One of the happiest boys on Lamar August 16 eas 7½ year old Billy Robertson when he found out he had a little brother! Now Billy and his brother, John Duncan (who weighed 8 lbs. 3 ozs. when born) are quite a match for their folks, Bill and Marilyn, and their sisters, Christine, 8½ and twins, Nancy and Patricia, 15 months. Visiting the Robertsons and getting acquainted with their youngest grandson are Marilyn's mother, Mrs. Vernon Cosby, from Bradenton, Florida, and Bill's folks, Mr. and Mrs. W. Robertson, Sr., from Houghton.

Dinner at the Darian home on Lamar Tuesday August 23 was a gala affair. Al and Julia entertained Julia's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beregi, from Livingston, Louisiana, and her cousin, Mrs. Mary Kozen from Baton Rouge, La. The Darians hadn't seen the Beregis for six years and it had been ten years since they had seen Mrs. Kozen. Also present for dinner were Julia's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Megyesi, and their son, Julian, of Dearborn, Julia's second cousins, Johnny and Steve Hoss, from Mansfield, Ohio, and her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Geza Megyesi.

CAROLE THOMPSON of Beacon, an enthusiastic Tupperware dealer, was thrilled when she won a one week trip to Florida. The trip was awarded to Carole as a dealer and enabled her to attend the Tupperware Jubilee at the home office in Orlando. Although she had only one week to prepare for the trip, Carole was all set to go on Friday, August 12, at 7:00 p.m. The bus left Detroit with a large group aboard from Michigan and arrived at their destination on Sunday August 14 about 7:00 a.m. The Jubilee lasted four days and proved to be exciting and rewarding. With a theme of "Space Capades" the group couldn't help but go into orbit!

The grounds of the home office were appropriately decorated with rocket ships, planets and spacemen. A particularly impressive tour was through the museum on the grounds which featured the revolution of dishes from those used by the cavemen right up to ones used in today's modern homes. In addition to the classes in selling Tupperware products, there were many social activities planned for the 1200 dealers and managers who represented the Eastern and Midwestern states.

One of the highlights of the Jubilee was "Fun Night." A program was planned and there were thousands of dollars of prizes given away. The prizes included 1,000 1960 Fords and beautiful mink stoles. Carole is now treasuring the lovely evening bag she won. Five and a half hours of the Jubilee were spent painting; each of the 1200 dealers was given some paint and a brush and assigned a portion of canvas to paint. The canvas, which was 48 feet wide and six stories high and was spread out over the parking lot, turned out to be a picture of President Eisenhower.

THE LAST DAY of the Jubilee the dealers assembled at a candlelight graduations where they each received a diploma. After a week in Florida Carole, who returned home Saturday, August 20, was anxious to line up parties and sell some of her wares!

The Goltra family of Beacon has just returned from their vacation and what a vacation! They hadn't been to Nashville, Tennessee (Cappy's hometown) in five years and while there two weeks ago Jud, Cappy, Kitty Lou, Juddy, Cindy and Beth came down with a virus. Most of the week was spent getting back to normal at the home of Cappy's sister. When they were feeling up to par the Goltras visited friends and relatives. The younger ones were excited to see all the hills, trees and especially the tree house!

They spent their time either up in the tree or down at the creek catching crawfish and frogs. Jud, Cappy and family returned home on the 23rd and on the 25th Kitty Lou celebrated her 10th birthday. During the day on Thursday Debbie Brenz, Sandy Ross, Pam Edmunds, Diane McLean and Michael Randall met at Kitty Lou's for cake and ice cream. In the evening Jud chaperoned Kitty Lou, her friends, Pam and Diane, Juddy and Cindy when they went to see the movie "South Pacific."

TWO WEEKS at a lake in Grayling turned out to be very relaxing and a change in routine for Earl and Millie Whaley and their three youngsters of Lamar. Swimming and fishing occupied most everyone's time including Steve, 5, Sue, 3, and Pam, 2. Steve was especially thrilled when he caught his first fish! The Whaleys were amazed when they ran into so many friends from Farmington. They met Dave Fitzpatrick and his boys, Bob and Terry Abraham and Frank and Carol Mytnik - which only goes to prove what a small world this is!

5½ year old Denise Darian of Lamar has had a busy social calendar lately. Last Thursday she was hostess of a tea party and entertained friends Mary Fitzgerald of Broadview, Jody Olson of Marblehead, Debra and Lori Kieling of Lamar. Cake and ice cream served by Mom Darian helped make the party a success!

When Paul McLaughlin of Loomis Court celebrated his 11th birthday Saturday, August 27, he certainly did it up in fine style! He and his six brothers and his folks were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Johnson and their three boys on Square Lake. Joining the festivities were Dr. and Mrs. V. Greeson and their two daughters from Bloomfield Hills.

Most of the day was spent by the water either boating or water skiing. Toward the end of the day the group gathered for a feast of chicken with all the trimmings. Cake and ice cream were served as dessert and Paul was honored with not one but three birthday cakes!

Another school term is just around the corner and thoughts now turn to fall clothes, books, and filling the few days left with summer fun. At the same time the safety of our children going to and from school should be of utmost importance to all of us. With this in mind, mothers of kindergarten children are urged to support the school crossing safety program by contributing a small portion of their time to the 10 Mile Mothers-Patrol.

It is understood that school safety boys will patrol the school crossing in the mornings and the afternoons. Only the mid-day school traffic is assigned to the Mothers Patrol this year. Participation by more mothers in this patrol will result in few patrols for each mother throughout the year. Help is needed.

Will you please do your part in protecting these children. Mothers who wish to help are urged to phone now for information, or to volunteer call Julia Darian at GR 4-5682.

The Gynac home on Leelane has been buzzing with activity three years ago, it had been six years since tht Morelands visited Michigan so the get-together was a special treat for everyone. The whole group enjoyed visiting Belle-Isle, the Zoo, Camp Dearborn and Northland.

The last two weeks Jerry and Fern entertained Fern's brother and family, Ed and Shirley Moreland and their son, Mark from St. Louis. Although the Gynac family visited St. Louis Shop in Friendly Farmington!
