Townline News

MRS. FRAZER HULTS GR. 4-1879 Returning last week to their home on Haggerty Road from Florida where they had spent the winter months were Mr. and Mrs. James Lapham. Oakland County Farm Bureau Women's Committee met this Tuesday at the Clarkston Community Building with Mrs. William Duetler as hostess. Cooperative luncheon was served at noon. Business meeting followed. Mrs. Hildred Hunt and Mrs. Grace Rexin attended from here. Having sold his farm, Mr. Richard Mason, Haggerty Road, has moved to Holt, Michigan where he has purchased a home. A recent Saturday get-together saw Cheryl Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harris, Haggerty Road, invite in fifteen of her girl friends from the Novi School for a camp out. The girls enjoyed it so much that they decided to form a club and will meet at the different homes on Saturdays with each girl providing some form of entertainment. Having purchased a home on Randall St. in Farmington Township, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Bush and children have moved there from a residence on Haggerty Road which they have occupied for the past seventeen years. Mr. and Mrs. James Hill and children who resided on Radcliff St. have moved to the house vacated by the Bushs. Mr. and Mrs. Royal McCormick and children spent the week end at St. Ignace, Michigan as guests of Mr. McCormick's parents, the Earl Richards. The McCormicks are moving to St. Ignace as soon as school is out. They will take over the management of the Richardson's tourist cabins.

Students See Art Exhibit

Cloverdale fifth and sixth grade students accompanied by their teacher, Miss Patricia Brown, and Miss Dorothy Wise, Art Consultant, attended the Employees International Association Spring Festival at the Ford Rotunda on Friday, April 22, 1960. The students found the area of sculpture interesting and challenging. Watercolor, pencil, charcoal, and pastel areas gave them new ideas with an international aspect.
