Funeral Rites Observed for Howard L. Smith

Mr. Howard L. Smith of 30342 Twelve Mile Road, Farmington township passed away on Friday morning, October 8, in Crittenton General Hospital, Detroit.

Howard Lee Smith was born May 10, 1888 in Hillsdale, Michigan the son of Abel and Nettie Loper Smith, he attended school in Hillsdale and on July 2, 1916 was united in marriage to Miriam Ward.

MR. SMITH HAD been a resident of Farmington for the past 15 years. He was a member of First Presbyterian Church of Farmington and of Redford Lodge No. 182 F. & A. M.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday at 2 p.m. from the Thayer Funeral Home with Rev. George W. Ramsey of First Presbyterian Church of Farmington officiating. Cremation followed at White Chapel Memorial Cemetery with Redford Lodge No. 182 in charge.

Surviving besides Mrs. Smith are a daughter, Joan L. of Ferndale, and two sons, Richard A. and Larry L. Smith, both of Farmington.

MIDNIGHT MADNESS

produced its unusual scenes as expected last Friday evening in the Downtown Farmington Center as shoppers took advantage of the 12 p.m. to 2 p.m. hours and the many special sales. Bob Shury of the Downtown Farmington Association who performed as master of ceremonies at the event above interviewed little Jill Benson, who left her home at 21337 Birchwood cl in pajamas to accompany her mother shopping.

Just what the Doctor ordered... also mother Helen, father Robert and sister Elaine. Everyone is proud of Norbert Thomas Jankowski, Jr. This young man was born Oct. 5 at Deaconess Hospital, Detroit and weighed in at 6 lbs. 14 oz. Congratulations to the happy foursome.

Shelly and Elaine Greenberg are Larkspur's regulars. The Greenbergs with their four youngsters, twins Susan, and Fern, 6½, Mimi (Miriam) 4, and brother Mark, 3 months, have moved here from Detroit. Welcome. We wish you joy in your new home.

TURN ABOUT IS fair play.

Dick and Joanne Hasselt entertained Bob and Mary Ann Walsh (ex-Farmingtonites who now reside in Chicago) for a weekend recently. The Walsh boys really enjoyed seeing all the festivities and then last week, since Dick Hasselt had to make a business trip to the Chicago area, Joanne and her soul, spent a happy week with the Walshes in their colonial home.

Polly Lawshe was October hostess to Bridge Club No. 1 last week. Members present were: Grace Mitchell, Irene Walker, Lori Bosse, Joyce Green, Marge Stuck, Sandy Schurr, and two Barbara Vence. Cards were kind to Marge Stuck 1st, Irene Walker 2nd and unkind to Joyce Green who won booby. A prize is a prize however, over $5000. We have bits and matches of information on the other bridge clubs and pincockie clubs, but not complete enough to print. We will be most happy to have the hostesses of same call us and give us the missing links so that we could print it next week.

Two happy youngsters, David and Karen Green, accompanied their grandmother, Mrs. Carey, to Higgins Lake for the weekend. A family reunion was the reason for the jaunt, and a total of 35 relatives were there.

MICHAEL McGAVIN, four year old son of Tom and Joan McGavin, was best to his little friends and brothers at a birthday luncheon last week. Enjoying the goodies were brothers, Paul and Joseph McGavin, Jr. and cousins, Chris and Scott Bolten, Peter Schurr, Krys and Anne Dregalis, and mother, Len, from Plymouth.

Shelli Stuck, daughter of Marge and Tom Stuck, celebrated her ninth birthday at a family party. Naturally this included one of her mother's infatigable love cakes.

Sandy and Don Schurr entertained Sandy's mother, Mrs. Geraldine Seaman and sisters Wilby and Debbie this past weekend. The Seaman's reside in Saginaw.

KEN AND JEAN OSBORNE entertained Ken's brother and his family, Dick and Vinnie Osborne, and children, Suzanne and Blakey. They have recently come back from two years in Lebanon, and will be returning there soon.

Sorry to report that our neighbor, Ed Baker, who recently moved to Miami, Florida has been laid up with a sore back. Must have strained it while moving, Flo.

Kay Thomas has been in St. Mitty's hospital in Livonia for tests and observations. Enjoy your rest while you can.

Ten Mile PTA Plans For Annual Open House

School will be in session for only four weeks this year. The Ten Mile PTA Open House Monday evening, October 15.

Open House offers an excellent opportunity to become better acquainted with your child's school and teachers. All of the teachers will be introduced at the regular business meeting which will begin at 8 p.m. with President Julia Darian presiding.

Following the short meeting will be enough time allotted for the parents to attend two individual classrooms. In many instances there will be no display of supplies of the children's accomplishments. Note will be met other parents.

Last month Miss K. VanHoy's sixth graders won the coveted P.T.A. attendance banner. (The classroom with the most parents attending P.T.A. wins!) Let's see which classroom will hang the banner on its door this month!

Now Serving Aboard Dock Landing Ship

Warren B. Brown, storekeeper third class, U.S.N., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wade B. Brown of 29015 West 13 Mile rd., Farmington, is serving aboard the dock landing ship USS Ashland, a unit of Amphibious Squadron Four, which departed Norfolk, Va., Sept. 17, for a five-month tour of duty with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean Sea.

During the deployment the squadron units will participate in operational training of the Navy-Marine Corps amphibious striking force, which includes more than 3,500 personnel embarked on six ships.
