Farmington Oaks

Edna Mosley - 474-2410 Betty Robertson - 476-0564

A "thank you" this week to Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Tesoro for opening their home to us Saturday night for a costume type Halloween party to which the whole subdivision was invited. Their daughter, Marge Katz, along with Pat Guyette and Marie Ruyle did the planning of the party. They saw that everyone was invited and contacted caterers for a delicious feast. The whole subdivision did attend the party and the food was very good. Unfortunately, one of those unable to attend was Marge, who had to work. However, we did have some outstanding guests Saturday evening: Jane came as usual with Taran; the Spirit of '76 limped in, wound up at Dr. Ben Cagay was there in case he was needed. A perfect doll was the Good Fairy with her magic wand ready to undo all of the evil the Devil might create.

What could be more natural than a box of cigarettes being accompanied by a box of matches or Robin Hood escorting Lady Marion. Also at the party we had a Hawaiian, a witch, a bantam, an Indian, a flapper, a pair of adagio dancers and assorted bums, etc. Mighty Mouse was there as well, and since there was no one for him to rescue he twisted all evening.

THE ACTUAL GUEST LIST as follows: School Bus, Neil and Tuffy Bulman, Les and Ruth Burns, Joe and Pat Guyette, Bob and Dorothy Hendry, Edna and Kay Mosley, Fred and Frank Micallef, John and Mary Mosley, Andy and Tyne Peltz, Larry and Donald Patrick, Bill and Donna Blato, Jim and Marie Ruyle, Wes and Betty Robertson, Albert and Inge Schaefer, Norm and Ginny Skelrick, Frank and Yvonne Smith, Fernando and Mary Ann Pat Fazzar, Julius and Jane

LES AND RUTH Burns moved to their new home on Chestnut Lane this last weekend. Their daughter, Lynette, who is 17, is finishing her senior year at Redford High School in Detroit and will graduate in January. The family has three pets of which they're very fond: a poodle, a terrier, and a manchester.

Les works at the Torrence Oil Co. in Birmingham and Ruth is a secretary for an insurance adjuster.

Even though they spent Friday and Saturday night in Detroit and Ruth attended the party Saturday night where we all had a chance to meet them. The Burns family moved here from Detroit and we're happy to welcome them to the subdivision.

Dick Hart returned Friday, October 26, after spending a few days in Clare, Mich. on business. On Saturday, October 27, Dick and Gladys spent the evening at the Hawaiian Gardens, in Holly, Michigan, with Dick's cousin and her husband to help them celebrate their twentieth wedding anniversary.

The Staman's Stitches will meet at the home of Hazel McKee on Wednesday, November 7, at 8 p.m. Bev Ellis will give a demonstration on Christmas decor and I'm sure the ladies in the sub will not want to miss this.

On Saturday, October 27, a luncheon was given at Soy Kitchen in Farmington for Barb Katchen who is moving from our sub.

A beautiful solid gold bracelet inscribed with her name and the dates of her residence in the subdivision was presented to her from the ladies of the subdivision.

Those attending were: Joanne Brown, Pat Burke, Gerie Burck, Mary Callorette, Ella Caruthers, Colleen Chadwick, Hil da Custer, Bev Ellis, Edna Hillman, Shirley Johnson, Helen Kelly, Virginia Kloppe, Norma Larson, Loudean Maldonado, Marion Eymouth, Paula Scheff, Edie Schulte, Louise Sidosky, Margaret Sivy, Joanne Smith, Aileen Turner, Millie Unks, Charlotte Waskowski, Margaret Wheeler and Kay Jackson.

BRIAN SHARED his ice cream and cake with Keith Robertson, Kelly Smith, David Abid, Scott Billman, Gary Patko, Ronny Rinz, and Ricky Skelrick.

Congratulations to Norm and Ginny Skelrick who celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary on Oct. 26. Last same week, Ginny's brother, Warren Howell, drove here from Johnson City, New York for a 5 day visit.

Little David Abid entered Mt. Sinai Hospital Sunday morning for surgery on Oct. 27. We have had no report on David's condition as yet, but we all wish him well.

Cub Pack 163
Has Pow-Wow

The boys from Cub Scout Pack 163 and their parents met to welcome the new den mother, Mrs. Helen Messner, and two new assistants, Mrs. Edward Paige and Alice Parker, Oct. 23.

It was announced that more square dancers are needed. The dens each put on skits: Den 9, fire prevention; Den 1, Robin Hood; Den 5, Sleepy Hollow; and Webelos, Hiawatha.

The bobcat ceremony welcomed Clark Parker and James Phillips. Mrs. George Richley led some songs and Mr. William Zahn had a game to play. The awards were: Patch for bringing in a new boy, Ryan Lind; one year pin, Tom Paige; one year perfect attendance, Paul Richley; Bear book, John Spalier; one year pin, John Parker; and Mary Zahn, best Denner, Randy Hotz; Denner, Kevin Hibbs; two year pin and Lion book, Tom Brooks and Tom Utz; Webelos book, The display award, Bob Wigwag; second, Tom Utz and Dave Derby; and third, Randy Hotz. Final Weekend Of 'Sheba' Play Coming Nov. 2-4

The Farmington Players' first theater presentation of the season last weekend, "Come Back Little Sheba," has been labeled a smash landing into its second and final weekend run, Nov. 2 through Nov. 4.

Outstanding performances were turned in by Peg Tully and Stuart Orman in the lead roles of Lola and Doc. They were backed up by superb supporting roles from the entire cast.

DIRECTOR OF "Sheba", Joseph R. Papp, was presented with a gift of appreciation for his fine work in the production at a party held after the opening night performance, Friday, Oct. 26. Also at the party, the director of the Farmington Players next play, "Our Town," was introduced. Don Craig, who has been the opening night feature of the Farmington Players, was introduced. Don Craig, who has been the opening night feature of the Farmington Players, was introduced.

Orchard Meadows Sub

JOAN BROWN
Greenleaf 4-3759

The Wm. DeFazans had a short visit last week from Marilyn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peas of Grand Rapids. They arrived on Thursday and stayed until Friday. It was a pleasant reunion for them all.

On Halloween the children of the subdivision met in Scott Brown's garage for a costume party to see each other's costumes. Mary Lou Meyers was in charge of this event. After talking to their friends the ghosts and goblins went on their happy way to trick or treat through the neighborhood.

AND SPEAKING of Halloween, we hope with its passing the pranks in the subdivision can put their soap away. There is nothing like the fun of seeing windows in near freezing weather. I wonder if any of the ones that gasped the windows at the pump house would like to volunteer to clean them now? Maybe respect for property and rules in our subdivision could stand being discussed.

With winter coming Drake Road will probably become muddy, but we have been asked not to use Drakes as a shortcut. With all the small children in our neighborhood, any unnecessary traffic just creates more of a hazard. I'm sure we and the same about Gary D. Your cooperation will be appreciated.

Mac and Pat Tenney left here on October 10 on a combination business and pleasure trip. They flew to Lisbon, Portugal. They then went to France and drove along the Riviera (Mac has a car at his disposal when in Europe) enjoying Nice on the French Riviera and San Remo on the Italian. Of course they stopped in Monaco and then went on to Switzerland. Business over they had planned to go to the Middle East but due to the tense situation here, they decided to postpone that trip and returned home on Oct. 26.

CONRAD AND MARIAN Lam left here last Thursday to drive to Middlebury, Vt. for Parents Weekend. They drove via Port Huron and Sarnia and soon ran into rain and then snow there were 4 or 5 inches of it when they reached Niagara Falls, where they spent the night. The next day the snow was soon all gone and it was bright and clear along the N.Y. Thruway. They reached Middlebury late Friday afternoon. Saturday afternoon they watched Polytechnic 48-6. They enjoyed the Open House. The President's reception, and visiting with Marj. They drove all the way home Sunday, reaching here about midnight.

DICK AND PAT McGrath have been having a busy time. On Oct. 11 Pat had the Detroit Northern Suburban Chi Omega alumnae for dessert and coffee followed by a business meeting. Mr. Bacon, Asst. Manager of the F.B.I. in Detroit was their speaker and he gave them some of the F.B.I. background, methods they use, and some very interesting experiences they have had.

At 8 a.m. the next morning Dick and Pat left on a combination business and pleasure trip, going first to French Lick, Ind., then to Louisville, Ky. and finally to Cleveland, Oh. in Cleveland they were entertained by three sets of friends.

Last Friday night they celebrated their wedding anniversary by going to dinner at Devon on Gratiot. It was the same place they had their wedding dinner 22 years ago.

Saturday morning they left at 8 a.m. for Parents Day at Adrian College. Of course they attended the football game which Adrian won from Hope College 23-22. What was their surprise to look behind them in the stands and see Bud and Bobbie Davenport with their two girls, Wendy, a freshman at Adrian, and Linda! After dinner that night, Basil Rathbone furnished the entertainment for students and parents.

JACK SWIFT came home from Michigan State Saturday afternoon - to get his car winterized and a change from school.

Marvin Tyghe found himself faced with a long weekend at Michigan State so, in the evening, he and a friend decided to take the train to Detroit. At 2 a.m. Maury had a phone call asking him to come down to the station for him. Of course they drove Marvin and his friend back to Lansing last Sunday evening.
