Only a few weeks and the trees will take on their spring coats, the grass will be green, the birds will sing and all nature will smile. Farmington, the prettiest town in the country will look lovely inviting, but will any effort be made to induce people to come here to share the joys of the town for a home. Swarms of people are looking for and seeking just such a place and it seems that it would be good policy for the people to make an organized effort to secure a few hundred more inhabitants while the picking is good. The town has many advantages that it would pay to exploit and for which the better class of people are seeking.

HAD OBJECT IN SELF-DENIAL

Widows' Miscellanea Due Only to Wish to Provide Suitable Memorial to Long Dead Husband.

A clock costing $4,100—a value out of all proportion with its surroundings—has been placed in the steeple of the village church of Argon, Switzerland.

The timepiece was designed as a memorial for a Bremgartener whom nearly everyone had forgotten, but its striking will be an hourly reminder of the widely devotion of Widow Honegger, who toiled for more than half a century to make possible the testimonial.

The widow is seventy-six years of age. Her husband died when she was twenty-four and a village beauty, leaving her penniless. In all the years since she has worked as a household servant or in the fields, hoarding her earnings. Her labor-lent figure, excessive self-denial and miserly habits made her an object of ridicule among the thoughtless, but locked in her breast was the secret ambition revealed to her astonished neighbors only when the money for its fulfillment was in hand.

The other day Widow Honegger, now about the most popular citizen of Bremgarten, witnessed the clock started on its tick-tock journey. Then she dried her eyes and returned to the fields.—New York Tribune.

It costs only a trifle more for larger animals and requires no mixing, no dosing, no drenching, no starving—no bother at all. I prove all this or no pay.

Simply call at my "Sal-Vet" dealer's store and get enough "Sal-Vet" to last all your stock 60 days. Take it home with you and place it where all your farm animals can run to it freely.
