Measles seem to be plaguing the children of Briar Hill lately. Little Johnny Jalich recently recovered from his bout with them and now the Dager children are having theirs.

At it — Laurel and Deryl were 1st and now Scott, their brother is down with it.

We suppose a baseball and bat has been purchased ready for the son born to Dick and Pat Ruehle at Beaumont on March 31st. Congratulations to the parents of this fine lad of 12 oz. and who bears the name of Ross Hart.

Speaking of babies, Benita Hoge was the honored guest at a surprise "after the baby" shower Monday night at the home of Phyllis General.

This was, in a way, a surprise for Phyllis too — the party was planned long ago, today Hoge pulled a fast one and surprised his parents by arriving extra early. Guess he didn't want to be left out of a party!

Among those present were Joe Berio, Julie Marzinske, Diane Condon, Norma Surbeck, Sandy Scott, Jean Maunick, and Mrs. Marsh.

APRIL 4TH was quite a day for the Norm General family. Phyllis and Norm observed their 15th wedding anniversary and their son, Barry celebrated his 13th birthday.

"You're never too old to learn" might well be the motto of a group of friends brushing up on old dance steps and keeping up with the latest. The Adams, Vances, Sloans, Froms, Huls, Jones, Daggetts, Emmets and the Don Marzinskes make up this group enjoying their weekly dance lesson.

Have more "spare" time in the summer? Want to "strike" up some new acquaintances? Then "pin" your hopes on the new Summer Mixed Bowling League now being formed. For further information, call Elsie and Al Vance — MA 6-5323.

Birthday greetings were sung to Jimmy Patterson yesterday when he became 5. Games, prizes and the ice-cream and cake were enjoyed by Dicky, his brother, cousin Rossi Engel and and Furlon. Funies Tommy Scott, Bobby Hedges and David Nauman.

OK Expanding Music Program

Expansion of the instrumental music program presently being offered by the Farmington public school system during the summer months was approved by the Board of Education at a regular meeting Monday night, March 28.

This has been an increasingly popular program for the past several years and, as it has grown, the need for more and more demands have been placed on the two teachers conducting it, Supt. G. V. Harrison said.

The addition of one more teacher will help ease this burden and also permit some expansion of the program, Harrison commented.

Trickle Lou Market is open daily until 12 and Sundays until 9 p.m.

CS Troop 123 Goes to Keego

The Keego School members of Troop 123 took a field trip to the Keego Glass and Mirror Company in Keego Harbor recently. The girls, who are working for their Glass badge, were shown various types of glass used in windows and mirrors, a demonstration of glass cutting, and watched glass being etched by sand blasting.

Scouts who enjoyed the trip were Lani, Cowan, Janet, Deneer, Lynn Elsey, Mary Lyni Griswold, Judy Hall, Janet MacKay, Stephanie Smith, Susan Snyder, Pamela Wilson, and Susan Worek. They were accompanied by their leaders, Mrs. Wm. J. Keegan Jr. and Mrs. Carl W. Cowan.

This past Tuesday evening the Tween-Hill Patrol wonch at Mrs. Keegan's home had a Pizza supper. Each girl made a different kind of Pizza Pie and had a wonderful time sampling each other's cooking.

These Scouts are Cathy Heimforth, Dianne Mason, Mary Lyni Perry, Janis Pierce, and Sharon Vincent. After supper and clean-up the patrol held a Court-of-Awards and received badges they have been working on since September.

The troop leaders and scouts wish to thank all who purchased Girl Scout Cookies and especially Mrs. Charles Prussian who did such a grand job as cookie chairman for the troop.
