PTA Sponsors Move-Up Day

The Middlebelt PTA sponsored the Annual Moving Up Program on Monday, June 13 in the school's multi-purpose room. Dinner was served at 8:30 p.m. to the fifty sixth-grade pupils, their parents, and teachers. The occasion for the banquet was to honor students prior to their leaving elementary school for junior high.

Musical numbers were rendered by the sixth grade choir and band under the direction of Mrs. Corey, and Mr. Smith respectively. The pupils were then introduced by the teachers Mrs. Strong and Mr. O'Neill.

Miss Dorothy Wise, art consultant, presented a check to Nancy Grosehoover for second place award in the American Legion Auxiliary Poppy Poster Contest. The other students who participated received their citation of merit certificates at this time.

MRS. WERNER C. MAKI

Werner Maki, Barbara Worden Wed Saturday

Barbara Ann Worden of Grand Blanc, Michigan became the bride of Werner C. Maki in a double ring evening ceremony at the Grand Blanc Methodist Church last Saturday, June 11.

The bride was attired in a floor length white nylon gown accented by a finger tip veil. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses cascaded with ivy.

Georgia Lee Worden, sister of the bride, was dressed in pink and carried pink carnations as she attended her sister as matron of honor. Janice Farrell and Mrs. Avis Nelson were the bridesmaids.

Attending the groom as best man was Jerald Brumm. William Wartsler, Vernon Nelson and Keith Brumm served as ushers.

Mrs. George E. Worden, mother of the bride, selected a blue gown accented with yellow roses. The groom's mother, Mrs. Werner E. Maki, chose a beige gown with green accents and wore a green orchid.

REVEREND LOEB performed the ceremony. Vocal selections, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by William Wallace at the 6:30 p.m. service.

Following the ceremony the new Mr. and Mrs. Maki received their friends and relatives at a buffet supper held at Kinney's.

The bride is a 1950 graduate of Central Michigan University and her husband is a 1953 graduate of the same school. He is currently enrolled in the science curriculum at Michigan State University and the couple will delay their wedding trip until after the summer session. They will make their home in Grand Blanc.

Players Elect New Officers

Incoming Farmington Players board members met last week at the Players Barn, with the incumbent board members, to elect officers and to select committee chairmen for the coming year.

The new officers are president, George Nalshoff; vice president, Phil Kidd; secretary, Bessie Hannan; and treasurer, George Mullin. Fred Hamilton, Ronald Jackson, Lorraine Higgins and Joe Papp complete the new board.

Outgoing president Jim Allison summarized the highlights of a very successful year for Farmington Players and announced that the June meeting would be postponed one week to June 25 because of the special Hasty Night performance at the Birmingham Fine Arts Festival June 16. The June meeting will be a special membership meeting with details to be announced in next week's Enterprise.

NEW COMMITTEE chairmen are as follows: casting, J. Allison; publicity, M. Wilson; house, H. Farmer; tickets, W. Orr; personnel, P. Budgeon; properties, K. Farmer; refreshments, H. Pasterka; staging, D. Briggs; costumes, H. Nalshoff; publicity, W. Salisbury; publications, W. Wilson; program, M. Perry; building, C. Hanson; make-up, M. Wilson; and membership, D. Papp.

The selection of the fall show will be the first major action of the new board.

Players to Do Repeat on H.H.

The Farmington Players have been invited to present their recent production of "The Hasty Heart" at the Birmingham Bloomfield Hills Fine Arts Festival on Thursday, June 16 at 9 p.m. in a Godeske Dome set up for the occasion in Shadel Park, Birmingham.

The week-long festival, beginning on June 10, will include demonstrations of the painting, sculpturing and weaving arts, as well as the dramatic arts. Another feature will be a talk by the well-known American poet, Carl Sandburg.

"The Hasty Heart" was recommended to the Festival Committee by one of its members who had viewed the sell-out production at the local Players' Barn on Twelve Mile Road.

Dandelion is another thing which, if given an inch, will take a yard.

Dedicate Library

Ceremonies marking the dedication of the ground for the new West Bloomfield Township Library have been scheduled for Saturday, June 18, at 2:00 p.m. The site of the building is on Orchard Lake Road between the Township Hall and Walnut Lake Road.

Knolls Ladies Name Officers

The Franklin Knolls Woman's Club installed new officers last Thursday at a luncheon at the Farmington Country Club.

The start of the new year was symbolized by Edna Greenwald, outgoing president, handing her book of office to Helen Pettibone, incoming president. Reports were given by the other officers and chairman of the year's activities.

The luncheon was then highlighted by an amusing skit on "Suburban Wife's Fashions," written by Naomi Schwink and brought into rhyme by Phyllis Pavel. The commentator, Mary Goodwin, did an excellent job in Hopper, and the rest of the cast, as high-fashion models were: Dorothy Lauer, Marjorie Sheets, Rox Kaveler, Judy Sisko, and Jessie Morello. The background music by Carol McCoy was of outstanding quality and matched the mood of the show.

The novel skit received such a high praise by those attending the luncheon that plans were made to present it again for the benefit of the Men's Civic Improvement Association of the Knolls.

Name Officers In Acres Club

At the regular meeting of the Women's Civic Club of Farmington Acres, May 26, the officers for the coming year were elected.

The new Mrs. Maki is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Worden of Grand Blanc and Mr. and Mrs. Werner E. Maki of the groom's parents, reside at 2470 Farmington Road, Farmington.

Those from Franklin Knolls were Mrs. E. Lacona, Mrs. Will Brumm, Mrs. Rudy Grum, Mrs. G. Gibbons, Mrs. W. Domrowski, Mrs. Klarih and Mrs. K. Pettibone.

Mrs. John Phillips is visiting from Cambridge, Maryland. Mrs. Donald Blaul, the public education chairman and Mrs. Allen Nelson, the service chairman attended.

Mrs. Blaul is moving to Pittsburgh, Pa., and a new publicity chairman will be needed. Please contact Mrs. Gebbons, GR. 4-1039.

Nancy Hodgins Is Delegate

Miss Nancy Hodgins of 24530 Orchard Lake, Farmington, has been elected as a delegate to the Alpha Phi Fraternity International Convention in Miami Beach, Florida. The convention will be held at the Carillon Hotel from June 20th to 25th.

The convention theme, "The Ivy Vines Grow" will depict the development of the fraternity since it was founded 88 years ago at Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York.

Areas to be stressed are the fraternity international philanthropy, cardiac aid, and the fraternity's newest and most far reaching project, the Alpha Phi Foundation which was launched three years ago to provide scholarships for students, and to make educational grants to universities.

Newcomers to Meet June 22

Farmington Newcomers will meet Wednesday, June 22nd at 11:30 a.m. for the annual plant exchange and potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Clara Baird, 33750 Alta Loma.

The members are furnishing the food. May this be a reminder to all the ladies to confirm their donation so that luncheon will be balanced.

Your invitations were in the mail June 9th. Please contact any of the officers this week if you do not plan to attend.

Announce Aug. Wedding Plans

The Rev. and Mrs. Walter Rutkowski of 20882 Kenwood, Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lois Ella to Donald L. Brenner, son of Mrs. Bertha Brenner of Sebeva, Michigan, and the late Mr. Brenner.

The bride-elect is a graduate of The Detroit Lutheran High School, Mount Carmel Mercy School of Medical Technology, Valparaiso, Indiana, where she was a member of Sigma Theta sorority.

Her fiance attended Concordia Teacher's College, River Forest, Illinois, and has completed some graduate work at the University of Michigan. In September he will assume a new teaching position in Grosse Pointe, Michigan. An August wedding is planned.

Cancer Pad Group Meets

The cancer pad sewing group of Farmington held a picnic at the home of Farmington Chairman, Mrs. John Gebbons, 2333 Liberty on June 3.

Those who attended from St. Paul's Lutheran Church were Mrs. Vern Richter, Mrs. Karl Schneider and Mrs. Martin Christensen.

Attending from Salem Church were Mrs. Louise Mangel, Ann Becker, Mrs. Pauline Rutann, Mrs. Daisy Alden, Mrs. Eva Schweizer, Mrs. Loretta Meyer, Mrs. Margaret Masz, Mrs. Mary Lenz and Mrs. Charles Kowalski.

In the Woodbine group were Mrs. William Gidday, Mrs. Harold Chulman, Mrs. Grace C. Smith and Mrs. David Wrigley.

THOSE FROM Franklin Knolls were Mrs. E. Lacona, Mrs. Will Brumm, Mrs. Rudy Grum, Mrs. G. Gibbons, Mrs. W. Domrowski, Mrs. Klarih and Mrs. K. Pettibone.

PTA Council Names Officers

The Farmington Area Council of Parent-Teacher Association installed its officers at a meeting recently at the Farmington Junior High School.

The New Officers are as follows: President, Mrs. Rose Bogenoff; Vice-President, Mrs. John Slagter; Teacher Vice-President, Mrs. Suzanne Walsh; Recording Secretary, Mrs. D. Larer; Correspondence Secretary, Mrs. H. L. Patrick; Treasurer, Arthur Jensen; Father Vice-President, Don Kuick; Legislation - Historian, Mrs. E. Humeky; Mother Vice-President, Mrs. S. Albaugh, and Publicity, Mrs. M. Wilson.

They will be a Council Meeting the 22nd of June at the Farmington Junior High School. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Charles Coor, our State Representative for the Michigan Congress of the P. T. A. We extend an invitation to all Local P.T.A. presidents. This will be a very important meeting and we urge all attend.
