10 Mile PTA Plans Program

The Ten Mile P.T.A. will have an open house Tuesday, September 27, at 8 p.m.

again September 28, at 8 p.m. This year's open house will differ from those of the past in that parents with children in Grades 1, 2, and 3 will meet September 27th and parents with children in Grades 4, 5, and 6 will meet Thursday, September 28.

The teachers will outline the year's program and the parents will have an opportunity to ask questions of their child's teacher. Two explanation sessions will be held each evening to accommodate parents with children in more than one room.

Kindergarten teachers will not participate, as they will soon be scheduling group meetings for parents to discuss the kindergarten program in detail.

Preceding the discussion groups, P.T.A. President, Robert Stone will introduce the P.T.A. officers and school staff. If you haven't made your reservations, please do so. Tickets may be obtained from any Board members.

Just a reminder to the ladies who plan to attend the Newcomers Luncheon scheduled for September 28, at Kingswood Inn, 1455 N. Woodward Ave. If you haven't made your reservations, please do so. Tickets may be obtained from any Board members.

Sandra Lell Exchanges Vows With L. L. Lemon

The Community Congregational Church of Lathrup Village was the scene of the September 3 wedding of Sandra Jean Lell and Larry Lester Lemon.

Dr. Alan Jenkins of the First Congregational Church of Royal Oak presided at the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of silk organza with a beige bodice and a chapel length train. On her head she wore a Swedish crown with a full, plain finger-tip length veil.

Mrs. Karen Fitzpatrick, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. She was dressed in gold silk organza and carried gold mums. Mrs. Judy Wilkester and Miss Sandra Hart, the bridesmaids, were also dressed in silk organza and carried gold mums. Mrs. Wilkester chose green and Miss Hart wore a rust colored dress.

LOREN LEMON, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Paul King and P. Dennis Garry and Daniel Holloway and Thomas Fitzpatrick served as ushers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester J. Lell of 7466 Cornwall Court and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lester H. Lemon of Hull Road.

Mrs. Lell chose a dress of shades of champagne with brown lace and matching accessories accented by an orchid corsage. Mrs. Lemon wore a royal blue taffeta sheath with matching accessories and selected a deep red rose corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Glen Oaks Country Club.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Farmington High School. The new Mrs. Lemon finished her studies in 1958 and her husband is a 1955 graduate.

B. A. Bleakley Wed Recently

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bleakley of Farmington announce the marriage of their daughter Beverly Ann to Dr. Helmut Haschka, son of Dr. and Mrs. Maximilian Haschka of Graz, Austria.

The wedding ceremony was held in the home of the bride's parents with Dr. Glen Harris of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham officiating. The bride's sister-in-law, Carol Bleakley, was Matron of Honor and the bride's brother, Fred Bleakley was the best man.

The former Miss Bleakley is attending graduate school at the University of Michigan. Dr. Haschka is an assistant professor at the College of Business Administration and World Trade, Vienna.

He is presently doing research in linguistics at the University of Michigan.

Dr. and Mrs. Haschka are residing at 2343-B Hubbard, North Campus, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Will Speak to C'ville PTA's

Plans have been completed to have all Clarenceville Schools' September PTA meetings held on Wednesday, September 28 at the Clarenceville High School at 7 p.m. in order to give all parents an opportunity to hear Dr. Carl Anderson of Eastern Michigan University speak on Financing of public education at 8 p.m.

Following regular meetings of each school group at 7 p.m., everyone will then assemble in the cafeteria at 8 to hear Dr. Anderson who holds the office of Treasurer of our State PTA and also holds the office of State Chairman of Studying Michigan Schools Committee.

This meeting is open to all parents of the Clarenceville School District and anyone else who may be interested in attending. Refreshments will be served.

VN Committee Holds Meeting

The Visiting Nurse Committee of Farmington met Friday, September 16, at the home of Mrs. Clarence Stoll to hear reports from Mrs. Gertrude Redmond, VNA supervisor of southern Oakland county, and to plan the annual Fall Tea for former members of the committee and guests.

Mrs. Redmond stated that over 450 visits have been made in the Farmington area through August of this year. Service to the aged, new mothers and the ill or convalescent included professional nursing care, physical, occupational or diet therapy and assistance in infant care. Arrangements for a visit from a VNA nurse may be made by calling the Royal Oak office, LI 2-1200.

Mrs. Ray Eichler, president of the local committee, appointed Mrs. Kenneth Seeley Chairman of arrangements for the Fall Tea to be held Friday, October 7, in the home of Mrs. Howard Warner. Mrs. Seeley will be assisted by Mrs. Robert Clarke, Mrs. Tracy Conroy and Mrs. Eichler.

CUSTOM STYLING

A personally styled hairdo is like a custom-made gown. Both are strategically fashioned for your individual needs, so you're assured of pleasing results with a distinctive touch. Your hair style should be truly becoming. It may take a change of one of the basic elements to design your hair properly. This requires the services of an expert in the field of beauty care.

With an eye to fall, plan on a new coiff now. This is the first step in the right direction toward complementing the new autumn fashions. Make an appointment with us.
