These three youngsters had a fine time themselves and were equally entertaining in the eyes of the Kendallwood Center audience as they displayed the various products they carried by the Trend Gift Shop.

The little girl in the box at the left represents the gift wrapping department of the store while the youngster in the center displays Christmas cards. The girl on the right wears a box that depicts the various selection of party favors available at Trend Gift Shop.

Shown modeling the white for three by Dittich Ford at the Kendallwood Center Fashion Show last Friday evening was model Louise Fogarty. The lovely fur piece is now the property of Miss Linda Mortenson of 3193, Braebury.

Show Climaxes Kendallwood Center Opening

Grand opening festivities at the Kendallwood Center were concluded last Friday evening with a very colorful and entertaining fashion show complete with musical selections by the Kendallwoods, a talented local singing group.

Twin Boys Born to Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman

Joy reigns supreme at the home of the John N. Hoffmans of 28009 Alyce Key. Mrs. Hoffman has presented her family with twin boys, born September 12 at St. Mary's Hospital, Livonia.

It seems a lucky team is in the making as the Hoffmans already have four boys at home as well as a young daughter. Mrs. Hoffman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rytel of Detroit and the twins are the first in the family in 58 years.

Board Approves 'SDM' License

Members of the Township Board at the regular meeting Tuesday evening approved the request for one SDM license and denied a request for another.

Following a presentation by the attorney for the Party Store located at 31529 13 Mile Road in which he cited the fine record of the owners with respect to previous experience as license holders in another area, the Board passed approval on the granting of the license.

A second request for a license at 29311 Orchard Lake Road, presently a vacant lot, was left open in discussion on the request it was indicated that Trustees would await completion of the business establishment before making a decision.

Adjournment Motion by Peterson supported by Brotherton that meeting be adjourned. Motion carried, all ayes.

Meeting adjourned at 10:30 p.m.
