Braves On Warpath, Add 3 More Victims

Barthello's Braves, after a peaceful 4th of July, got back on the warpath and racked up three more victories in last week's competition.

THE GAME broke wide open in the 4th. With the Braves leading 4 to 3, Chip Terry banged out a grand slam homer, his second of the year, to make the score 8-3 and put the game on ice.

In St. Farmington Babe Ruth Indians Win 7th Over Red Sox Then Whip Giants to Fatten Lead

Saturday, July 9, the League leading Indians eked out their 7th win of the season over the Red Sox, 4-2, in a game that was run by the Indians.

Lossing pitcher was Bill Freeman of the Red Sox. The Red Sox collected 7 runs and 9 hits off Indian starter pitcher Joe McClurg.

IN THE FIRST game on Diamond 2 the Giants came from 4 runs behind to defeat the Pirates 7 to 5.

IN THE THIRD ball game of the day the Dodgers were beaten 20 to 0 earlier this week, came back to save face and defeated the Senators 23 to 0.

The team collected 18 hits with 12 of them by 3 batters with Ray Wicks getting 4 hits in 4 times at bat and walking twice.

Riggio struck out 13 batters in six innings. The Indians collected 6 hits off losing pitcher Lou Lomax with 3 batters, Larry Miller, 2 for 2, Joe Jentzer, 2 for 3, and Joe McClurg for 4.

The Pirates won their third in a row by defeating the Senators 7 to 5. Russ Cleveland bested the mound.

Both pitchers allowed only 6 hits, but key blow by Paul Wood in the second inning and Harry Waksley in the third.

Two insurance runs were added in the 5th inning when Wood and Waksley both scored runs.

THE RED SOX defeated the Giants 3 to 2 when Red Sox pitcher Rick Goyt locked up with Great pitcher Steve Schlack.

The Red Sox got their third run in the top of the third inning on singles by Bill Freeman, Dick Siler and Dave Schiffman's sacrifice fly ball.
