Report - Three PI Accidents

Three personal injury accidents occurred in the township during the past week, one involving a drunk driver who forced another car off the road and then left the scene.

HERE IS A PHOTO of the Star Cutter display background just after completion at the Farmington plant. It has since been moved to the Detroit Artillery Army where it will be utilized as the background for the company's exhibit featuring Starbuore gun drills, special mil-ing cutters and pressure coolant reamers. The Engineering Conference and Exhibit sponsored by the American Society of Tool and Manufacturing Engineers gets underway today and will extend through April 23.

Farmington Acres News

MRS. DAVID KRINGS

Wasn't it wonderful! All those pretty bonnets, colored eggs, new dresses, jelly beans, howties, drizzling rain, tummy aches, new suits, bunny rabbits, and finally sunshine. There's nothing like Easter, and it seems that the Easter Bunny left more than eggs at the Trunk house on Larkspur, he left a brother or maybe a sister to help him to get the job done.

A few weeks ago, Mrs. Don Schurr and her two sons, spent five days in Saginaw with Sandy's mother and husband Don.

And then there are those who think there is nothing like a Manhattan early Easter morning. How about that?
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Karwaski Sr. from Superior Wisconsin will be visiting Stan and Roz of Larkspur sometime this week. They are one of what we would all like to see on that is an extended trip across the United States. Hope you have all wonderful trip folks, I know you would love to tag along (Expenses free of course) Hope that you also enjoy your stay here at the acres.
