

Glenn Bishop Takes Navy Boot Training

Glenn E. Bishop, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Bishop of 21105 Metroview, Farmington, recent graduate from recruit training received the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois.

The graduation exercises, making the end of nine weeks of "boot camp", included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

Moths seldom lunch on woolens which are used often and kept clean, say home economists at Michigan State University.

To Take Part in 'Sweet Adelines in Orbit' Show

The smiling faced gal modeling the space costume in the photo is none other than Mrs. Herbert Applegate of MacFarms. Mrs. Applegate will participate in the big "Sweet Adelines in Orbit" Show at the Masonic Temple, February 20, 1960.

Mae is a member of the Detroit Chapter, Sweet Adeline's "Automobile" Chorus which have sung for the Farmington residents on many an occasion. An active member of the Chapter, she is now deeply immersed in the completion of plans for the Northern Region 2 Sweet Adeline Chorus and Quartet Competition. By virtue of winning last year's competition the Detroit Chapter is privileged to hostess this year's event which will be held in Detroit February 19-21.

Approximately six hundred women from Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and the province of Ontario, Canada, will be competing for top honors. Quartets will be competing at 9:00 Saturday morning and in the afternoon the winning chapter chorus will be chosen. The time of the afternoon's competition is 2:30. Saturday evening at 8:30 the Automobelles-Chorus-of-the-Detroit Chapter will open the "Sweet Adelines in Orbit" Show. Featured will be the Yankee Misses, current international Sweet Adeline Champions, the Cracker Jills, past international Sweet Adeline Champions, the Mid-States Four Quartette, past international SPEBSASA Champions, and the new Regional Champion Chorus and Quartet selected during the morning's competition.

All three events will be held at the Masonic Temple and all are open to the public. Tickets will be sold at the box office and at Grinnells.

Farmington residents may purchase tickets at Mrs. Applegate's home, 33042 Slocum Drive, Farmington.

MRS. APPLGATE

Local GI in Winter Drills

PFC Larry M. Waugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Waugh of 32295 Farmersville Rd., Farmington, is participating in Exercises Winter Shield in southern Germany.

Winter Shield, an annual winter maneuver involving 60,000 troops, is designed to determine the combat readiness of Seventh Army troops.

Waugh entered the Army in March 1958. He arrived overseas in January 1959 following his basic training at Ft. Hood, Texas.

The 20-year-old soldier is a 1956 graduate of Garden City High School.

Little children can do without much rough cellulose such as bran, seedy berries, fruit skins and popcorn, say home economists at Michigan State University.
