Twp. Police Chief Sets Up Toy Depot - Farmington Township Police Chief Irving Yakes this week announced the "Wheelie Street" program would be the depot this year for the area drive of Boy Scout Troop 888 in their program of mending broken toys for underprivileged children at Christmas. Chief Yakes said any residents who wish to donate old or broken toys to the Boy Scouts of Troop 888, which is sponsored by the Township Police, may leave them at the Wheeler Street Station, located east of Middlefield and north of Grand River, anytime during the day or night. The two largest truck states are California and Texas, with 1,100,000 and 528,000 vehicles, respectively. Together, they have 17 per cent of one out of every six trucks in the United States. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS of the Old Homestead Association has made arrangements to have a street light installed at Drake Road and Grand River and another at Drake Road and Twelve Mile Rd. They should be installed soon so that your friends and mine will be able to find Drake Rd. after dark. To make it additionally easy to find us the Board has arranged to have signs bearing the subdivision name erected at these same corners with other signs at the subdivision entrances. The lights and the signs will be welcomed by all residents.

MARY CHECKRETTs has tickets for the St. Mary Hospital and Guild's charity dance to be held Saturday, October 20. All profits will go to purchase equipment for the hospital. Many of the girls here donate time to the hospital in the volunteer program, and many families have been thankful that the hospital was there in time of sickness and emergency. This dance will give us an opportunity to help provide needed things for the hospital while...

Edmund and Florence Zeglen celebrated their fifteenth wedding anniversary Thursday, Sept. 27. Bob and Betty Bohme were joined by friends, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Grimes of Redford, for dinner at Danny's Friday, Sept. 28, in honor of the day on which both couples celebrated their wedding anniversaries. It was 17 years for the Bohmes. JACK AND BETTY Gavzoda spent Saturday, Sept. 29, their seventh anniversary, driving back from a week of fall vacation at their cabin near Hancock, Michigan. The weather was too cool for swimming, naturally, but they and daughter, Julie, enjoyed the fall colors and the quiet of an off season vacation.
