MRS. DAVID KRINGS GR. 6-4441

On visiting with Mrs. L. Clingman of Shadyridge, Michigan, Mrs. Krings learned that they had a most interesting vacation this summer. She was visiting at the Deer Park from all July to early in August. Early in July they vacationed in Rocky Mountain Park, Colorado, taking with them the three younger members of the family, Anita, Carl and Scott. Joining them there were Larry, Sr.'s parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Clingman from Southgate, Michigan, and his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robinson, of Hopkinton, Iowa. It seems that the Clingman family being spread around the country as they are, have been having this type of vacation for many summers now, finding a place of interest, and as possible planning their vacation at the same time.

They hope that next summer two of Larry's brothers will be able to join them in Douglas and Larry, Jr., did not go with the family this year as they had just started on summer jobs.

SHORTLY AFTER their return from the West, Anita spent two weeks at Girl Scout Camp Narrin, near Orionville. Later on in August, Mrs. Clingman and Mrs. Larry and her sister, Mrs. Oster from Dike, Iowa, visited the family here in Farmington.

No sooner had the guests departed when all was flurry getting four members back to the Chamberlin's, next door neighbors to the west, took a short trip to Pittsburg, early in the summer visiting relatives, who later in the summer re-appeared at a feast at Don's mother's cottage at Tawas.

Daughter Lynne, who was a June graduate from Farmington High, together with Doug Clingman, Jr. also at Central Michigan, Don, D.H. who kept himself busy during their home this summer, painting and lawn cutting, is back in Farmington High, in the tenth grade and Sheila is a fourth grader at Ten Mile Road. Mother also is back at work in the teaching capacity. She is on the staff at N. Farmington High as an English teacher.

The Himmels, who vacationed in Europe last year, took a short trip to extended vacation again for next year, were very much at home this summer. Edna was gone only for four days, and Frank about a week.

At her home on Shadyridge Ave. Mrs. Clingman recently celebrated her birthday. Friends and relatives remembered her.

THE LOUIS JENNINGS family were up and ready for the Hui-Nestor wedding Miss Darla Mae Jennings served as maid of honor.

Mrs. John Vachol, Shadyridge Ave. reports that her grand son, Keith, son of William Varhol in Garden City and who has been very ill with rheumatic fever, now shows some slight improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ahlt, Kentucky St., were visitors in Lansing, their son, Nelson Meade, has now been enrolled at Michigan State.

George Welsh, Mayfield Ave., who has been a patient in Ann Arbor Hospital for several weeks, was discharged recently and is now feeling fine.

Mr. Harold McVicar, Shadyridge Ave., is leaving shortly on a vacation trip, during which she will visit her son, Harold, who is serving with the U.S. Army.

Mrs. Arthur Muir, Shadyridge Ave., spent much time with her mother, Mrs. Sherman, near Elmhurst, in a recent vacation. Mrs. Sherman sustained painful injuries, but is now recovering nicely.

The Frank Shelman family, Farmington Rd., has been mourning the death of his father's father, who was buried recently.

MRS. EDNA VANCE, Mayfield Ave., who has been quite ill, continues to make improvement.

A great deal of remodeling and painting has been going on in this community lately. Consequently, many homes have acquired an attractive new look.

In a recent accident, Maurice Myers, of Shadyridge Ave., suffered an injury to his ear.

To arrange for a Goodwill Pick-up call Mrs. Lara Paul at GR. 4-294. Yellow truck from Goodwill Industries collects household discards in this community every Tuesday.

Protestant Journal Explores Vatican

The Second Vatican Council will call modern Protestants to a new understanding of dogma and being into focus the basic differences between the two great councils - the World Council of Churches and the Ecumenical Council of the Vatican - both of which will stand side by side in the coming years claiming to represent the true ecumenicity of the Church of Christ.

The internationally respected church historian Herman Sasse examines these significant trends in the current issues of Christianity Today, an evangelical thought journal reaching more than 80 percent of the American Protestant clergy.
