Clown to Visit Masonic Lodge

Robert Dussenberry, Worshipful Master, announces that Milky the Clown will entertain at the Farmington Masonic Temple on Thursday, February 28. Milky is the well-known TV star. February 28th has been set aside as "Family Night" and the program which is geared to the young from 6 to 60 will follow a pot-luck supper. The dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Dussenberry extended an invitation to all Masonic, Eastern Star, White Shrine, DeMolay and Job's Daughters families.

Gives Views on Open Housing Matter

The Rev. James B. Guinan
Farmington Intergroup
Relations Committee
32133 Raphael
Farmington, Michigan
Dear Mr. Guinan:

Sometime ago I signed an Open Occupancy Covenant Card. As a result, I was invited to and attended the recent meeting of your committee. The decision of the members to embark on an educational and study program to improve the Farmington "climate," was most commendable. However, you and I know that social change is best accomplished through bold and decisive action for maximum shock and publicity. The success of the Freedom Rides taught us this. It is possible that the community will be integrated long before the group's study is completed.

I signed a Covenant Card because I feel that every American, regardless of race or color, has the right to live peacably in any house he can afford to purchase and maintain. The residents of any established community, however, have the right to expect anyone moving in to help shoulder the responsibilities of that community, as well as to enjoy the benefits which accrue from living therein. Ceratinly, it is not too much to expect that every house in the community be occupied in accordance with its zoning ordinances and maintained in keeping with the surrounding neighborhood. Property values tumble when this precept is ignored. I am not at all concerned that this suburb is segregated, per se. I feel no sense of loss at the present time and I anticipate no cultural, spiritual or humanitarian advantage for myself and my family should the community become integrated. However, I cannot deny any American citizen his right to improve the lot of his family through better housing in more pleasant surroundings.

If anyone, regardless of race or color, wishes to move into my community and will assume the burden of responsible citizenship, pay the exhorbitant taxes; meet sewer, water and paving assessments; vote Republican; mow the grass and trim the shrubs; — more power to him! I will neither burn a cross on his lawn nor jump with joy that he is here to overcrowd the schools.

In regards to your committee, I do not expect to waste any time in "dialogue" at "closed" meetings. I am not now nor will I ever become a member of any group seeking to force my views or yours on my neighbors. Any use of my name in this connection is unauthorized.

Very truly yours,
James N. Earle, Jr.

At Home in Old Homestead

JACQUELINE DAVIS

This week we welcome a very young man to our subdivision. Brian John Brunt was born at 11:35 p.m. on Saturday; February 9. His parents Audrey and Denis, were not expecting him for several more weeks and so were somewhat unprepared for the rush trip to St. Mary Hospital in Livonia. Brian, who weighed six pounds and three ounces, was welcomed home last week by his two year old brother, Kevin and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dettman. Audrey's parents came here from their home in Kinmount, Ontario, just north of Toronto, to help out during the first few weeks.

Two of our families were saddened this month. Our very sincerest sympathy is extended to the Marsden family on the death of Therese's mother, and to the Richards family on the recent death of Ersley's mother.

Several of you knew my mother, Edith Reive during the three years that she shared our home here in the subdivision. In honor of her seventy-fifth birthday my sisters, sister-in-law, and I held an open house for her on Sunday at my brother's Rosedale Park home. Approximately two hundred friends and relatives from the Detroit area and Canada were on hand to wish her a happy birthday. About fifty of this group stayed for a buffet supper in the evening.

Members of the Pinochle Club will meet at my house on Tuesday, February 26.

Addition dates to be remembered by all residents are Friday, March 1. Reservations are still being taken for the subdivision dinner dance. Please call the Campbells at Gr. 6-2058 no later than Sunday, February 24.

YOU WILL RECEIVE notices of the subdivision annual meeting and election soon. It will be held Monday, March 4. Dick Latimer and Russ Nankervis, who are serving as the Nominating Committee have been working diligently to secure a slate of officers who will serve us well. If you are interested in serving on a specific committee you might call either Dick at Gr. 4-7095 or Russ at Gr. 4-7816.

Metropolitan Bank Reports Fine Acceptance

Louis J. Lavigne, President of Metropolitan National Bank of Farmington, announces that well over one million dollars in resources were attained in the first 30 days of the bank's operation.

"Faith, co-operation and confidence on the part of Farmington people, for the most part, has made this excellent growth possible," stated Mr. Lavigne.

"One of the most gratifying things in our first thirty days of operation was the great acceptance of our Saturday banking hours for the citizens and businessmen of the area. The response to the banking services open on Saturday together with the drive-in windows which are out of the rain, wind and weather have been very pleasing. Our first opening days, January 18th and 19th, were a huge success and we are greatly pleased that the following days have been also very active."

Mr. Lavigne also said, "Any of our fellow citizens who have not had an opportunity to see our bank and inspect our facilities and see for themselves the services which we offer, are certainly most sincerely welcome to stop in and we will be happy to show them around."
