Efficiency Apts. May Be Allowed

A request for permission to construct an efficiency apartment type of motel unit on a parcel of land on the north side of Grand River Avenue a short distance west of Power Road was made to the City Planning Commission Monday night by Virgil Cornwell, local builder and developer.

They would be designed as units to be lived in for short periods of time rather than as places to accommodate overnight customers and under terms of present restrictions in commercial areas would not be permitted.

The feeling of the planners was that some consideration should be given to the use of this and other small parcels of land along Grand River in this manner in view of the fact that it appears to be property not suitable for any other good use.

Their decision was to turn the matter over to the City's planning consultants to get an expression from them on this matter.

Serving for the ensuing year as officers are senior warden, Gerald Banfield; junior warden, Don McDiarmid; treasurer, Forest Dickerson; secretary, James Smith; Chaplain, Howard Legg; senior deacon, Jack Currie; junior deacon, Charles Valerius; senior stewart, Jack Steele; also serving as stewarts, Bob Garbin; Trustee James Nourjian; temple board association; George Stewart; Clarence Amidon, and Tiler, Jack Craigie.

ROBERT DUSENBERRY

Howard Legg, past master acting as worshipful grand master and installing officer of the evening, will be assisted by Farmington Lodge Past Masters. Maurice Wilcox will fill the station of grand senior warden; Uno Danielson, grand junior warden; Arthur Lamb, grand treasurer; Robert Robertson, grand secretary; George Dorset, grand chaplain; Henry Prentice, grand senior deacon; Daniel Reynolds, grand junior deacon; Walter Russell, grand marshal; Roy Line, grand tiler.

Dinner will be served at 6:00 p.m. and the installation and entertainment will follow. Dinner is being prepared by the Order of Eastern Star under the direction of worthy matron, Mrs. Jean Marsh, and served by Job's Daughters Bethel 55 with the leadership of honored queen, Miss Jean Miller.

Dusenberry, worshipful master-elect, announced the following scheduled special activities to be conducted during his term as well as the tremendous task of carrying through with the plans to erect a new temple: On December 22 the annual Masonic Children's Christmas Party will be held at the temple at 7:00 p.m. with entertainment, favors and refreshments for all children and friends of Masons. On January 7, master mason degree with "Masonic Facts" given by Howard Legg, P.M. A co-operative pot luck dinner for all orders will be held on February 23. Farmington Senior's Night, on March 22, will be highlighted by an address by Dr. Harvey M. Merker and a memorial presentation in memory of Lester Lentz, a dedicated member of the Masonic fraternity. All those who wish to contribute to the Lentz Memorial Fund should contact Mr. Dusenberry. This meeting which is open to all Master Masons and their wives will also acknowledge and honor Farmington Lodge life members.

The Farmington Masonic Lodge meets every Monday at the Masonic Temple. For dinner reservations call Donald McDiarmid, J.W. at EL 6-0462.

Two New Teachers Hired, Five Resign

The appointment of two new teachers and the resignations of five others to become effective after Christmas vacation as recommended by the administration was approved by action of the Board of Education Monday night.

Miss Janet Brown will come to Farmington to teach in the early elementary grades and Miss Diane M. Edons to teach junior high mathematics.

Say Counseling At NFHS Good

At the request of local school officials a thorough investigation of student counseling services being offered at North Farmington High was made recently.

The purpose of requesting this study was to assure that the school was offering services satisfactory enough to qualify for North Central Association accrediting when it reaches full high school status next year.

Frank Womer of the Bureau of School Services at the University of Michigan who is an authority on this made the study and detailed report from him was read to the Board of Education at its regular meeting Monday night.

The report revealed that NFHS is doing a good job in the field of counseling presently and should have no problems in gaining accrediting because of poor counseling service. It was pointed out in his report, however, that facilities for a good counseling program seemed to be limited and that some steps to provide expanded facilities would be necessary as the school grows.

After the report had been given, Supt. G. V. Harrison pointed out to Board members that this had been considered when plans for the school were developed. Some additional counseling space can be provided adjacent to the library, he stated.

Hook-Up Rates

same for all who use the systems.

"A MAN SHOULD not be penalized because he waters his front lawn", Duke said, when it was pointed out homeowners consume a greater quantity of water than do trailer park or apartment house dwellers.

How much support Duke will receive from the other seven members of the Board is not clear, but an amendment proposed by him to establish the uniform connection charge rate is being drafted by Township Attorney Joseph T. Brennan and will be placed on the agenda of the next regular meeting in January.

Brennan pointed out to the Board that legally the connection charge is a "priviledged fee" set by the Township which need not follow any set formula used elsewhere.

Duke seeks to have the Board endorse his definition of the term "dwelling" to mean "any enclosure for a family, whether it be multiple dwellings built on a single foundation, a single dwelling built on a foundation or on wheels."

Trustee Ray Wilcox feels that "an adjustment could be made" along Duke's plan but appeared reluctant to throw all types of dwellings under the same definition. He suggested the Board seek a version that would consider ability to pay and anticipated use of the system as the basis for establishing the connection charge.

Duke countered Wilcox by pointing out families in homes in the $300 range aren't necessarily capable of any greater ability to pay than are trailer park or apartment house families. "There are bound to be inequities on both sides of the scale," Duke said.

Other members of the Board indicated they wanted more time to consider the issue before determining which stand they would take.

Ranks 2nd in Class At St. John's Academy

Richard Gobeille, 16, a junior at St. John's Military Academy in Delefield, Wisconsin has been announced the second cadet in his class and ranked fourth in the entire school in scholastic ratings published recently.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Gobeille of 32260 Farmersville Road in Farmington.

Auto Accidents

December 5, following an accident on Middlebelt south of 14 Mile Road. Jedwab's car was broadside across the road attempting to turn around when struck by Steven A. Cote, 20, of Birmingham who was unable to stop his car on the icy pavement.

Christine Susan Jane Brown, 26, was taken to Redford Community Hospital on Sunday, December 9, when her car went off the road at Ontaga and Independence and struck a tree.

Nathalie A. Whitney, 50, and her passenger, Mrs. Ann Sweeney, 41, both of Dearborn, were treated for injuries at St. Mary Hospital in Livonia after their car struck another on Orchard Lake Road near Ten Mile. The other driver, Robert S. Wood, 53, of Detroit was not injured in the accident which occurred on icy pavement Thursday, December 6.

The new skirts are so short that men who used to sit in sidewalk cafes to watch the girls pass now pass to watch the girls sit in sidewalk cafes.
