Susan Read-Scott Beebe Exchange Vows Saturday

In a candlelight ceremony Aug. 6 at North Congregational Church, Detroit, Mich., Miss Susan Read-Scott Beebe, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Read, 19720 Marlowe Ave., became the bride of Gary Scott Beebe.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray C. Beebe, Jr., Rolling Hills, Calif. Miss Read is a resident of Hermosa Beach, Calif., and the bridegroom of Palos Verdes Estates, Calif.

Her father, minister of the church, officiated over the double ring nuptial ritual, for which the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of silk tulle accented by a portrait neckline, edged with lace and seed pearls, long pointed sleeves and cathedral train.

A MATCHING JULIET cap of blue and seed pearls held her hair in a high, full-length, three-tiered, illusion veil, and completing her ensemble was a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, roses and pink gladioli encircling gardenias and offset by ivy.

She was given away by her brother, James Lee Read II, of Shore Acres, N.J.

Miss Gwen Alaydu of Short Hills, N.J., stood as maid of honor and serving as matron of honor was the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. James Lee Read.

Honor attendant was Mrs. Robert Bartlett of Ann Arbor, Michigan, the bride's cousin.

All were attired identically in silk shantung, ballerina-length dresses of robin's egg blue, featuring portrait necklines, cap sleeves, full skirts and light blue velvet sashes. Matching caps with nose veils and matching shoes completed their attire.

Matching caps with nose veils and matching shoes completed their attire. They carried cascade bouquets of white happiness roses, white gladioli, chrysanthemums and blue lily of the Nile tied with blue satin ribbons.

The bride's mother wore a rose-beige lace over tulle dress with matching hat and accessories and Mrs. Robert Bartlett of Ann Arbor, Michigan, the bride's cousin.

ROBERT STRACHAN of Belmont Shores, Calif., stood as best man for the bridegroom.

Attention, Bowlers!

Local Family Plans Stay at Camp Cavell

Camp Cavell, the YWOA's camp for girls on Lake Huron, near Extington, Mich., is just about to set a record for the youngest camper ever to be accommodated there—and it will be a boy, at that.

He is Steven Wolfson, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolfson, 17016 Stahelin, Detroit.

Steven, with his parents, and brother Mark, 7, will attend Cavell August 27 through Sept. 5.

They will join other families (17 families with a total of 42 children have made reservations to date) to initiate Camp Cavell's first family camping session.

Each family will live together in a cabin of their own, and have their meals with other campers in the dining lodge.

Swimming, tennis, horseback riding, pony rides, crafts and story-telling are among the activities planned for various age groups, with golf, fishing and tennis especially for the adults.

THE CAMP STAFF of 16 will include a registered nurse, with a nearby doctor on call in case of emergency.

Families will attend camp for a weekend (August 27-28, or Sept. 2-3 including Labor Day), or for the total period, August 27-Sept. 5.

Among those who have made reservations are Mr. and Mrs. Leo V. Bell, 26303 Bickling Court, Farmington, with children Kim, Kevin and Kirschen.

A bottomless stomach is any small boy on an auto trip. Grow-ups too, are often guilty of sampling too many foods.

While spending long hours traveling, eat well but wisely says the Institute for Safe Living, which recommends light, low-calorie foods such as fruits, salads and lean meats.

Compared with 27 percent in 1970.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Munro, of Ann Arbor, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith Helen, to David Andrew Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Turner of Albion Street.

The bride-elect is a senior at Michigan State University. Turner graduated from Farmington High in 1951. He served four years in the U.S. Navy and attended Findlay College in Findlay, Ohio, for one year before entering MSU where he is also a senior.

The couple will be married September 10.

The growth of the professions has brought with it a great increase in the number of women as well as of men professional workers. In early 1959, 37 percent of all professional and related workers were women, compared with 27 percent in 1950.

Newcomers to Have Luncheon

Farmington Newcomers Club held their board meeting Wednesday, August 3rd. They met at the home of Mrs. Anne Kachin for lunch prior to the meeting.

Members made plans for the fall luncheon to be held at Kingsley Inn, in Bloomfield Hills, September 28th, at 12 noon. A fashion show will follow.

Mrs. Dell Shamie was appointed chairman of the affair and promises to be a very delightful day and we hope to see all the members and their guests at it.

Further notices will be published in the Enterprise.

Charm Chats

By: Betty Hansen

HATS AND HAIR

Women don't always "keep it under their hats" when it comes to hair styles. In fact, there seems to be a friendly agreement between these feminine "decorations" to play each other up. When the hair styles soar upward the hat follows the lead as with pompadour styles and Merry widow hats.

When the "dos" go down and hug the head, so do the hats. One is reminded of the fashions of the Roaring Twenties, go hand in hand along the winding paths of fashions.

Regardless of the current fashions, your hair must have a good permanent for foundation. Don't delay a lovely new wave.

BARB HOUGHINS SHIRLEY STORM GR. 6-0440

Irene and George Totzky and their four children of Farmington Rd. are back from their vacation which they spent up at Lake Michigan in Frankfort.

Pat and Don Graham of Glen Orchard Dr. entertained five couples last week in their play with a steak roast. They played badminton until the weather turned too cool, so they went indoors for a card game.

Elaine and Bill Bell of Ivywood Dr. had Elaine's aunt, Mrs. Norman Brown, as a week-end guest. Mrs. Brown's home is in Phoenix, Arizona.

BLANCHE AND MIKE McDONNELL of Ivywood Dr. had thirteen couples over last Saturday night. They cooked steaks outdoors, and incidentally decorated their yard replete with lantern lights. The rest of the evening they played games.

The Glen Orchard Subdivision social committee has made plans for the Bob-Loo Moonlight Friday, August 12. The boat will leave at 9 p.m. No reservations are needed and anyone who wants to go may either meet at the Kaston residence on Glen Orchard Dr. at 7:45 or meet down at the waterfront ticket office.

Debbie Storm of Glen Orchard Dr. spent last week with her cousin, Victor Spicer, in Detroit.

Marion and Ed Wilbert of Ivywood Dr. and their children, Nancy, Butch and Suzie, are back from their vacation at Lake City and Chicago.

Bill and Terry Clancy and their children, Colleen, Billy and Kathy, have returned from a week's vacation at Houghton Lake. They had visitors when they returned: Bill's sister, Sister Mary Sheila and her companion, Sister Margaret James, who are on their annual leave. Their daughter, Colleen, is vacationing with an aunt at Lake Erie.

OUR LADY OF SORROWS Church is having a Rummage Sale this September and Irene Totzky of 24678 Farmington Road has volunteered to have the collection depot in this area. If you have any articles in clothing, furniture, old hats, etc. that are clean and reusable, please contact her.

Mary Jo Dulzo of Raphael celebrated her fifth birthday, Thursday, with some of her friends. These present were Claudia Seals, Dickie McAdams, Billy Clancy, Barrie Novak, Danny Totzky, Suzie Edwards, and Diane McDevitt. Everyone had a good time and especially enjoyed the Book-land cake.

If you see any Indians and covered wagons in the subdivision, don't head for the hills. It's Ricky and Larry Nash riding around in the covered wagon Dwight made for them.

Please call if you have any news—either Shy Shy Shy at GR. 6-3112 or Barb Houghins at GR. 6-0440.
