44 Seniors Land On Honor Roll

The Senior Class has topped the honor roll again with 44 seniors, or 96 per cent of the class members.

The Sophomore Class is second with 7 per cent or 28 students. The Class of 1961 has 25 or 19.3 per cent of their class on the list.

Elect Wall as Council Prexy

After participating in a colorful week of campaigning and anxiously waiting for the polls, the Student Council elected its officers last Thursday. The candidates ran easily in their respective offices, or if they have not been quite so fortunate, they can wait and try again next year.

Jim Wall will take office as new president of the Student Council and will be assisted in his duties by the new vice-president, Brian Beck.

The Junior Class elected 13 senior representatives, and three alternates for next year. Out of these 16, 10 have served on the Council previously. These 10 will be indicated by an asterisk after their names. Senior representatives for next year are as follows: Judy Austin, Gary Bartsch, Andrew Gardner, Doug Henry, Marilyn Hodges, Sandy Hupert, Alice Polley, Sue Kosmenko, Louise Lind, Mary Jane McGarry, Pete Rheinboldt, Karen Ross, and Gal Taylor.

The Sophomore Class also voted in 12 representatives and three alternates, one of whom, right have had previous experience on the Council. Next year's Junior representatives are: Pam Overton, Diane Allen, James Anderson, Sherry Barger, Gary Blane, Diana Briggs, Toni Chaska, Virginia Crouch, Anita Currier, Linda Esser, Charlene Evert, John Hackstedde, Mary Hammill, Dennis Heinonen, Renee Karkisto, Sandy Kyle, Charles Larson, Nancy Larson, Kirsti played several solos, and participated in music festivals, receiving ratings of superior and excellent.

Leith Letcher, junior, and Bill Hall, sophomore, have been selected as the senior high students to receive instrumental scholarships. Both boys have made Michigan State University choices; both participated in the school band and the dance band. Letcher plays the baritone in the band and the trumpet in the dance band. Hall plays the french horn in the band and the bass in the dance band.

Don McCarthy, Lee Rundle and James Kinkadee, high students, were given scholarships. Donald Williams, also from the junior high, was selected as alternate.

According to Mr. Robert Zimmerman, band instructor, 29 students auditioned for the music scholarships.

Jay-Cees Name Winners Of Music Scholarships

The Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce has named the winners of their summer music scholarships. The 450 scholarships were awarded to a total of eight students to help pay their expenses to a summer music camp of their choice.

Pam Overton and Diane Swanson, juniors, have received scholarships for their vocal achievements. Pam will go to Interlochen and Diane has selected the music camp at Michigan State.

Nancy Hall, junior, who is a teacher's daughter, was chosen as alternate. A three girls are sopranos in F. conaires and took part in last year's concert.

The piano scholarship was won by Susan Kosmenko, junior, who has applied to Interlochen. Sherry Hermann, from the junior high school, was chosen as her alternate.

Sue has served as accompanist, played several solos, and participated in music festivals, receiving ratings of superior and excellent.

Kenbrook 5th Graders Take Interesting Trip

Do you like to star gaze? Are you a microbe hunter? Would you enjoy looking at the world through a fish's eye? You could have done all these things - and this year too! If you were a fifth grader at the Kenbrook Elementary School on Boone Hill, you would have been on a trip through the medium of the planetarium at Cranbrook. Through the powerful microscope in the Oakland County Health Laboratory, and through the craftsmanship and artistry of the naturalists at the University of Michigan's Exhibit Museum, 120 boys and girls have been able to project themselves by imagination into worlds beyond.

As the children in Mrs. Jun. Nottall's rooms completed units of study in their science projects, Mrs. Emma Seidel, principal, arranged for this trip to broaden their perspective and found out their understanding of the words "microbe" and "star gaze".

At Home in Old Homestead

Sunday was a very busy day in the subdivision. A good number of the residents either spent Mother's Day with relatives or entertained family groups here. It would be impossible to report the celebrations of each family in Old Homestead as we can just hope that each Mother had a pleasant day with her family.

Last Friday Donna and Jim Gibbons had Jim's mother as a dinner guest. Mrs. Clara Gibbons, whose home is in Allgood, Tennessee, has been visiting Jim's brother and his family in Pensacola.

ing which lightning struck twice in the subdivision. The most damage was done to the home of Bob and Betty Bohme, which was hit by lightning. However until a week ago Tuesday we did not realize that when the transformer on the Edison pole near Quaine's was struck a live wire fell in the field between the Quaine and Davis homes.

We are extremely thankful that this incident was merely that rather than the tragedy that it might have been. An area not ten feet from this wire had been moved for a baseball diamond and was in daily use by a number of the subdivisions baseball enthusiasts. In addition to this the children playing in the Davis yard often wander into this field.

SATURDAY, May 14, the Apples will meet at the home of Bob and Jean Radatz for the Square Dance. If you plan to attend please call either Dorothy Furlong, GR 4-6033; Yvette Riebs, GR 6-0265; or Buy to Friendly Farmington!
