

Leonard J. Lichwala, Jr., aviation structural mechanic third class, USS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Lichwala of 21251 Cass St., Farmington, is serving with Fighter Squadron 102, which was part of the combined force of Exercise Saddle Blasket recently off the coast of California.

The five-day exercise dealt mainly with anti-submarine warfare training. The operation centered around a fast carrier striking force and her air power, with the powerful combination of detection and strike capabilities. Cruisers, destroyers, submarines, and logistics ships also were engaged in the operation. The exercise came under the operational command of Commander, First Fleet.

Paul Gregory Kopase has come to live with Myron and Milie Kopase of Birchwood. Paul, a two month old bundle of joy, has completely captured their hearts. Congratulations to the happy threesome.

Luanne Haas, daughter of Charles and Magdalen (Poch) Haas of Meadowdale, was baptized recently at Our Lady of Sorrows Church. The sacrament was administered by Father Jessalis. Luanne's Godparents are Amerigo and Hazel Pallini.

The boys have it hands down for February birthdays. Birthdays boys who celebrated were John Scott, son of Bev and John Scott of Kirby, who turned six on February 1st with the help of friends Barbara Lakey, Terry Black, Kelly Smith, Jimmy Isles, David Abid and Kevin Burd.

MIKE BERGDALL, son of Robert and "Ginger" Bergdahl of Laurelwood, is now nine. He has five of his buddies in to play interesting games, among them a clever soap carving contest which featured a bar of soap and a spoon. Birthday cake and ice cream topped the event.

Mike Flynn, son of Elaine and Don Flynn of Kirby, celebrated his ninth natal day at a family supper.

The Black boys, not twins, not even related—best of friends, however, turned 12 last week. Jeff Black, son of Hildegard and Bob Black lives on Flanders. Randy Black is the son of La Donna and George Black of Kirby. Jeff celebrated with his family and Randy's mom sent a birthday cake over to Randy's Boy Scout meeting.

John and Joanne McCrie and parents celebrated John's and his dad's birthdays at Danny's Chophouse Saturday night. The McCrie's helped run "Danny" out of birthday cake. It seems everyone was celebrating a birthday that night.

ALSO CELEBRATING birthdays last week were Bev Scott and George Black. Many happy returns to you all.

Anniversary number 3 for Picoosa Club number 1 was celebrated at Girl's Chop House. This club has had the same eight players for the entire three years, somewhat of a record for a ladies' group. A luscious steak dinner was enjoyed by Kay Hanson, Kay Thomas, Barbara Dozer, Elaine Flynn, Pat Gibb, La Donna Black and Grace Carlin. Congratulations, ladies, may you have many more years of friendly evenings.

Bridge Club No. 2 had their monthly get together at Pat Thibodeau's home on Meadowdale this month. Instead of the usual meeting, however, this turned out to be a baby shower for Joanne McCrie. A lovely cake, her second baby son, The decorations were lovely, featured mainly pink for some reason. Perhaps the girls have inside information. Joanne was presented with a lovely gift for the new heir, and a lovely cake, appropriately decorated, was enjoyed at "dessert time."

Girls enjoying the party and bridge were Janet Streng, Mickey Eansor, Joanne McCrie, Nan Held, Joan Friedman, Arline Strane, and Barbara Adams. Bridge prizes were awarded to Mickey Eansor for her superb playing which gave her high score, Arline Strane, for second prize, and Janet Streng, who had no chance with such terrible cards, was forced to accept booby prize.

A MIXED COUPLE group got together at Ginny and Bob Oak's house on Laurelwood Saturday night for a lively game of bridge. Players were Lou and Bob Grenier, Jean and Ken Osborne, and Lee and Clint Justice. High scorer for the evening was Lou Grenier.

Laurelwood was the scene of another bridge party Saturday night when the "fifteenth Finny" met for their monthly game of cards. Players were Joyce and Gary Green, Lynn and John Washburn, Nadine and Jack Armstrong, and hosts Irene and Bob Walker. The winners for the evening was "do no wrong" Gary Green, 1st, Nadine Armstrong, 2nd, and booby prize Jack Armstrong.

Our Boy Scouts are holding their own in the sport of hiking. Randy Black, Dale Lawshe and Jack Stane, with their Troop No. 45, took a five mile hike through Kensington last week. They were rewarded and warmed for their efforts with hot chocolate.

Visitors to the Acres this week included Paul Haas, Bud Haas' brother, and Mrs. W. J. Haas, their mother, from Pittsburg, Penn. Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Wells, of Vermillion, Ohio, were guests of their daughter, Jeanne Osborne, for the weekend. Saturday afternoon was family reunion day at the Walkers. Bob's grandfather, Mr. Robert S. Walker, 83 years young, of Perth, Ontario, who is visiting with Jack's parents in Grand Blanc this week, spent the afternoon chatting with his five great grandchildren, who look forward to his annual visit with much anticipation.

Pat Thibodeau and her mother, Mrs. Van Malson, had a lovely shopping spree and saw the sights of Chicago during a weekend trip. Mary Lou and Dick Dinon and Pat and Stewart Chipman enjoyed a vacation weekend in Chicago last week. Mary Lou said this was to recover from the measles, not hers—her children's. Mothers will understand this statement, we're sure. Back and Bob Adams enjoyed the balmy breezes of a Florida weekend recently.

THE NEWLY ELECTED officers and committee of Flanders PTA are as follows: President, Frances J. Motter; Vice President, Nan Held; Teacher Vice President, Rose De Long; Secretary, Lee Justice; Treasurer, John Washburn; Members: Ship, Tom Michael; Program, Sandra Schurr; Hospitality, Jean Kirby; Budget and Finance, Nell Bluman; Publicity, Bill Ersharler; and Health and Safety, Yvonne Leakey. Let's all try to cooperate with this fine board and turn out for all the meetings. They need YOU!

His, Chills and Spills Dept.—Donna Bush of Robinwood was a victim of a very sharp piece of ice when she fell on the way to school last Thursday. Donna was taken to St. Mary Hospital where her knee was treated to eight stitches.

The flu bug is on the prowl in our Acres. Among its sufferers were Jim Mitchell and Kevin Burd. Sore throats felled Deborah and Linda Springmeier, David Bush and Carol Washburn. John Dinon was the third and final little Dinon to spot up with the measles. Tiny Luanne Haas, eight week old daughter of Bud and Posch Haas, was taken to emergency at St. Mary last week and surgery for the little lassie followed. She went home the following day with her mother doing the nursing honors. We're happy to report she is doing very well now.

On Saturday, February 9 from 2 p.m. to 5:30, an eighth birthday party for Paula Cherron was held on Friday, March 1 from 3 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Franklin Community Church, Franklin Village. Donors must be between the ages of 18 and 59 and in good health.

VALENTINE colors were carried out in the decorations. Streamers of red crepe paper with sixteen Happy Birthday balloons hung from the ceiling. Each girl took home a balloon and a party favor. Hats and doll favors were also made of red crepe paper—all by Paula's mother who had the fun of making them.

Games were played before their meeting, February 28th, that's Thursday night, at Marze McIntosh's home on Meadowdale. This will be a "Fun" night, strictly a social meeting. Circle your calendar and join the fun.

The Farmington Glen Aquatic Club has openings for about twenty memberships; if you're ready for some summertime fun, and who isn't, call Audrey Murkland at GR. 4-7028.

supper was served. The high point of the party was a "doll cake" with white skirt trimmed with red lettering and hearts made by Mrs. Whitmore. Each girl received a head band and candy necklace as added favors. Guests attending were Gisela Estabonez, 23271 Eleven Mile, Kim Freeman, 34501 Quaker Valley, Pamela Leach, 23227 Power, Joanne Polgar, 32024 Hull, Judy Zink, 23816 Woodbrook, and Paula's brother, Steven. Unable to attend was Patricia Hurley, 23219 Ridgewood, who stopped in for a moment.

Helping with the party was Mrs. Jack Dinsdale, "Aunt Doris," from Detroit. A noisy, happy, fun-filled time was had by all.

YOUR PHARMACIST SPEAKS

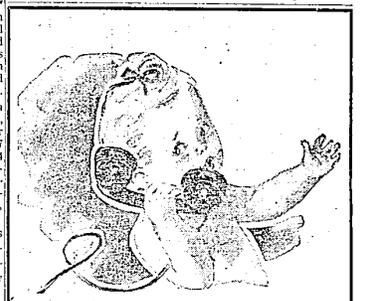

By: JOHN D. SCHMALZ, R.Ph.

Aside from being something to tan in the summer, your skin is highly important to your health. It is, for example, your first line of defense against germs. It keeps your body from losing its blood, lymph and other necessary fluids and it is the skin that houses millions of nerve endings providing the senses of touch, heat, cold, pressure and pain. Then, too, it is the skin's responsibility to control body temperature by giving off excess heat. Small amounts of wastes are also eliminated by the skin.

Incidentally, you will never be skinned when you trade at JOHN S. PHARMACY. The finest quality drugs and extreme care in their compounding are assured with every prescription filled at JOHN S. PHARMACY, 31511 - 13 Mile Rd., Phone GR. 4-4700.

Have You Heard How MODERN GAS DRYERS

"Baby" Your Clothes?

Nothing treats your clothes better than a modern gas dryer! The gas dryer is so kind to diapers and dresses, creepers and comfy clothes of all sorts.

There's no sun-fading or wind-whipping to damage clothes in the gas dryer... only gentle, warm breezes... that's why clothes wear longer. White clothes stay whiter and all clothes come out fluffy, sweet and sunshine-fresh.

And it's not only the clothes that benefit from the gas dryer... the whole family is better off! No more stooping, carrying and stretching for Mother... she just turns the dial and clothes are dry in minutes instead of hours. That means she has more time for cooking, gardening and for family fun!
