ACTIVE IN THE LEADERS' Conference of the Lutheran Laymen League are the above representatives from the Prince Charles Peace Lutheran Church of Farmington. They are (L to R) Donald M. Burrell, Carl Welti, Pastor: Rev. Carl Mehl and Angus Ford.

Children Give Views on What They Are Really Thankful For.

Do children fully understand the real meaning of Thanksgiving? Are they only interested in material things and personal possessions? Interested in getting the answers to these questions, a fifth grade teacher at the Longacre Peace Lutheran Church of Farmington. They are (L to R) Donald M. Burrell, Carl Welti, Pastor: Rev. Carl Mehl and Angus Ford.

"On Dec. 30, the circle will hold its annual pot-luck supper Christmas party. The supper will begin at 7 p.m. and will be followed by the business meeting and entertainment. It will be held in the Knights of Columbus hall at 21900 Middlebelt Rd. Farmington."

"I am thankful for work because when I work hard I find out that I am really helpful to the people around me."

"I am thankful for school because school helps me to learn while I am growing up."

"I am thankful for having clothes to wear because many little girls don't have these things."

"I am thankful for being able to go to school because I can learn how to do many things."

"I am thankful that I have friends."

"I am thankful for nature because it is so beautiful. I am thankful for the trees that give us shade."

"I am thankful for the love my parents give me and the kind."

"I am thankful for having a mother and father because when I think of orphans, whose parents are dead, I think of how bad they must feel."

"I am thankful for having a father who works and brings home our money to buy the things that are needed around home."

"I am thankful I have my own place to sleep because in other countries they don't."

"I am thankful for school because when I grow up I will need good work habits."

"I am thankful for two ears, two legs, two arms, two eyes, a nose, a mouth, two feet and two hands. These are what God gave me and I want them."

"I am thankful for church."

"I am thankful for the strength to do things and when finished in knowing the satisfaction of a job well done."

You be the Judge. Are our young children of today only interested in material things and personal possessions?

AAUW Chapter Plans Meeting
 The Farmington Branch of AAUW has invited their husband and friends to their December meeting at the Players' Barn on 12 Mile Road, December 12 at 8 p.m.
 The speaker of the evening will be William Hayden of the American Friends Service Committee. He will speak about the different aspects of the Friendly Service Committee and what this organization has accomplished at home and abroad.
 Afterward will be a social hour under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert Shaffer assisted by Mesdames Timmons, Schaeffer, Bena, and Craig.

Goodwill Trucks Will Make Rounds
 The next visit of Goodwill Industries pickup trucks to collect household discards of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, types of furniture and other household discards.
 To arrange for a Goodwill Industries truck pickup, call the local Goodwill representative Miss Lora Ault telephone number GR 4-2894 or ask the operator for toll-free Enterprise 7002.

Shrine Club Plans Gala Holiday Party
 The Greater Farmington Shrine Club's annual Christmas party will be held at Parker House Frontier Town, 30300 Grand River Avenue, Farmington, on Thursday, December 13, on Thursday, December 13. For reservations call Norm Thayer GR 4-5445, Russ Ellis GR 4-6100 or Fred Downham, GR 4-3582.

THE CHURCH DOORS will open for a meeting to begin at 7 p.m. The theme is "What does drinking mean to you?" If you are interested plan to attend.
 Mr. Charles S. Kent, chief counselor at Brighton Hospital will speak on his work with alcoholics. His many years of work at Brighton Hospital qualify him as an outstanding authority in this field.
 Some of the facts involved in this field are that alcoholism has increased 40 percent in the last decade. Social problems related to drinking are on the increase. Included are crime, juvenile delinquency, family problems and highway deaths.
 As parents, members of the church, or citizens of the community this is a program you cannot afford to miss.
 The nursery will be open. Both of the Methodist youth groups are assisting in the program, which will be followed by refreshments.

Local Y-Teens Stage Welcome
 The Farmington High Y-Teens held their annual Recognition Service Tuesday, November 27, at the Northwest YWCA.
 The purpose of this service is to take in any new members and recognize the old. There were 12 new members present who were initiated. A short service was performed, each new girl got her Y-Teen yearbook, and refreshments were served to all present.
 Also recognized at this service were Miriam Gordon, the new President of the Inter Clubs Council and Rae Ann Butler, President of the Metropolitan Y-Teens.
 This year's Y-Teen officers include: Rae Ann Butler, President; Judy Butler, Vice President; Darla Frick, Secretary; Mary Jane Carpenter, Treasurer; Vignette Risky, I.C.C. Representative; and Karen Harvill, Chaplain. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Ouida Cooper.

Boys Honored At 1st Baptist
 The First Baptist Church of Farmington sponsored an Award Night, Monday, November 26, for their Stockade and Parents during which the boys received their awards for personal achievement.
 Award Night gave Parents the opportunity to observe the Stockade program personally, ask questions, and become personally acquainted with the boys' leaders, the Rangers.
BOYS' STOCKADE is a Carist Centered Boys Training Club, for boys from 11 years of age. The meetings are held each Monday evening at 7 p.m. at the Baptist church and all boys from 11 are invited. Handcraft projects, games, and spiritual guidance is stressed at each meeting.
 Twenty-six boys and many parents attended Award Night. Rev. Elgin Green, Area Representative for Christian Service, Brigado officially presented the Stockade Charter for this new club. Pastor of the church, Rev. Walter C. Ballagh presented "Story Time".

Reveal Plans For Xmas Party
 All children who attend Special Education classes in the Farmington area are asked to come and bring their families to a Christmas Party and Refreshment, Wednesday, December 12, 7 p.m., at Middlebelt School, Ten Mile and Middlebelt.
 There will be games, prizes and a magician for the little ones, dancing or just listening to records for the teens and lots of interesting conversation for the parents. Punch, ice cream and cookies for all.
 Santa Claus will be there with a surprise gift-bag for each child.
 All provided by the Farmington Association for Handicapped Children. A big thank to all those who gave so generously.

Beth Am. Slates Guest Speaker
 Ralph Abramowitz, director of the Orchards, will be the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Am. Monday, December 10.
 Mr. Abramowitz will speak to the ladies of the Sisterhood on the subject: "Do parents and children worry about the same things?" This will be a rare opportunity for sisterhood members to gain insight into how their own children think.
THE ORCHARDS which Mr. Abramowitz directs is a residence designed as a halfway house providing a stable environment for emotionally disturbed young children (six to twelve) who require special care away from home.
 Mr. Abramowitz came to the Orchards from the Healy School of the Institute for Juvenile Research in Chicago where he was acting director. He received his undergraduate degree from the City College of New York and his Master's degree in social work in the group work field from the University of Pittsburgh, School of Social Work. Mr. Abramowitz has also completed the Child Care course at the Chicago Institute of Psycho-Analysis.
 The meeting will be held at the Redford Branch of the N.W.C.A., Grand River at Beech-Daly at 8:30.
 The meeting will be followed by a coffee hour.
 The first United States coin containing nickel was a small one-cent piece issued in 1857. It was made of an alloy of 12 percent nickel and 88 percent copper.
