Kenbrook PTA Names Officers
The following officers were elected at the March meeting of the Kenbrook PTA: President, Donald Bluff; Father Vice President, Floyd Jager; Mother Vice President, Bonita Cunningham; Teacher Vice President, Galena Stone; Recording Secretary, Wilma Soloff; Corresponding Secretary, Pat McCarthy; Treasurer, Joe Allardine; and Historian, Joan Kindree.
The treasurer reported that we have 422 members. Everyone enjoyed the stimulating talk given by Stephen Szabo, youthfulness, Hungarian Freedom fighter. He left us with a great deal to think about.
THE "Play Boys", the local musical group, did a fine job of playing the selection written by their own group entitled, "Play Boys Part I."
The Kenbrook PTA is planning a warm up to be held May 21 at the Kenbrook School. Watch the newspaper for further details on this coming event.

Set August 13 Wedding Date
Mr. and Mrs. Francis Langthorne, 71933 Anchester, Detroit and formerly of Farmington, have announced the engagement of their daughter Margaret Joan, Frank Hugh Quinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Quinn of Ferndale.
The bride elect is a senior at Eastern Michigan College and her fiancé is a senior at Wayne State University.
August 13 has been set as the wedding date.

Cub Pack 162 Gives Medals
Cub Pack 162 had their first Pinewood Derby under the guidance of Mr. Brooks. The winner of the craftsmanship award was John Schwochow. The winner on racing was David Cool with second place going to David Exley. The boys decided to have bays as their next project on hobby night.
Tom O'Hara was received into the pack and received his bobbed badge and wolf book. Randy Lively won an award for his shell display, a really great collection of shells - great work, Randy.
MEDAL winners were: Stewart Leung, one year pin; Randy Osterander, bear badge and a gold and silver arrow; Jerry Kendrick, bear badge and a one year pin; Steven C. O'Neil, lion badge and a gold and silver arrow; Steven Kreuter, silver arrow; Ken Luark, bobbed badge; Mick Zahn, gold and silver arrow; Tim Zolner, silver arrow; Frank Montour, gold and silver arrow; and Mike Lang and Randy Lively, wolf badges.

Library Shows Travel Films
Travel films on Canada and Scotland will be shown at 7:30 on Tuesday evening, March 29th at the Redford Branch Library, 2511 W. McNichols Road, 33401 Grand River Avenue.
Two films in color on Canada include a trip through the wilderness of Manitoba, and an exploration of the forests, rocks, lakes, and rivers of northern Saskatchewan. The film on Scotland is entitled THE CROFTERS and shows the life of people in northwestern rural Scotland.
The program lasts about an hour and a quarter and is a free presentation of your Detroit Public Library. Farmington area residents are cordially invited to attend.

Wood Creek Farms Village
ANNE M. PHILLIPS MA. 6-6335
Gill Spilman's first love has caught up with him - he bought a drug store. On March 10th he purchased Lea's Drug Store at Telegraph and 10 Mile Rd. Gill and Lea have been working like mad cleaning up - you can see through the windows now - getting restocked and ready to hang out a new sign, "Gill's Drugs".
There will be two registered pharmacists to carefully fill prescriptions; the store has a package beverage license; and the hours will be 10 to 10 daily and 14 Sundays. In 2 or 3 weeks, I will announce the grand opening so everyone can go down to see how well stocked it is and how efficiently one will be served. We all wish you success in your latest venture, Gill!

5000 Teachers Meet Tomorrow
More than 5000 Oakland County teachers and administrators are expected to participate in the Michigan Education Association's Region 7 conference in area elementary and secondary schools, March 25.
Themed "International Understanding," the regional conference is the second such meeting to be held by Region 7 during the 1959-60 school year.
The conference, which is composed of group meetings and all-day meetings, will cover practically every phase of the school curriculum.
James M. McNeely, Farmington, is executive secretary of the Region 7 conference.

IT'S AN ADDED ACCESSORY GOING ON THE BIGGER CARS THESE DAYS
True, this is one way of making sure you'll get where you're going. But we think it's a whole lot smarter to stop here for a checkup.

Mrs. Phillips Visits School
Mrs. Dorothy Waldo Phillips, who specializes in the fields of Youth Guidance and Adult Education, will visit Wooddale School, Wednesday, March 30th. Mrs. Phillips will conduct several programs throughout the day for the children and will be Guest Lecturer at the PTA meeting that night at 8 P.M.
Mrs. Phillips's programs have proved so interesting that members of a Farmington PTA where she was a guest recently have requested permission to attend the Wooddale PTA meeting and make a tape recording of her lecture.
Inasmuch as Wooddale School is the only school in that Farmington Area that Mrs. Phillips will visit, anyone interested in her program is cordially invited to attend Wooddale PTA Meeting on Wednesday, March 30th, at 8 P.M.

Mr. & Mrs. Cope Return From South Seas Tour
Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Cope returned recently from a ten week tour of the South Seas. They left Farmington December 23 and spent Christmas with a daughter, Mrs. Ralph Hunt, at the home of the South Seas. On December 27 they sailed on the S.S. Mariposa for Los Angeles where they spent a day with a nephew and then started a 7 1/2 day voyage to Tahiti. This island, and nearby Moorea, live up to their reputations for glamorous girls, exotic dances, and beautiful flowers.

DREAMY "DOS"
Our beauty personality type changes when we put on dramatically different clothes. With the Romantic Look of small waist and full skirt, there's an air of sweetness and light, as if one could float through twirling Vietnamese ballroom softness to match the dreamy mood. Makeup is petal-fragrant with gentle pink shades predominating.
