

Coed & Dad Bring Home Bacon And Then Some

Last Sunday was Derby Day in Kentucky, but in Farmington Township attention was focused on another type of race.

At 8:30 that morning, long before the three year olds went to the post for the annual race for the roses, the local race track was under way. Maria Corona, 22-year-old U of D coed, was racing the clock.

She had been selected by the St. Francis Council, Knights of Columbus and was given the envious opportunity to spend 15 minutes in the new A & P store at 13 Mile and Orchard Lake Road selecting anything she wanted. The Knights were going to pick up the tab, whatever it came to.

MARIA was allowed to select a lobster to push and help load the cart. She chose her father, Jesse, and at 8:30 they made a 10-minute tour of the store to get their bearings and make a plan of action before the "food scramble" got underway.

Presumptively at 8:40 the race was on. First choice was a beautiful 40 lb. beef loin. Then more meat; steaks, roasts, bacon, chops and everything imaginable was dished out to the cart.

Maria then darted over to the record section and flipped 51 albums into the cart. She whirled around and tossed in 21 pair of nylon, not taking time to check sizes.

Off she went again, with her hand in the frozen food section where she scooped up on orange juice and miscellaneous other frozen products. She also darted to the dairy counter and added butter to her fast-mounting load.

When the man on the PA announced "Maria, you have four minutes left", the cart was already filled to the breaking point.

Like a whirling dervish the pretty brunette went down the home stretch carefully adding shampoo, cigarettes and looking odd to the teetering load. Her hand, a Ford Motor employee, was doing such a fine job of controlling.

WITH A MINUTE still to go, there was hardly room for a package of gum, so Maria called it quits at this point. Onlookers sighed as she and Mr. Corona wheeled the bulging cart up to the checkout counter.

Ochs and Ahs were heard as the PA announced that $500 had already been rung up when the cart looked less than half empty. Before the race had started, sideline speculators estimated the total of anyone there from $75.00 to $400.

When the final item was checked out, the total was $750.00, which was the K of C group $150 in the red on their promotion.

Despite their setback which was somewhat mitigated by the Council, contest chairman, Louis Hernandez said, "We'll take the loss with a smile, but next time we'll set a shorter time limit."

Store manager, Melvin Todd estimated the load must have weighed at least 600 pounds. Mr. Corona was pushing the cart, figured it was close to half a ton. The checkout tape measured four feet in length.

Just after the checkout was completed and everyone was relaxing, Mrs. Corona was pushing a cart toward the produce department. "I have to get some potatoes and vegetables to go with that meat," the mother said.

Plan Antique Study Group

Kathy Kinley of Northwick in Brainer Hills was hostess to fourteen women who are interested in forming an evening antique study group. A name was discussed but not decided on.

The membership was set at twenty with the meeting taking place the last Monday night of the month. Mrs. Kinley is going to be the temporary chairman and Mrs. Jane Taper is secretary.

Several field trips were announced. One was to the Green Shutter in Claridon on Monday. Another is May 18th at 7 p.m. to the Copper River Hotel.

The next meeting is on Monday evening, May 22nd, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Taper, 3275 Coronet, GR 4-0873. Anyone interested in joining may call either of these ladies.

Match-Em' Hance
Slated by C-I-H-U.

Next Friday evening, May 20, the C-I-H-U (Can I Help You) organization of Farmington in Senior High, will sponsor a "Match-Em' Hance" in the senior high gymnasium.

Couples standing in place are to wear a matching piece of clothing to that of their date.

THE A & P "FOOD SCRAMBLE" netted $711.69 for Maria Corona as she called it quits after 14 of the 15 minutes allotted for the race. There just wasn't any more room.

Orchard Meadows Sub

DANIEL HICKEY GR 6-1869

A Star is Born. Several of the families of the sub, attended the Farmington Players production of the Hasty Heart last weekend and all agreed that our Bob Shaw did a tremendous job in the portrayal of "Digger" the wounded Australian soldier. Who knows maybe Bob missed his calling when he sought employment with Burrough's. Anyhow, he always has a profession to fall back on.

The Orchard Meadows board of directors held a meeting last Thursday evening at the home of president Bob Burt. There will be a semi-annual general meeting held on Sunday afternoon, May 22nd, at 3:30 p.m. in the Burt's garage. You will be notified of this meeting in advance, so please try and keep the date open. Everyone should be present.

The ladies bridge club meeting was postponed this week, but will be held in two weeks, May 24th, at the home of Joan Brown.

The next monthly meeting of the Farmington Spec's. Investment Club will be held on Friday evening, May 20th, at the home of Jack Yates. Dan Hickey and Jack Yates will report on various stocks.

It looks like the measles are on the downgrade in our Sub, no new cases reported in the last week. What will be next?

The fastest trip on the Pony Express out of St. Joseph, Mo., was seven days, 17 hours when Lincoln's inaugural address was carried to the West Coast.

Dickie Lou Market is open daily until 12 and Sundays until 9 p.m.
