Up'n Around Ridgewood And The Manor

LYNNE RICK GR. 4-6447
SHARON CROWE GR. 6-0893

There's an old adage which certainly describes this Michigan climate. It is, "If you don't like the weather, wait a minute and it will change." The residents in this state as well as those in Ridgewood and The Manor can surely vouch for this fact.

Although the girls had the upper hand in this subdivision, the boys took over when it came to First Communion. Dick Cameron and Joseph LaPorte were members of the First Communion Class at Our Lady of Sorrows this past Sunday, May 1st.

News from Bel-Aire Hills

Sally Witt GR. 6-0733
Noreen Martin of Marblehead and Pat Niehaus of Colchester have given Bel-Aire the distinction of having as residents two of the newly-elected officers of the Jaycee Auxiliary.

AL AND SHIRLEY Horner of Colchester were one of four couples who represented Our Lady of Sorrows Parish credit union at the national convention held in Grand Rapids, April 21st through the 24th.

A combined birthday celebration was in order for Doris Baker, and Rita Anderson of Colchester Saturday evening. Since Doris's birthday falls on the 28th and Rita's falls on the 30th, thoughtful husbands, Bob and Bob, treated the girls to steak at Guffin's followed by two good movies!

Training Ends For Stickney
Marine P.W. Kenneth R. Stickney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas G. Stickney of 21270 Osma St., Farmington, Mich., completed recruit training May 2 at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

Happy Mother's Day to you! Here's hoping there's an abundance of cards, flowers and candy honoring Mother on her special day... but we know that for better or worse, in sickness and in health, EVERY DAY is Mother's Day!

First Holy Communion was also made by Al and Shirley Horner's 7 1/2 year old son, Jimmy, Sunday. Following the ceremony the day was spent entertaining relatives at the Horner's open house.

Games were played in the basement gally decorated by Debbie's Dad. Cake and ice cream added to the festivities. Dinner guests on Sunday were: Debbie's aunt, Edith Coston, from Battle Creek who spent the weekend as guest at the Kiehl home, and Debbie's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carlson.
