MARIE BRAUER 478-5213

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Healey of St. Mary Cl. will be featured dancers in the JCs "Musical Show" to be given March 22nd, 23rd, and 24th at the Farmington Junior High School.

Mrs. Healey is also art director of the show and Mr. Healey is the stage director. Rehearsals for the production are held every Sunday. There will be three performances this year due to the big success it has had in other years and they want to be sure everyone who plans to attend can see it this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brauer and Robert J. of St. Mary Cl. with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lang and Lennie, and Mrs. Henry Ouellette in their new home in Kimberly on Sunday, Feb. 10.

The fourth grade class of Mrs. Elman Knowlton in Tom Mile Elementary School made large envelopes to tape on the desks to hold the Valentines they exchanged with one another. Also on the blackboard Mrs. Knowlton had a large heart to which the children's baby pictures were taped. As a little game, the children tried to match each baby picture to one of their classmates. Elaine Edwards and Michael Jenkins had tied scores by guessing twelve pictures correctly. To complete the party, Room-mothers, Mrs. George Annis and Mrs. Richard Habicht passed out "goodies" to the children.

THIS CUB SCOUT DISPLAY was assembled by Pack 45 of Farmington in the window of Hinkle's Dry Goods Store, 23360 Farmington Road, as part of the Pack's observance of Scout Week. The hard work of the Cub Scouts and their leaders earned the Pack high honors in the judging of Scout exhibits put on display last week.

Exhibit Wins Praise For Cub Scout Pack 45

Farmington Cub Scout Pack 45 assembled a fine looking display in the window of the Hinkle's Dry Goods Store on Farmington Road in the Downtown Farmington Center last week as their part in the national observance of Scout Week.

Displayed in the exhibit were many examples of the craftsmanship learned by the Cub Scouts in Den meetings and fashioned by them under the supervision of Den Mothers.

AN ACTIVE GROUP of parents deserves some of the credit for the fine work turned out by the Pack. Although the parents would prefer to remain in the background and let the Cub Scouts themselves take their well-earned praise, the amount of supervision and support they provided can not be unmentioned.

Head Den Mother for Pack 45 is Mrs. Peggy Fleming. The Cubmaster is Dale Johnson; Asst. Cubmaster, Melvin Rhodes; Asst. Cubmaster, Dick McLean; Advancement Chairman, Miles Tierant; Finance Chairman, Bob Larson; Supply Chairman, Paul Hartman; Program Chairman, Bernard Charbeneau; Institution Representative, John Kelly; and the hard working Den Mothers: Mrs. Eleanor Johnson, Den 1; Mrs. Wilma Lochman, Den 2; Mrs. Carolyn Isles, Den 3; Ann Sharp, Den 4; Mrs. Geraldine Schmitt, Den 5; Mrs. Lillian Hartman, Den 6; Mrs. Nadine Randall, Den 7; Mrs. Helen Hardy, Den 8; Mrs. Joyce Green, Den 11.

Much of the fine work and accomplishment of the Cub Scouts could not be possible without the untiring support of these adult leaders.

Meanwhile, back at Kendallwood, the Kendallwood Ladies Bowling League has a new first place team, number 13, which consists of bowlers Mary Lou Carriere, Barbara Haigh, Emily Gates and Barb Karbel.

MURPHY AND DON WELLS of Kendallwood Rd. entertained a three table-bridge group Saturday night. Prizes were awarded to Betty Elliott, Mrs. L. A. Kay and Phillip Rabalais.

F. A. Kay and Bob Singleton have left our Kendallwood area for St. Louis, Missouri. Slim is employed by Robinson and his trailer leaves Kendallwood with a great loss as this was a very civic minded family active in many groups and always willing to lend a hand when the need arose. Kay being their biggest problem was finding a Kendallwood in St. Louis. From the last report, they found a home in Clayton Subdivision. The best of luck to the Singletons.

Tonight, Cub Scout Pack 103 under the direction of Mr. Roy Aydelotte Cub Master, will hold their annual Blue and Gold Banquet at the O. E. Dunckel Junior High School. Special guests will be Rev. ## PTA Discusses Mental Health

An extremely interesting and vitally important panel discussion was held last Monday evening, February 18, at the Ten Mile School. Sponsored by the PTA this panel discussion answered many parents' questions regarding mental health and the child. Highly qualified panelists: Mr. Hugh Watson, Farmington Special Education Director; Mrs. Inez Winslow, Farmington District Teacher; Miss Judy Smith, Special Education Teacher; Mrs. Jean Ralph, Principal of Ten Mile School; and Mr. Clayton Weeks, Counselor at Farmington Junior High, covered very thoroughly this timely topic.

The next meeting of the Ten Mile PTA will be held Monday, March 18, at 8 p.m. A children's program will be presented.
