News from Briar Hills

Kathy Kinley MA. 6-6434
The usual saying, "no new is good news" doesn't always apply. In this case it means no new if it means no new in the sense of "no new" because of YOU that there's no new column.
Sat. was a foul day for many youngsters in our Sub. Quite a few dads and lads were soon readying the baseball diamond — hand me the sunburn lotion and liniment, mom! That afternoon the pupils of Arlene Robertson gave an informal piano recital at her home on Ravencroft. For many it was their first such occasion.
The young performers who showed their budding talent in each other were Gary and Dale General, Gary and Dale Etting, Patsy Norton, Cindy Sloan, Kathy McCarthy, Karen Kinley, Mike Homier, Geraldine Lupia and Debbie Robertson. The Maysen home on Banbury was the setting for another gala occasion Sat. Kathy celebrated her 9th birthday with school chums. Singing Happy Birthday to Kathy were, Beverly Hatch, Mary Jo Lemieux, Susan Bird, Sandra McCormick, Debbie Newton, Debbie Echols, Geraldine Lupia, Susan Palmer, Karen Kinley, Mary Beth Siegenthaler.
SUNDAY AFTERNOON 27 adults and children gathered at the Kinley home for a potluck picnic in their backyard. This was the last get-together of the year for this Potluck group.
Quite a group gathered at the Lupia home on Sunday, May 29th in recognition of daughter Ernestine's 16th birthday. The Ernest Dulls and the Dan Sangerzaans came from Dearborn and the Brauneruthers, the last bowling session of the Briar Hill Women's Bowling League resulted in the following life-up: Nossan, DeBartel, Thompson-Brown, Mercer, Bertera, Twin Pines and Atlas. Ward has it that the new Woodbrook Swimming Club is about to begin construction. There is still time to make that idea a reality - so let your actions speak louder than your words.
We're glad to report that Marilee Dunivan is home recuperating from her bout with pneumonia which kept her in Sinai hospital for 2 weeks. Sisters were heard wailing in our Sub last week ago Sun, but instead of a fire it was a rescue squad to rush the small son of Diane and Don Condon to Harbor Hospital. Gregg had gone into convulsions as a result of bronchitis and remained at Harbor until this Sunday when his parents brought him home.
Fortunately, Diane's folks from Chicago were visiting the Concons so both moral and physical support was given to Diane and Don. Pam Siegenthaler will undergo her 2nd corrective back surgery this week at University Hospital in Ann Arbor — how about sending a cheer-up card to her?
SIX YOUNG girls are sporting shiny new pins that signify a big step in their life. Last Tuesday Debbie Echols, Wendy Corcoran, Beverly Adema, and Cecily Morgan became Scouts in the fly-up ceremony of troop 1059 at Bond school. Congratulations to these girls as they go on to a new phase of scouting. This ceremony, witnessed by the mothers and other troop members, officially ended the year for this troop.
