The cold crisp night of December 8 found the majority of Kimberleyites Mead and friends in excellent anticipation of the second annual Kimberley Christmas Dance. The snow outside lent itself festively to the holiday spirit inside where some 384 Kimberleyites and guests merged their enthusiasm and made this dance an outstanding success.

Many couples began partying early in the evening, attending one (or more) of the many pre-dance cocktail parties hosted in the subdivision.

DYER ANN JAY Meville of Kiltartan served drinks and hors d'oeuvres to Doris and Hugh McChesney, Bud and Jo Olson, Judy and Jim Burns, Ed and Shotty Showell, Dorothy and Jack Newman, Phyllis and Ralph Kimbrough, John and Lil Clark, Neil and Phyllis McCallan, Betty and Glen Odum, Mary and Dick Foran, Bud and June Reaumes and their guests, George and Barbara Reames away on Kiltartan Delta and Ray Rutler, Fred and Jean Barry, Hank and Katy Brakora, Gerry and Neva Garret, Betty and Jim Love, Midge and Shotty Showell, Bud and June Reaumes and their guests, Mickey and Gene Ruffing, (Sals) and Mary Lou, Fred and Fred Ehlers, Nandor and Iona Zimmerman, and the Rutters' guests, Daisy and Jim Wright.

Rudy and Betty Hroba of Mitchell, shared pre-dance cheer with the Don O'Malleys, the Al Sherwoods, and the Ois Johnsons, while the cocktail party at Joy and Neil Bell's home on Dundalk was enjoyed by the Bob Clarks and their guests, the Vic Carlos, and the High Troupe, Neil Bell, Joe and the Joe Kings.

ROBERTA AND DICK Flakne of Fiddlers Green entertained the Ken Jamisons, the Carl Klukkas, the Ruper Hansens, the Dave Staders, the Bill Smiths and the Dick Lukeys, before all cavalcading to the dance together.

Mario and Rosa Lombardi of Pipers Lane welcomed Dorothy and Gordon MacKenzie, Wally and Marion Barringer, Steve and Jean Marriello, Eleanor and Bill May, Bill and Bob Kaine, Marion and Harold Olson, Jim and Ginger Rennell, Jim and Betty Love, Bettie and Dave Wilmer, the Wilmer's guests, Doris and Ed Franz, Marabelle and Lin Chalmers, Molly and Don Ericson, Shirley and George Pfaffmann, Linda and Neil Bell, Joe and Jill Emerson, and Bob and Terry Desser, relatives of the Lombardis.

Margorie and Dick Bey of Westminster opened their doors to the Jerry Toobys, the Darrell Kattermans, the Chuck Albers, the Carl Wellis, the Fred Sevins, the Carl Staders, the Tom Souters (guests of the Staders), the Bob Wheelers, the Stan Svaltors, the Fred Magaous, and the Bob Eckels. Henry and Wendeath, Frank and Lois Gessler toasted their guests, Pat and Jack Thoresen and Pete and Corine Guidici.

SONDRA AND BOB BAUM of Greyhorne hosted a pre-dance buffet dinner party, attended by Jim and Ginger Renard, Joanne Tune, Barb Shaw, Marion Walters, Rosa Lombardi, Phyllis Trombley, Doris McChesney, Jean Butler, Maxine DeYoung, Mary Wright, Helen Ruffing and yours truly. The enthusiastic efforts of these gals not only gave us a good attendance at the dance, but enriched the association's coffers by $310.01!

THANKS ARE ALSO due to the generosity of the donors of the prizes, awarded by drawing ticket stubs during the evening. The credits are as follows: Don Emerson, two gifts of stationery, Craftsman Construction Company, a $10 gift certificate, Thompson-Brown, a transistor radio, Emil Cowledge, a $25 check, Don Zullo, five bottles of Christmas cheer and two boxes of glassware, Dick Luksey, Reynolds Wrap gift packaging, Roy Mercer, a $20 gift certificate, and Frank Lance, dinner for two at the Coach and Four.

Among our lucky residents were Hank and Katy Brakora, Phyllis and Ralph Kimbrough, Mary and Bob Kenney, Jim and Betty Love, and Fred and Fran Ehlers.

For many of our couples the end of the dance was not the end of the evening, as groups gathered in private homes or all night restaurants for refreshment and further merriment.

And now, just a brief bit of timely news - girl scout troop number 588, led by Roberta Flakne and Betty Abrecht will carol throughout the subdivision on Thursday evening, December 20. A welcoming porch light will be most appreciated.

Following their tour through Kimberley the girls will retire to the Jean home on Wicklow Court for warming hot cocoa Acosta, Marge Bey, Carol Lee and a gift exchange.

The terrific ticket sale, (182), was spearheaded by Lois Gessler, ticket chairman. The tickets were printed courtesy of Don Emerson, and were sold throughout the subdivision by Lois and her committee - Bettie Patten, Jill Emerson, Rose and Acosta, Marge Bey, Carol Lee and a gift exchange.

The handicapped children in the Farmington area was a huge success. Over two hundred handicapped children and their families turned out at Middlefield School in spite of the freezing temperatures to listen and sing along with the Falmecorians from Farmington.

The children were entranced as Martin the Magician performed his magic.

The punch table was covered with Christmas cookies by the mothers. Hot coffee was a welcome treat on that zero night. The children enjoyed ice cream.

THE CHILDREN were so thrilled with the visit from St. Nick they hopped up and down and sang Jingle Bells. Santa did a grand job of talking with each child and giving them a surprise gift bag packed by Girl Scout Troop 591.

Teachers of Special Education supervised ring tossing, bean bag throwing and other games for the children. Each child went home with a prize.

Mrs. Charles Kull thanked everyone who had donated to make this party such a success. The members of the Exchange Club of Farmington dug deep in their pockets and
