Antioch Church Holds Meeting
Once again the United Lutheran Church Women of Antioch Evangelical Lutheran Church are privileged to present an exceptional special speaker at the evening meeting this month to be held at the home of Mrs. Jeanette Gabel, 3580 Chestnutbrook in the Westbrook subdivision.
The speaker will be Pastor Harry Wolf, director of Lutheran Social Services in Michigan, formerly known as Lutheran Charities. This organization does extensive work in the field of old and many other charitable works.
This is a splendid opportunity for the women of Antioch to learn more of the fine work of this organization and to discover more ways in which we may help in this work.
If you are planning a canned food shower for Luther Haven, the home for the aged operated by Lutheran Social Services, if you are interested in attending our meeting March 14 at 8 p.m., please contact Mrs. Gabel at GR. 4-1744 or Mrs. Rita Jones at GR. 4-6328. We will be glad to arrange transportation for any members or guests.

Show Films on Life of Christ
North Congregational Church, Northwestern Highway and Lahser Rd., will hold its third Thursday lenten dinner, on March 17th, followed by films depicting the life of Christ. Both adults and young people will enjoy this powerful dramatization of familiar incidents in the life of Christ.
"FATE OF John the Baptist" has a superb cast of professional actors and elaborates on the cultural background of the times. It dramatically portrays Herod's banquet, dance of Salome, arrest, imprisonment and untimely execution of John the Baptist.
Other episodes to follow are: "Retreat and Decision," "Triumph and Defeat," "Crucifixion and Resurrection." Dinner reservations must be made by calling the Church Office, EL 6-1660.

YWCA Camp Takes New Registrations
Girls who want to attend the YWCA's Camp Cavell, on Lake Huron, will have an opportunity this month to register for the 1960 summer session.
Registration dates have been scheduled at branches of the YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit, a Church Drive agency.
Miss Elizabeth Kitchell, Camp Cavell director, with former campers and members of the camp staff, will be on hand to answer questions and show slides of the camp.
First of the two-week camping sessions at Cavell begins June 25 and runs to July 8. Other sessions are scheduled from July 9-22, July 23 to August 5, and August 6-19.

Show Film in Sunday School
Members of St. John's Lutheran Sunday School viewed a most inspirational film last Sunday evening, "Men of the Wilderness."
It depicted John baptizing Jesus and Jesus' sojourn in the wilderness where he found peace and solitude—an isolation from the work of men and a closer communion with the spirit of the father which led him to the beginning of his great mission.
Mrs. Bernard Staub is a new Sunday School teacher. New members in the Sunday School are: Mrs. Dichter, Mrs. R. Sterling, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. C. Sterling, Mike Meinhold and Diane McPhail.

Hold Dinner at First Methodist
The Orchard Methodist Wesley Fellowship will sponsor a dinner to be held March 16 at 8 p.m. at the First Methodist Church, Farmington. Everyone is invited to attend.
For ticket information, please call Mrs. Dorothy Collingham, GR. 4-6382. Be sure to make your reservations no later than March 13 as no tickets will be sold at the door.

Prince of Peace Holds Service
The third of a series of eight sermons depicting "the signs of the cross" will be presented next Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church.
Rev. Carl E. Mehl will speak on "The Sign of Understanding." The youth chorus will sing, "Glory Be to Jesus."
It's the job of the U.S. Mint to make it first and yours to make it last.

News from Briar Hills
Kathy Kinley MA. 6-6434
"If winter comes, can spring be far behind?" Yep—at least this year. But for many in our Sub, the heavy snow didn't dampen their party spirit.
Many birthdays were celebrated last week. Among them, Mary 8th birthday was celebrated. Cake and candy were consumed by Barbara Palmer, Debbie and Cindy Aston and Sandra McCormick.
Mrs. Karlstrom, 73 years young, celebrated "Her Day" on Saturday with a dinner with her family—the Palmers. She was also the day birthday greetings were sung to Gary Elting at a luncheon in his honor. On hand to see that he began his 12th year right, were: Ted Harris, Mike Homier, Barry General, John Williams, and Steve Harris. Father and son, the boys attended a miniature. Ted Harris started his 10th year Monday with a special dinner in his honor.

Sorrows Troop Honors Scouts
A Court of Honor was held recently for Troop 110 at our headquarters of Sorrows. Receiving 2nd Class Badges were John Butteridge, David Sutton and John Poro. Receiving 1st Class Badges were Alfred Piggott and Tom Madson. Receiving the coveted Eagle badge was Michael Harris.
Tom Blatter, Scout Leader, introduced his new assistants, all former scouts, to the troop: Paul Chubb, Pat Hart, Mike McCloskey, and Miles Main.
The Senior Scouts put on a First Aid Skit. Parents and members of the boys' families attended.

Next Monday, the 14th, is election day. The Warhams have been kind enough after their home so we go to the usual place—the former Wells home at 28477 Eastbrook. The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. We expect every registered voter to vote. Coffee and cookies will be served.
THE BECKERS, Joe and Rosalyn, left January 13th for a trip south. Their first stop was in St. Louis, Mo. where they visited a cousin. They then drove down to Ft. Myers, Fla. where they spent three weeks. Next they went to Key West for three days before driving back up the east coast. On the return trip they stopped in Tryon, N.C. to see some old friends. They stopped at a motel on the mountain side, a very beautiful spot.
By Wednesday morning, when they planned to leave, it had started snowing—and it kept on snowing until they had some 12 inches. It took several hours to get them out so they could get home by about 1:30 Thursday afternoon. They had so bad they made only the 200 miles to Middleboro, Ky. that day. Nearby Knoxville, Tenn. had snow which broke the record set back in 1888. Friday they drove on to Findley, O. and were so tired they stopped there. They made home about noon Saturday—and wished they were back in the sunny south.
THE WOMENS meeting was held last week Tuesday at the Franklin Community Club basketball room. The Birmingham League championship last Monday night when they beat the First Presbyterian Church team in overtime play in the finals. Carter Billis is a member of the team that has won in this league the past two years. Soon the Franklin Church team will start playing against the Detroit League.
