With September and back to school, home life returns to its normal pattern. The days are pretty much set, beginning the big adventure of kindergarten this fall are Edna and Larry Temple of Broadview; Craig Terry, Robin Woodward and George Blouin of Doherty Dr.; Tommie Johnson, Janice Galli, Ann Polgar and Joan Edwards all on Shadyridge.

Bob and Faye Tipton, together with children Anita and Brent, spent Labor Day weekend with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Keibert at their cottage on Clam River, near Cadillac. When that far north they went up to see the big bridge, while Sunday was spent picnicking, swimming and fishing at Misaukee Lake. Surprised to find blackberries still in abundance in September, they gathered some to bring home to be made into jam.

BEFORE THEIR trip up north, the Tiptons had as their guests two of Bob's sisters from Tennessee. Remaining for several days were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Williams and daughter, Diane Butler from Old Hickory, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Newbern from Madison.

Other recent visitors in our subdivision were Darlene and Donna Hamill, young daughters of the Bill Hamills, former residents on Powers Road. Young hostesses to the two girls was Joan Wadde.

We are very happy to welcome to our subdivision, Mr. and Mrs. Hargraves, and daughter Barbara and son Timothy. The Hargraves have moved into the Rickert's home on Shadyridge.

Marilyn Johnson of Shadyridge entertained at a going away party, carrying out a Hawaiian theme, to honor Miss Betty of South Lyons. Missy was a classmate of Marilyn's at Our Lady of Sorrows, and is entering a Dominican Convent in Fall River, Massachusetts.

ANOTHER PARTY of similar nature was held recently at the home of Margaret, Yenny and Broadview. Twenty boys and girls, all former classmates, joined in to give Mary Ann a happy send-off, before entering Dominican Convent in Adrian.

Florence and Dave Krings spent the past weekend at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver, Gay at Cordell Lake, near Pinckney.
