmington business establishments offering a variety of gifts. Kam weighed eight pounds, 10 1/2 ounces at birth at Beaumont Hospital. The Towns' other children are daughters Kathy, 3 1/2 years old, Kerry, 1 1/2 years old and a seven year old son, Kevin. Paternal Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Towns, Sr. of Battle Creek who were here to visit their new granddaughter for several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Paddon of Brandywine announced the birth of their first child, a seven pound, eight ounce baby girl, Corinne, on January 2. Maternal Grandmother is Mrs. Dunham of Detroit. Paternal Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Percy Fredon of England.

SUNDAY, January 3, Mr. and Mrs. John Rollins' new baby daughter Renay was baptized by Father Frank at St. Fabian's Church. Sponsors were Charlene and James Bennett.

Jane and Tony Nicolay are the proud parents of a baby son born on December 17.

Mrs. Maude Heyn left for her home in Calcuton, New York last week after a lengthy stay with her son and family on Green Willow Rd.

The Joe Rozmans enjoyed having Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stadler and son Bob from Milwaukee, Wisconsin as house guests at their home on Thorny Brae Christmas week. Mrs. Radtke is Mrs. Rozman's sister.

Lynne and Wall Lahey and children arrived home on Hawberry January 3 after vacationing with their families in Connecticut and New York during a ten day holiday trip. Lynne entertained her bridge group Wednesday evening, January 6. The Thursday afternoon luncheon club were guests of Lee Bomb on Thorny Brae Rd. IN PLACE OF their regular Thursday evening Pinochle session for their last meeting in December the Kendallwood Pinochle group enjoyed lunching at Bowlerama after which they exchanged gifts at Emma Arman's home.

"Witness for the Prosecution" will be presented by the Ridgeville Players on January 15, 16, 17, 22, 23, and 24. Tickets may be obtained from Betsy Man-ceke, GR 4-7508, 28353 Quail Hollow.

By popular demand a Mardi Gras party has been planned as the next social activity sponsored by the Kendallwood Association and the Kendallwood Farms Association. The second annual Mardi Gras Dance will be held at the Bonnie Brook Country Club Friday evening, February 17. Danny DiGrosso and Orchestra will furnish music for dancing and again masquerade masks will be donated by those attending and judged for originality. All Kendallwoodites are invited. Further details and where to purchase tickets will be announced later.

Shop in Friendly Farmington

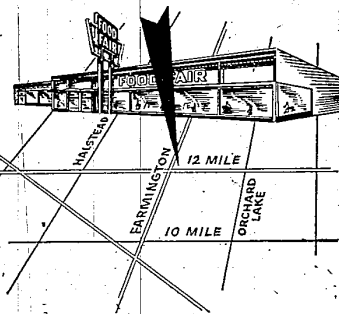

NOW... Two Food Fairs Serving the Farmington Area

NOW OPEN!

The New Food Fair at 12 Mile
and Farmington Rd.
KENDALLWOOD

ENTER FOOD FAIR'S EASY-TO-WIN

Grand Opening Contest

AT THE NEW FOOD FAIR ONLY — 12 MILE at FARMINGTON RD.

FIRST PRIZE...

$1295.00 NATURAL STEWART AUTUMN HAZE

MINK STOLE

2nd Prize

ZENITH

STEREO

High-Fidelity

PHONOGRAPH

LIST PRICE $299.95

Four speed automatic record changer plays stereo and standard records.
Four speakers.

FURS BY

Saks Fifth Avenue

Congratulations to FOOD FAIR MARKET

Kendallwood Center

(12 Mile & Farmington Rd.)

FARMINGTON

STEEL BUILDING CONTRACTORS INC.

MELVINDALE

48 ADDITIONAL PRIZES

of Whole Smoked

HAMS

50 PRIZES
IN ALL!

ENTER AT THIS FOOD FAIR MARKET

GRAND OPENING CONTEST ENTRY BLANK
No Purchase Necessary — Deposit at FOOD FAIR

COMPLETE THE SENTENCE BELOW IN 25 WORDS OR LESS

I like this new Food Fair because.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

W. 12 MILE ROAD

at FARMINGTON ROAD