Westbrook Manor News
JOYE MCCORT
On the eve of the day when the new decade and honor of our first President, George Washington and at a time when the world Constitution once again is of extreme public interest, the thoughts of both.

to by Cathy Kraft.
TO CELEBRATE a 12th birthday, Cathy Gaha of Westbrook Manor, gave the very popular pajama party, starting at 7:30 on Friday and winding up at noon on Saturday. Her guests and the girls will return to pick them up. For any further information you can call Mrs. Thomas Birch of Arden Hill who is chairman of this project.

A GOOD TURNOUT and exchange of ideas made up the evening for the Westbrook Manor Association's first Lady of the Year. A motion was approved to work with Bond PTA to present a program on the Constitution to school children. The YMCA is interested in developing new scout troops. The new one is under the leadership of Mrs. Kelly of Troop 23.

FEA Program on Constitution Set
The Farmington Education Association has arranged for a special discussion on the proposed new constitution for Michigan to be voted on April 1 for their regular meeting Tuesday, Feb. 26, at 8:00 p.m. at the school. The meeting will be held at the Longacre Elementary School at the west end of Arundel St. in the City and will start at 3:30 p.m. Take Gill Road south off Grand River to Arundel and turn right.

Police Report
Twp Vandalism
A Farmington Township home was broken into and vandalism was reported at the site of construction for the new East Junior High School by Township Police this past week. The home of Joseph Zatsick, 30056 Sibley, was burglarized sometime on February 17. Police indicated patrols would be increased to prevent further destruction of property at the new school east of Middlebelt between 10 and 11 Mile Roads.

Radio Outlet Here Approved
A request from WYSI, Ypsilanti radio station, for permission to operate a radio broadcast home located in the Downtown Farmington Center was approved by action of the City Council Monday night. The station proposes to conduct a Farmington Hour daily if enough merchant advertising support can be obtained. The station is financially profitable to do so. Officials of the station indicated that the whole hour would be devoted to news and advertising from Farmington.

Twp. Auto Accidents
Farmington Township Police reported there were 17 auto and mobile accidents handled by their department during the week of February 13 through Feb. 17. All of the mishaps were of a minor nature with no serious injuries resulting, however, one by Pat Skomas and
