Set Up Student Photo Studio
Supreme School Studios, represented by Al Huybichs of 2232 Tredwell Street here, will be taking children's photographs on a school picture program for the next several months, it was announced this week.

City Facing Right-of-Way Problem Again
The City is now wrestling with the problem of whether or not it would be advisable to spend approximately $20,000 to acquire an access from Grand River Avenue between Van Furniture Store and buildings to the east to the large public parking lot area to the south.

TV Repair Truck Is Looted in City
An estimated $500 worth of television repair tools and supplies was stolen Tuesday, December 18, from the service truck owned by Gene Hymowitz, which was parked behind his business establishment, Farmington Radio and TV, 20780 Grand River.

JC's Shopping Tour For Underprivileged
The Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce and their Auxiliary organization will join forces this Saturday, December 20, to provide underprivileged children in the community with money and transportation to make a Christmas shopping tour of local stores.

Read Letters Of Objection
Two letters expressing disapproval with the proposed rezoning of the Town Hall property at Grand River and Farmington Road to commercial and the raising of the old Town Hall building were read at the City Council meeting Monday night.

from. Another was that there was no parking area adjacent to the bank building and that ample parking area around any municipal building was very beneficial. Centralization of the police, fire and city offices all under one roof should make substantial savings in operational costs to the city possible, it was also emphasized.
