LEW HEATHER - GR. 4-9302

Well, we might as well face it, school is out and the day starts with "what can I do today, mom." Looking back I don't recall my parents having to entertain me.

The Venticenne's entertained out of town company from Pittsburg and then later in the week the family took off for Kalamazoo to visit their mother.

I have the latest word on Patsy's new baby doll. They named her, Penny Lynn and I hear that she's just a beautiful baby. Haven't been over to view Penny yet as the latest household finally got the measles.

Friends and neighbors joined in a big graduation party for Angelo Accioli and guest honoree was a big watermelon dressed in cap, glasses, jar tops for ears and a carrot for a nose. Any resemblance between the child and Angelo is purely coincidental.

THE DRAKES enjoyed a short trip to Traverse City and Leeland. It's nice to get reports live here now and are taking in some of the beautiful spots in Michigan.

Stopped by the Zivendarmers and was the six people puppets honoree was a big watermelon dressed in cap, glasses, jar tops for ears and a carrot for a nose. Any resemblance between the child and Angelo is purely coincidental.

John and Kathy Burnie had a pleasant visit with friends from Arlington, Virginia. They did a lot of back yard cooking and eating and as Kathy says, "with that many children, you got to be out."

Patsy's are enjoying their cottage on Union Lake with easy running back and forth. Potted geraniums on the tables was the setting for the back yard cook-out Saturday night at the Vernon children and Bella Viste. Eight families joined together to welcome their new neighbors, Jane and Leonard Gion, and their three children Don, 13; Lynette,

THE SCHIERERS, Goldmans, Haucks, Groves, McDaniels, Ranches, and Trayers and children, are planning to vacation at various places above made it a lively and busy cook-out. After the children were tucked away for the night, the parents used the party in Schier's basement with singing and dancing to the tune of Mike and his Uke.

Carolee and Don McDaniel are enjoying the stay of Carolee's aunt, Mrs. Clara McFarland of Neodesha, Kansas.

Mackinac Island was the scene of the M.A.D.A. convention over the weekend attended by the Norens who reportedly had a fine time. They especially enjoyed the roaring twenties party held at the Grand Hotel where some of the costumes were as old as the twenties.

I think it would be a grand idea if the little circle of 30 girls on N. Mackinac would give themselves a name (can't just write the no name club). Anyway this group of girls meet at each others houses once a month and at the end of each season treat themselves to a show and dinner which this year they enjoyed at Stouffiers and later to Northway Playhouse.
