At Home in Old Homestead

Jacqueline Davis

This week we welcome to join in the dancing fun, Saturday, February 13, the young man to Old Homestead, the date which is a celebration for the Old Homestead, to Mary Ellen and Don Green, who are the new owners of the property. The celebration will be held at the old Homestead, which is now a hotel, and will be a most interesting and enjoyable affair. Anti-Litter to Be Enforced

The city's new anti-litter ordinance is now in effect, and will be enforced, warns Joe Devrient, director of the department of public safety. The ordinance is designed to keep the city streets clean and free of trash, and will be enforced by the police department. New Ordinance Will Be Tested

The township's new surface mining ordinance, passed last week, will be tested in the near future, according to the township board. The ordinance is designed to regulate the surface mining industry and to protect the environment. The ordinance is designed to regulate the surface mining industry and to protect the environment.

Kendallwoods

(Continued from Page 1A) The problem, with little exception, is the same. Kendallwoods has its own sewer system, but the records show the town granted this permit to Thompson Brown for an interim plan, provided the sewer line will eliminate the sewer line which was connected to the interceptor sewer when it became available.

Chet Downing Has Resigned

Chester E. Downing submitted a letter of resignation to the township board Tuesday night as a member of the township planning board. He will continue on the zoning board. The board accepted with regret. Mr. Downing explained that some additional work left him with no time in which to care for the duties involved.
