At Home in Old Homestead

JACQUELINE DAVIS
GR. 4-1230

The moving companies have brought two new families into Old Homestead. This column is a little behind in their official welcomes.

Mrs. Marian Lippman moved into her new home last month. She was hardly settled when her pet Siamese cat, Scampie, got out of the house and apparently lost its way in strange surroundings. Its accidental death was a great loss to Mrs. Lippman. Those of us who have owned and loved a pet sympathize with her at this time. We hope that from now on all of her experiences in Old Homestead are happy ones.

MRS. LIPPMAN LIVES in the house formerly occupied by the Wolf family.

There is a new family at 3207 Harderburg also. The Angles have been in last month, too, and are still unpacking prized books as well as other things.

Chaplain Angelo, who is known as Jack, is a very busy man. He is the Director of the Lutheran chaplains for prisons and hospitals in Michigan. He is also doing graduate teaching at the University of Michigan as an Associate Professor. His wife, Annabel, manages the time to work as a registered nurse one or two days a week at Henry Ford Hospital.

The three Angles children are Debbie, 13, Kenny, 9, and Kathy, 4. The family moved here from northwest Detroit. It seems that Farmington is about half way between Ann Arbor and Chicago. Kathy is in downtown Detroit.

Birthday celebrations recently were those of Steve Lorenz who became 1, Dick Mather who is now 11, John Rowe who is 10, and Terry Simmons who became 12. Terry celebrated his birthday a day early when she invited some girl friends for a pajama party.

As you already know the kids got out of school early last Thursday.

They also came home early this Wednesday and will again next Tuesday.

Now that you have all found your books to the AAUW book sale you will need to replace your reading material. You can do so inexpensively, too, at the sale today at the Vivier Sales Room on Grand River.

Why don't they throw wheat at the bride and groom as they leave the church and help to reduce the national surplus?

The department will render services to all hospital patients as well as to patients in the five communities (Livonia, Plymouth, Northville, Farmington, and Redford Township) on an outpatient basis, on the presentation of a doctor's prescription for treatment.

Besides physical therapy treatments such as: massage, hydrotherapy, therapeutic exercises, radiation therapy and electro-therapy, muscle strength tests and surveys are also available.

Mrs. Lawrence A. Fiferlik, 25525 Kilar Avenue, Southfield, Michigan passed away at his residence on Friday morning, September 28.

Fiferlik was born January 12, 1922 in Lansing, Michigan the son of Anthony J. and Alta Goss Fiferlik. He attended school in Detroit and on October 20, 1931 was united in marriage to Lauretta Argens.

He was a former employee of the Detroit and had lived in Southfield for the past twenty-two years.

MR. FIFERLIK was a member of the Farmington Universalist Church and was Church President for two terms. He was active in Southfield community affairs for many years working on the Southfield Community Council and Goodwill.

He retired at the Thymer Funeral Home until Saturday afternoon when cremation took place at White Chapel Crematory. Services were private.

Surviving besides Mrs. Fiferlik are a sister, Miss Elizabeth Gladys Fiferlik and a brother, Harold W. both of Detroit.

Moose Women Plan
Two October Events

The co-workers of the Women of the Moose are having an evening of games and entertainment at the Lodge on Wednesday, October 10, at 8 p.m.

On Wednesday, October 24, at 8 p.m. there will be a George's Toy Party at the Lodge with co-worker Edna Warkel as demonstrator. There will be refreshments and prizes on both occasions.

Household hint: To keep cake from getting stale, put it in a paper box in the children's room.

MAYOR ROBERT LINDBERGH signed the proclamation last week setting aside October 7-13 as Business and Professional Women's Week in Farmington as a tribute to the women who work. The president of the Farmington Business and Professional Women's Club, Mrs. Ada Hower, looks on as Mayor Lindbergh signs the proclamation above.

Mayor Proclaims Oct. 7-13 Business Women's Week

Mayor Robert Lindbergh has proclaimed "National Business Women's Week" in Farmington October 7 thru 13.

National Business Women's Week is designed to pay tribute to all business and professional women. It is sponsored annually by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club, Inc. of which there is a membership of 375,000.

CITIZENS OF OUR community, our state and the entire nation must be aware of the leadership women are providing this country.

The membership of B.P.W. is comprised of women employed for compensation full time, self-employed, in business with a partner for mutual gain in the professions, or cooperative in the professions.

To elevate the standards of women in business and the professions, to promote the interests of business and professional women.

To bring about a spirit of cooperation among business and professional women of the United States.

Orch. Meth. Ch.
Slates Speaker

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will have at their speaker Mrs. Donald P. Schram October 4, 8 p.m. General meeting. Mrs. Schram is a past president of the Detroit District and has served on the advisory board of St. Church Center on the Protestant Foundation for International students at the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Schram has been very active in P.T.A. work, and has served in leadership capacity on the program planning institute she is now assisting in.

The program planning institute is a program of the Board of Federation of Methodist Women, and Chairman of the Board of United Church Women of Detroit.

All ladies of the church are invited to attend.

Sermon Sunday
On 'Unreality'

Overcoming fear will be a theme dealt with at Christian Service Sunday in a Lesson-Sermon entitled "Unreality."

Opening the Scriptural selections is this verse from Isaiah: "Fear thou not, for I am with thee; be not dismayed, for I am thy God; I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness."

A correlative citation to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states: "Whatever is governed by God, is never for an instant deprived of the light and might of intelligence and life."

The Golden Text is from I Timothy: "God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

Plan Rummage Sale

The Sisterhood of the Livonia Jewish Congregation will hold a Rummage Sale on Friday, October 5, starting at 9:00 a.m. at the Sheldon Center, Plymouth Road at Farmington Road.

1st Methodist WSCS Slates Fall Programs

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church of Farmington will meet at 8:00 p.m. Tuesday Evening, October 2, 1962 at the church.

It is Guild Month as we meet together for the only time during the year. Devotions and refreshments will be by the Wesleyan Service Guild.

Miss Maude Payne, former conference Secretary of the Guild, will be the guest speaker.

THE CIRCLES WILL meet October 10, 12 noon as follows: Queen Esther at the home of Mrs. William Hogan, 21890 13th.
