Local Men to Attend Kiwanis State Conclave

The Kiwanis Club of Farmington will be represented at the 1960 convention of the Michigan District of Kiwanis International at Grand Rapids September 18 to 20, according to an announcement by club president Charles Merryman. Merryman will attend the function himself as a delegate along with Walter Gale, Edward C. Keefe, a trustee of Kiwanis International, and executive director of the Oklahoma Independent College Foundation will be the featured speaker at the three day meeting at the Panlind Hotel. Delegates from 188 clubs representing more than 9500 businessmen and professional leaders will participate in the various sessions. Committee conferences, a discussion of plans for the coming year, development of community service ideas and the election of officers will highlight the convention program, Merryman said. Presiding officer at the convention will be Charles C. Saur of Grand Rapids, Governor of the Michigan District of Kiwanis International.

Attends MSU Summer Clinic

Donald R. Finkbinder, 31773 Folkstone Drive, Farmington, from the Detroit Board of Education, attended the Counseling and Guidance Institute held at Michigan State University this summer. The institute, one of 84 serving approximately 3,000 high school counselors, was conducted under a National Defense Education act grant from the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The M.S.U. institute, the largest to be held on any one campus, offered courses for advanced, experienced counselors as well as work for counselors with little formal training. "Why educators believe the counseling and guidance institutes are the key to the whole National Defense Education act," says Dr. Walter F. Johnson, M.S.U. professor of education and institute director. "Unless our high school counselors are able to identify different kinds of talent needed for national defense, the act will not serve its full purpose."

Home In Old Homestead

Jacqueline Davis GR. 4-1230

Once again it is my pleasure to introduce a new family to Old Homestead. John and Therese Marsden moved from Redford Township to the new home at 36002 Lyman Rd. on the Saturday before Labor Day. This gave them a few days before school started for two of their children. Thomas will be eight next month. Susanne is five. John is three, and Colleen is nine months old.

Our very next resident, however, is little Miss Susanne Nankervis, who was born last Friday, September 9, at William Beaumont Hospital. Russ and Jo's daughter weighed nine pounds and two ounces at birth. Sue's big brother Craig, age two and one half, spent last weekend with Grandpa and Grandma Stoner in Dearborn and the remainder of John's hospital stay with Grandma and Bradley Nankervis in Detroit. THERE HAD BEEN a little friendly competition between the Nankervises and Meservys homes to see which of our two most mothers would be the first to increase the population of the subdivision. The Meservys' Manchester Terrier, Vic, was the winner by one day. She presented her owners with twins on Thursday.

The Shobe family has been fairly busy recently. Two weeks ago Susie and Bradley were in the Enterprise seated on a counter in the school book store. The related article was about book store hours and business. Then last Saturday Ruth was shopping at the Bel-Aire Drug store with her three children. Susie managed to get one of the keys that opened the Treasure Chest in the store and won a Brownie Star-Flash Camera.

Brain Dale managed a lot of celebrating in honor of his eleventh birthday a week ago Tuesday. On Labor Day Allen took Brian and Larry to see the double header at Briggs Stadium, as requested by Brian. On Tuesday the family had the traditional birthday cake, and on Thursday Brian was a member of the North Farmington Championship Little League team that was treated to dinner at Guffin's by their sponsor the Farmington Police Department. Last Saturday found Marilyn Hukka celebrating her seventh birthday with Susie and Kathy Shobe, Janie Wiedman, Brenda Simmons, Chris Ann Barth, Sandra Whitman, Rita Gibbs, Laurie Zeglen, and Patty Tabb as her party guests. There were games, prizes, gifts, and of course cake, ice cream and jello.

THE APPLESEEDS held their first square dance of the current season on Saturday night at the Morgan's. Nine couples took part in the evening's fun. Hostesses were Betty Garveda and Ruth Shobe. Applessees are reminded to reserve Saturday, October 8, for the next dance. New couples are invited to join the group. The game that started in fun on Sunday ended with a trip to St. Mary's Hospital for Marlene Meservy. The kids, there were half a dozen or so, started tossing green apples at one another, then stones and pieces of wood got into the act. Just what was thrown or by whom is uncertain, but Marlene had a cut lip sewn up in the hospital emergency section Sunday evening. Our children apparently need to be taught where harmless fun ends and where danger begins, it may have just as easily been an eye as a lip. The reminder this week goes to the Pinocchio club. The meeting is tonight, Thursday, September 15, at Annie Mullen's, Eight O'clock is the time.

Our customers' convenience is our first concern. Dependable service!

Players Select Fall Production

The Farmington Players have chosen the "Grass Harp" for their major fall production. This two act play, written by Truman Capote, is tentatively scheduled for presentation on November 4 and 5 and again the following weekend, November 11 and 12 at the newly re-named Players' Barn on 12 Mile and Powers Roads.

The play, filled with moments of great sweetness, courage, humor, bitterness and adolescent love, promises to bring to the Farmington area some truly fine theater. Casting for the 16 major roles is now underway.

Senior Citizens Plan Picnic

Senior citizens from all parts of Oakland County will gather at Oakland Park in Pontiac on Tuesday September 20 from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., the Oakland County Senior Citizens Council announced today. "This is going to be more than a picnic," disclosed Peter Cristiano, president of the Oakland County Senior Citizens Council. "We will also talk over some common problems and have a real fun" added Mr. Cristiano. Recreation activities will include dancing, games and bingo. After lunch the program will start with a short talk on the purposes and aims of the Oakland County Senior Citizens Council. All senior citizens whether they belong to a club or not are invited to attend. Senior citizens who attend the picnic should bring their lunch. Coffee will be provided, but those who wish other beverages will need to bring them. This is the first county-wide project undertaken by the council and "I believe this will become an annual affair," asserted Cristiano.
