Historical Society Plans to Meet Feb. 27

The Farmington Historical Society will meet Wednesday evening, February 27, in the band room of the Farmington Senior High School at 8 p.m.

The guest speaker will be Mrs. Wendell Gira, a helping teacher in the Pontiac School System, who will discuss historical information pertaining to a Farmington postmark. Mrs. Charles Lorton, president of the Farmington Historical Society, invited all members of the community who may be interested in the efforts of the organization to attend the Wednesday night meeting.

Post 346 needs your support.

Annual Jaycee Musicales Now In Rehearsal

The Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce has been rehearsing for the sixteenth Annual Musicales Show, which will be staged this year on the evenings of March 22, 23 and 24 for the past three weeks.

This year's Jaycee spectacular is titled "Contrast in Rhythm." Musical numbers and dialogue pieces have been selected and specially adapted by each member of the cast busy preparing in learning his part.

Farmington Mayor Robert Thayer and Edith left a week ago for the Caribbean cruise to the West Indies and South America. Stops were made in Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Martinique, Barbados, Venezuela, Curacao, and Haiti. They took advantage of the well planned shore tours on each of these beautiful and exciting islands, including Caracas in Venezuela. Feb. 8th they departed and all three couples went to the Space Satellite Hotel at Pompano Beach. After three wonderful days of getting together with friends there the Gardens had to return home.

Edith and Ethel Sheriff left here on Saturday, Feb. 2nd, and flew to Florida for a Lincoln-Mercury sales meeting held at the Boca Raton Hotel. They flew down ahead of the meet-

CO-WRITERS AND DIRECTORS of "Contrast in Rhythm" are Ralph Parmin and Carl Stewart. They promise a show that is loaded with popular songs and colorful dialogue.

The musical director, Stewart, has a background of musical experience and already has a Jaycee chorus sounding like the Fred Waring group. "Well, almost," according to audience members at the show.

Tickets for the musicale production are available from any member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and at many downtown Farmington stores.

FLORAL PARK

E. R. PHILLIPS
GR. 474-6675 between 4-6 p.m.

Floral Park lost another long time resident. Ebonia Smith, when Mrs. Anna Tomko of 2276 Lilac passed away in a convalescent home. She was born in 1882, and had been in Floral Park resident since 1950. She had been ill for quite some time. Mrs. Tomko's daughter, with whom she had resided, had been in the Veterans' Hospital in Dearborn, taking a series of tests. Miss Mary Tomko, said that she was able to obtain a leave of absence from the hospital, to make the funeral arrangements. She wishes to thank all the neighbors and friends for their beautiful flowers and kindnesses, both for her mother and for herself. She especially wants to thank her next door neighbor Mrs. Alice Lefter for being so kind as to supply her transportation and for taking care of her little dog.

EILEEN AND AL Roehrig, of 22425 Floral delighted eight little girls of the neighborhood with a real Valentine party last Wednesday evening, (Valentine Eve). The table was prettily decorated in a red and white theme. Ice cream and cookies were served. The little guests were Lynne and Pam Henderson, Debbie Kenyon, Mary Lee and Susan Hoard, and Nancy, Kathy and Mary Stuhldroher.

HOLLIS HOARD - and his son, Jerry, were guests of Mr. Stewart, Debbie Kenyon, Township Supervisor, at a Rotary Club banquet in Milford Tuesday evening, February 12th.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips of 22776 Lilac drove to Toronto, Canada the weekend of February 8th to attend the wedding of Mr. Phillips' niece, Miss Catherine Phillips to Mr. David McNeerney. It was a beautiful wedding and all elements combined to make a perfect and smooth ceremony.

The bride and groom will be in the Pontiac area (Ontario suburb of Toronto). On their return trip to Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips stopped at the Pontiac area to pick up Mr. Fergus Kenny, a friend, who had been visiting there with relatives. They then stopped for lunch with Mr. and Mrs. McNeerney in Port Huron. The McNeerneys formerly lived on Lilac in Floral Park.

Family Night At Cloverdale

The Cloverdale PTA meeting will be held Monday, Feb. 25 at 7:30 p.m.

There will be a children's talent show, with children invited to come with their parents at 8 p.m.

The children will assemble in the kindergarten room to view two worthwhile children's films and more talent show.

At this same time, in recognition of Founder's Day, a special program has been planned for the parents.

MRS. JOHN SHADA will speak on "The 3-Dimensional World."

Mrs. Shada is a mother, teacher, counselor and a professor at the University of Detroit. She presents a very interesting and enjoyable lecture on the responsibilities of parents to their children and to the school.

Meeting of Parents To Be Held at NFHS

The North Farmington High School Parents Association meeting will be held Tuesday, February 25, in the North Farmington High School Cafeteria at 8 p.m.

The constitution for the organization will be presented for approval.

A progress report will be made on the work of the North Farmington Central Association accreditation. All parents in the area are welcome, according to Harold Humble, principal.

Nevin and Mildred Hummon, with a couple from Drayton Plains with whom they have been vacationing for many years, left here Jan. 16th and drove to Boynton Beach, Fla. The two men spent quite a bit of time deep sea fishing and Nevin landed a 6'8" sail fish—a thrill! Their friends were able to stay but two weeks. When they left Hummons visited relatives in a sister in Miami and a brother in Sebring. They reached home February 15.

THE GARDENS AND THE TAYLORS have had a delightful trip. Wilma and Edith left a week ago to visit relatives in Birmingham and Tuscaloosa, Alabama before flying to Miami where they joined Grace and Dice Taylor and their friends, Dice Taylor and their friends, the Cecil Caldwell of Detroit.

On January 26 they boarded the M/S France C at Port Everglades for a 12 day Caribbean cruise to the West Indies and South America. Stops were made in Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Martinique, Barbados, Venezuela, Curacao, and Haiti. This is the economical Newport 4-door sedan.

Sounds unbelievable for a Chrysler. But it's true. And we're ready to prove it to you.

Considering the full-size value you get in a Newport 4-door sedan, we can appreciate why so many ask us to prove that a Chrysler can be priced so low.

We're always happy to.

Because we can talk about full-size comfort; big, booming V-8 power (fed by economical regular gas); rich fabrics; lush carpeting. Plus America's best and longest new-car warranty—5 years or 50,000 miles.

So why not compare the facts, the figures, the features, with any car anywhere? We think you'll find the $2964 Chrysler sizing up as the finest value in town.

Your Chrysler dealer's ready with the proof!

*Your authorized Chrysler Dealer's Warranty against defects in material and workmanship on 1963 cars has been expanded to include parts replacement or repair, without charge for required parts or labor, for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the engine block, head and internal parts (transmission case and internal parts excluding manual clutch); torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints (excluding dust covers), rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings, provided the vehicle has been serviced at regular intervals according to the Chrysler Certified Car Care schedule.
