

Oldtimer Here Passes Tuesday

Herman R. Kreager, resident of Farmington for over 50 years before moving to Northville 3 1/2 years ago, died at his home at 4153 Nimitz Drive, Linden, Michigan on May 24.

Funeral services will be held today, Thursday, at 2 p.m. from the Capstone Funeral Home in Northville with Rev. Carl Schultz of the Salem United Church in Farmington officiating. Interment will be at the Clarendonville Cemetery.

Kreager was born in Germany on Dec. 26, 1882. He was a conductor on the old D.D. line running to Farmington for a time. Just three years ago he retired from work at the Plumber Steel Corp. in Plymouth, Michigan.

Left to survive him besides his wife, Mabel, are three daughters: Mrs. Earl W. Vines and Mrs. E. H. Halsted, both of Farmington, and Mrs. Vaughn Smith of Plymouth. He also leaves three grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

WHERE'S CHARLIE?

HE WAS COMPLAINING ABOUT THE CAR ON THE WAY HERE...

I'll bet he took off into town to get it put back in top shape at General Auto... He just won't trust anyone other than his mechanics to work on it.

The June 10th dance sponsored by the Kendallwood Association and the Kendallwood Farms Association will be held at the Tom O'Shaughnessy Club. Ticket Chairman Marge Wilcox reports the following:

Kendallwood will handle tickets in their area and should be contacted as soon as definite plans to attend are made and they will reserve your tickets which will soon be available:

Betty Campbell, GR. 4-7982; Betty Fife, GR. 4-2633; Bill Bierley, GR. 4-2493; Irene Liebert, GR. 4-8571; Barb Stevens, GR. 4-7254; Irene Blum, GR. 4-8271; Carol McMan, GR. 6-0835; Dagmar Thaler, GR. 4-8382; Don Bobb, GR. 4-7899; Donna Cove, GR. 4-0888; Marge Wilcox, GR. 4-8193; Ann Pietro, GR. 4-8677; Ann Blasutta, GR. 6-3715; Tom McPhail, GR. 4-2694; Mary Trebb, GR. 4-7850; Gene Pulgini, GR. 4-8333; Joyce Little, GR. 4-7218.

THE BOARD OF Directors of the Kendallwood Association held a meeting at the home of Marge Wilcox on May 10. The following directors were present: Bartels, Campbell, Beck, Liebert, MacClaren, Marge Wilcox, Sandbothe, Thaler, and Wilcox. Absent were Blum, Morley, and Pulgini. It was decided that in the future board meetings will be held on the first Tuesday of each month. Discussion was held regarding the spring clean up day. Suggestions were made for improvement in it next year.

Reactions from residents indicate that it was successful with some exceptions where people were inadvertently missed. Secretary instructed to report entrance lights out at both bayberry entrances. President is to make contacts for an Area Director in NE-2. Landscaping plans are being considered for the entrance but some further checking needs to be done.

The vacant house (lost 261) on Newcastle was reported by Steve Sandbothe as being objectionable to the neighbors because nothing has been done about the grass. It is understood that a complaint has been registered with Argonaut Realty, but that no action has been taken by them. The Association is to write a letter.

Marge Wilcox is to get tickets from Gene Pulgini for the June 10th Dance and distribute them to neighborhood representatives. After this dance effort will be made to secure a new social committee. Thompson-Brown is to be contacted for grading and seeding of the vacant lots on Farmington Road. The secretary instructed to write a letter to Oakland County asking for grading of road right of way between our subdivision and

The Kendallwood Couples Bowling League wound up the season with a gala event at Guffins Frontier Town. The party included cocktails, dinner and dancing. Season's high scores received trophies.
