Wandering Thru Woodbine

BETTY MILLER GR. 4-5697

The new year got off to a flying start with the first meeting of the Woodbine Improvements Association Jan. 8.

Mr. Robert Arnold, president, informed those few in attendance that he had been approached by the local Civil Defense authorities to try to educate and inform the people of Woodbine on what to do and where to go. Also, to try to set up a system by which people migrating from disaster areas could be housed and fed.

MARY WADELL, Alva Bunting and Dixie Bonner volunteered on behalf of Woodbine to try to set up a system to civil defense to start in the near future.

The annual card party was discussed and Nadia Bowie was volunteered to act as chairman. Mary Brose, Mary Brose and Nell Donovan also volunteered their services. In the near future Nadia will schedule the party.

ANNE M. PHILLIPS MA. 6-5335

I know you will all be as glad as I am that Pauline Copping did not spend this Christmas alone. She has two daughters, Grace, who lives on the east side, and June, who is now Mrs. Vern Mahle, has four children, and lives in Six Lakes, Michigan. They were all here and helped to ease the loss of her husband so soon before they planned to celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary. They were married on Christmas day. Pauline is wonderful and appreciates deeply the help many she had with the one husband.

ELEANOR and RICHARD Deschoff drove to Chicago Dec. 3, returning on Friday. While Richard attended to business Eleanor shopped. They dined both nights at a private club, The Barn.

Emily and Andy Dyndal had 19 for Christmas day and dinner, all relatives and the three couples with whom they play vinocche regularly.

Jeanne Habsburg's sister, Carol Soper, flew on from Matcap, Mass., arrived at the 23rd. She stayed until last week Tuesday. Christmas afternoon St. Jennine, their four children, and Carol all drove to Birmingham to visit friends there who have nine children. It was quite a lively afternoon!

BILL HOLDEN's sister, Elizabeth, Mr. Arthur Thiel, came on from Green Bay, Wis. to spend a few days of the holiday season here. His wife, Mrs. Thiel, was here last weekend. Of course they wanted to visit with Bill and Sheila, but the reason for coming at this time is to see their mother who has a December birthday.

Eric and Dorothy Jensen had another of their famous parties Dec. 22 with some 70 guests. The party was given by the family with her parents, the Herbert Hoskins, her brother, Gordon, and another brother, Rowland and his family.

Dick Lacey got home for Xmas. Four boys drove from San Diego, Calif. to Chicago. From there Dick came on by the airplane and he had 14 days before returning to complete the electronics school course he is taking at Camp Pendleton.

LEO MEAGHER's mother, from Toronto, Canada, spent several weeks with them before flying to Los Angeles, Calif. Just before Xmas he had two daughters who live there. But the Meaghers had 14 with them for Xmas. Their daughter, Joanne, Mrs. Donald Morris, also living in Los Angeles, flew on with her family, their daughter, Donna May, is in her second year at Eastern Michigan and was home for the holidays; 8th grade Margaret Mary was, of course, at home.

Theresa McKay has asked me to express her appreciation to those in Wood Creek who made 70 dinner cookies over a 7 week period for the patients at the Pontiac State Hospital - I made these weeks outstanding.
