Browsing Through Farmington Hills
MRS. DAVID KRINGS GR. 6-0441

We welcome the subdivision, two very tiny new residents. Another girl, "wee little black," and a little boy, the Clingmans' house. The Clingmans give us warning to get our home fire extinguishers. So, and so when an emergency arrived, theirs was of little help.

Thirty-five members of the Thursday Night Trimmers gathered at the home of Florence Krings, on Thursday evening for a dinner party to honor one of its members, Mrs. Harold Krings. Mrs. Krings has lost 40 pounds.

Mrs. William Cady, Mrs. Edwards' mother, returned last week to her home in Miami, Florida. She had been here for the past ten weeks, and felt that now since the new granddaughter and mother were due to the warmer climate.

A visitor in the area from the Sunshine State is Mrs. James Vail's mother, Mrs. W. Matthews, from Nokomis. She arrived by plane Monday evening, and will remain until the first of the month. She arrived in time to see her little granddaughter, Cindy, celebrate her seventh birthday on Tuesday. Little guests for her after-school party were Nancy Krings, Jill Fink, Patricia Rider, Virginia Schmitt, Denise Davis and Lee Habicht.

Another young resident who recently arrived at the age of seven was Tommy Johnson, of Shadyside. He needed no help from the rest of the family at his dinner party to help him blow out his candles!

Teachers Institute last week end, gave one family the opportunity for an extra trip. Early Friday morning, the Arthur Conkling took off for Niagara Falls, enjoying the beautiful weather and scenery. Of special interest was the trip under the Canadian Falls; a visit to the Watkins Museum; and a guided tour thru Fort Erie; seeing the Falls from the new 33 story tower in the city of Niagara; and, a helicopter ride over the area.

We learned that the Tusculings, formerly of Powers Road, are both in the hospital. Mrs. Tusculing is in Herman Kinder hospital where she will be confined for quite some time; and Mr. Tusculing has been undergoing a series of tests at St. Mary's in Livonia.

On last Thursday, Phyllis Clapp, her mother, and her children, Diane, Carol, Tommy and Susan, left for Anderson, Indiana for a visit with Phyllis' sister. They returned Sunday after a fine trip during which they enjoyed the lovely fall weather and beautiful colors of the country side.

Susan Crump became a two year old on her birthday with a family dinner.

CATHY GRAY INVITED three of her friends, Marlene and Madeline Krukliak and Gale Rapard, to a party to celebrate her 15th birthday on October 12. Along with her mother and father and sister, Carol, and her brother, Billy, and "Grim" and came back to the Grays for ice cream and cake.

On Saturday, October 13, Joan and Scott Brown with friends from Ypsilanti went to Lansing and watched the football game between State and U of M. Afterward they enjoyed an added holiday by staying overnight in Lansing and returning home on Sunday.

We learned that the Tusculings, formerly of Powers Road, are both in the hospital. Mrs. Tusculing is in Herman Kinder hospital where she will be confined for quite some time; and Mr. Tusculing has been undergoing a series of tests at St. Mary's in Livonia.

New Housing Code Praised

A new housing code of the City of Farmington will soon be put into effect. Motivated after the code which has been good. Presently has and which has been under study for some months now, the new code was given final approval by the Planning Commission at its last regular meeting before being forwarded to the City Council with recommendation for adoption.

At its regular meeting Monday night, the Council unanimously approved a resolution introducing the ordinance and at its next meeting will be taking action to adopt the same, barring unexpected protests.

Mayor Robert Lindberg and Councilman Howard Thayer both praised the new housing code highly.

Local Moose Lodge In Oct. 20 Program

Farmington Moose Lodge No. 1995 will be one of 54 lodges in Michigan and 10 provinces of Ontario participating in a grand parade to be held in Windsor, Ont., on Saturday, Oct. 20, at 7:30 p.m.

This class will be in honor of Paul Schmitt, a most fraternalistic, and a Moosehead's congenial leader. It is a great honor that we of Farmington Lodge have been selected to be one of this unique Moose spectacular which will be recorded as one of the all-time highlights of the Grand Parade of Moose in the history of Canada. We are proud to have a parade unit get away to Windsor.

Players Cast Performs Well In Rehearsal

Katherine Kommerster, publicity chairman for the Farmington Players, announced this week that the cast for the group's first stage production of the season, "Come Back Little Sheba," has been polished up and is ready for the opening night performance on Saturday evening, October 20.

The cast is directed by Joseph R. Pepp. The members are: Peg Kelly, leading lady in the role of Lola; Stuart Orman, leading man in the role of Doc; Earl Orman in the role of "Mafie"; Bill Salisbury in the role of Turkey; supported by Helen Praderka, Graham Miller, Hugh Schukins; Bob Thomas, George Mullin, Jack Haney and Karl Cole.

PROPERTY CHAIRMAN

Mrs. Karl Cole has made a plea for several items needed for the property of the Farmington Players. She urges anyone who may have suitable duplicates for the play to contact her or Mrs. Katherine Kommerster, 8000 Woodward Ave., for more information.

PTA Council Hears Reports

A general meeting of the Farmington Area Council of PTAs was held on Wednesday evening of last week at which time a number of PTA reports and projects were discussed.

Although the turnout for the meeting was not as good as hoped for all but two PTAs in the school-system were represented.

James Brush, Council president, brought the group up to date on the activities of the PTA. He emphasized the fact that this group is more concerned with the potential delinquent than boys and girls who are already offenders.

Drive and Harry Newman of 2700 Lake Hills Drive, Farmington, told the Board that in his opinion residents in Franklin Parkway Subdivision were "doing of special assessment improvements" and "100 per cent against" approving any further improvement plans at the present time.

Township Supervisor Curt Hall explained that the total cost for the sewer arm on property owners in the proposed special assessment district would be $87 per benefit and would be payable over a ten year period.

DR. JAMES RENNELL

DR. JAMES RENNELL, president of the floride teeth treatment committee, reported that this program is now well underway. Children at Cloverleaf School have already had treatments and treatments for youngsters at the Longacre School are scheduled for completion by the end of this week. Over 50 percent of the children at Longacre signed up for the treatments. Dr. Rennell stated "Treatments are scheduled at the Farmington Hills School next followed by the Alameda, Shawassee and William Grace Schools. Children in all of these schools are slated to have treatments prior to Christmas vacation."

Tip-Residents Hit by Thefts

Three incidents of theft from parked cars were reported to Farmington Township Police this week on Monday, October 15, by residents.

Thomas LeManski of 2249 Allison reported $200 worth of tools, an electric motor and two power saws, were taken from the back of his truck while it was parked at his residence.

CHARLES GORDON of 23364 Haynes reported the theft of a 1958 Ford valued at $400 and a 1958 Ford valued at $800. Police: The theft occurred while his truck was parked at his residence.

George Peck of 28133 Bell Hill reported the theft of a 1958 Ford valued at $400 and a 1958 Ford valued at $800. Police: The theft occurred while his truck was parked at his residence.

ANNE M. PHILLIPS

Tonight at 10 p.m. let's all be tuned to Channel 2 for the Hitechock Hour. This reason: Bill Phillips, daughter, Barbara Daine, will be singing on it.

This Saturday the Detroit Women Writers Club, combined with the Continuing Education Division of MSU is sponsoring an all day writers' conference on Craftsmanship of Creative Writing. Sheila Holden is visiting his family, and a pilot party with the Vaughns, played golf, and again drove to Bel-Aire, for a swimming and dinner party with the Vaughns. To see Bill's mother; then to Peoria, Ill. to visit Mary's brother. They got away to Wood Creek last Friday night.

Cardiology Conference which 5000 attended coming from all over the world. Conrad had an exhibit in Centro Medico, a new building erected for this conference. The meetings were conducted in three languages, Spanish, French, and English, each member with ear phones. They stayed at the Hotel Conrad, an old hotel in the center of the city built in 1887, and occupied by monks. It is within a couple of blocks of the Palace of Fine Arts. Each Saturday night the hotel was a fiesta with mariachi band and Spanish dancers. Marian, of course, knows the city very well so she didn't go sightseeing, but spent much of her time in the patio resting and sunning herself - the most wonderful vacation she can remember.

MAR LAM

is a member of the Board of Governors of the Student Union at Middlebury College so was one of those who went to the Brattleboro Airport to meet Sec. of State Dean Rusk, then, with police escort, they drove back to the college where he spoke to the student body on the campus in the afternoon.

That evening the college had a reception for Dean Rusk and State Officials, which, of course, included the Governor of Vermont. The Board of Governors was invited to the reception, for Marj an outstanding experience.

Mrs. P. Martin Rites Today

Funeral services will be held today, Thursday, Oct. 18, at 10 a.m. for Mrs. Patricia L. Martin who passed away earlier this week at St. Mary's Hospital in Livonia after a prolonged illness.

Funeral arrangements have been handled by the Heene Funeral Home and burial services will be conducted from St. Fabian's Catholic Church. Interment will be at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

A 1948 graduate of Farmington High School, Mrs. Martin was the daughter of Mrs. Laura L. Young and the late John Q. Young of Farmington. She is survived by her husband James and five children as well as her mother.

Local Contractor Begins Road Work

Construction is underway on Lansing's north-south penetrator or freeway, the State Highway Department reports.

Holloway Construction Co. of Livonia began work on the $2 million Interstate 496 project which calls for construction of a freeway between Interstate 96 and Mt. Hope Rd.

Auto Parts Stolen By Fence Bidders

Farmington Auto Parts, 3800 Grand River, reported that $150 worth of supplies and equipment from their premises between 6 p.m. on Friday, October 12, and 9 a.m. on Saturday, October 13, were stolen.

The stolen items were being stored in a fenced-in area adjacent to the Farmington Auto Parts building and police were told the culprits probably tore down the fence to gain access to them.

When love and kindness together expect a masterpiece.
