Home In Old Homestead

JACQUELINE DAVIS GR. 4-1230

At the same time Phil and Paul Hukkala, Jack and June's twin sons, were playing host to Robin Brack, Kenny Davis, Anne Leidlein, Barbara North, Johnny Marsden, Kim Oddo, Bradley Shobe, and Johnny Swier, Unlike Kim Pearson, the twins were celebrating their mutual birthday a little early. Relatives were present for a party on Sunday, and there was more family celebrating on Monday which was the day they finally arrived at the ripe old age of six.

Three Old Homestead youngsters shared Tuesday, January 15, for a birthday: Tammy Jo Humm became one year old, Anne Leidlein six and Susie Shobe eight. Susie invited several members of her second grade class and neighbors to an after school party.

Additional birthday congratulations to a Freddy Vinger who became eight, last Saturday, and to Joy Steele who blew out thirteen candles on her cake that same day.

Last Saturday Ricky North joined party members of the Walther League of the Prince of Peace Lutheran Church for ice skating and tobogganing at Ice Park. The group finished off the wintery outing at the home of one of the members for thawing out.

There have been a number of reports of injuries recently. Serious skaters have been cut by skate blades as the result of falls and what have you. Bob Leidlein has been seen in a wading pool, a skating accident on New Year's Day resulted in a broken ankle for him.

OUR PLEASANT Valley neighbor, Harry McPaul, is hospitalized in Lansing following a severe accident. Any hospitalization is undesirable, but this is particularly bad because he is so far away from his family. We certainly wish him and our other patients a speedy and uneventful convalescence.

A recent letter to the Shobes from the Klofs, former Old Homesteaders, inform us that they like their new home in California. Their address now is: 1941 Fletcher, Pasadena, Calif. They had curbside seats for the Rose Bowl Parade. John and the boys made sure of this by reserving the spot at 3:00 in the morning.

Students Lead In Youth Week

As a part of Youth Week, the junior and senior high young people of the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington led the morning services Sunday, January 27.

Youth Week is observed by many Protestant denominations across the nation and the young people of these churches are presenting some form of program around the theme "To Fly the Flag". The sermon on Sunday was based on the thoughts of these young people focused on this topic.

THOSE SENIOR high students who led the services were Colleen Kelly, Gary Pell, King Cotton, Kris Hendee, Jan Sell. The offering solo was sung by Sue Morsheimer and the sermon was delivered in three parts by Ken Craigton, Phil Wood, and Jane Riddle.

Serving as greeters for the senior high fellowship group were Mary Brown, Masako Tanigawa, Nancy Davis, Sandy Schultz, Lynn Greig, Gary Heist, Jim Snyder, and Jim McGregor.

Junior High members who served as the nation greeters were Bill Pell, Norma Holton, Laurie Lennis, Pam Wilson, Alice Niven, Delores Niven, Janet Atchison, and Rebecca Nietert.

Many other young people took part as members of the Westminster Choir.
