

Yule Party Planned For Kids in St. Home

Among Santa's visits each year, one of the most rewarding for everyone is the visit to the children at the Plymouth State Home. Once again, the Farmington Jayces and the Auxiliary will bring toys, fruit, gifts, and a glad heart and smile to those children who reside in the home year around. Co-chairmen Ed Blumberg and Sherry Laansma with their committees are going to bring Santa to as many of the 670 children as possible on Sunday, December 23.

Friends of the Library Plan Annual Meeting

The Board of Directors of the Farmington Friends of the Library met Dec. 8 at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Lachman. The Librarian, Mrs. Mildred Droegge, reported an interesting gift to the library as a result of the Bad Guest lecture on November 15. The door prize at the lecture consisted of $10 worth of books of the recipient's choice. The prize was won by Mrs. Evangeline Peterson, 3206 Macomb St., who has chosen to donate this sum to the library to be used for the purchase of Zim literature books.

These books will be available shortly for the use of the children, who frequent the library in such numbers. The library has also profited, to some extent, from those memberships and renewals to the Friends of the Library received during Book Week. Every three memberships and one new book on the library shelves. 1963 memberships are now being received by Robert Briggs, Treas., 2615 Oxford Street.

Dickens' Classic To Be Presented

"A Christmas Carol," Charles Dickens' 19th century tale of Ebenezer Scrooge and Tiny Tim, will be featured in the annual Holiday Family Film Program at Henry Ford Museum December 26-31. Three early Porky Pig cartoons will be shown with "A Christmas Carol," which will be presented in the Museum theater at 1 and 3 p.m. daily and at 2 and 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. The Museum's special holiday exhibition, "The Crafts at Christmas," also will continue through the week.

The Annual Meeting of the Farmington Friends of the Library will be held at the library Wed., Jan. 23, at 8 p.m. Mrs. DONALD BRIGGS will give a book review and Mr. JOHN ALLEN, of the District Library Board, will talk on future plans for the library. Six new members of the Friends of the Friends need the support of every user of the library if it is to reach its full potential of service. The Music Department of North Farmington High School presented their Winter Christmas Concert on Tuesday evening, Dec. 11.

North Farmington Concert Planned
The Music Department of North Farmington High School presented their Winter Christmas Concert on Tuesday evening, Dec. 11.

Mr. James Hunt, vocal director and Mr. Lawrence Harter, band director, both contributed to the very fine program. The program consisted of the combined choir, concert and variety bands, Girls Glee Club, a quartet which included Diana Haynes, soprano; Janet Sell, alto; Tom Carley, tenor; and Clyde Kirpichick, bass.

Bill Piper, organist, added support to the concert not only by his voice in the choir, but also by an organ melody. A girls trio of Diana Haynes, Nancy Weller and Janet Sell, sang "No Candle was There." "Toyland, Toyland," was done by a triple quartet. The Sopranos were Sandra Haviland, Betty Judge and Nancy Weller; Altos were Sharon Hogg, Paulette Poldian and Jane Witt. Tenors were Tom Davidson, David Melstrup and Curtis Peterson. The basses included: Larry August, John De Groot, and Marshall Slocum.
