Farmington Woman's Shop
Awarded Bridal Salon Title

Word has been received from the home office of National Bridal Service that Mrs. Stella L. Steve of Custom Bridal Salon in Farmington has been awarded the title of "Registered Bridal Consultant."

The National Bridal Service is an organization of fine retail stores throughout the United States, Canada and Australia, and is the only organization conducting an organized educational program for Bridal Consultants. The objective is to help the qualified store to render a finer service to the bride and to elevate the Bridal Consultant's position to a professional status.

MISS MARGARET Manning, nationally recognized authority on Wedding Etiquette, trains Bridal Consultants for qualified stores. Upon satisfactory completion of an intense training course the title and certificate of "Registered Bridal Consultant" is awarded the individual. The course of study requires many months, is very comprehensive, and covers such subjects as "Services for the Bride," "Human Relations" and "Public Speaking." To qualify for receiving this advanced course, a lady must complete the preliminary program and be

of Kendallwood Farms

by Lillian Axelsson

All women who have a sense of style and a passion for moving American fashion are important to a well-rounded and functional wardrobe. On March 22 at 8 p.m. the Women of Kendallwood Farms are going to discover how it is possible to have a chapeau for every occasion on a limited budget.

The City National Bank will be the scene for a spectacular program with a guest speaker who is a lecturer, writer and television personality of national fame.

MRS. IRENE SUTTON, who teaches the art of millinery in the Public School System is most noted for her successful book, "How to Make Hats at Home."

The Wardrobe Mastron, Mrs. Jean Marsh, announced the next meeting on March 26, honoring the present Marchas in Oakland County and the Past Marchas of Farmington Chapter will be special guests.

A card party and Period Fashion Show is to be held at the First Farmington Savings and Loan at the Farmington Shopping Plaza on April 16 at 8 p.m.

A social evening followed in the dining room which was decorated in a St. Patrick's day theme. Hostesses for the evening were Betty Hoffmeyer, Lillian Wilson, Margaret Szostak and Helen Berkley.

On Tuesday, March 26, Mrs. Sutton will demonstrate her great talent to us. Hats made from Rose Petals, and the Lawrence of Arabia Turban, which is the fashion trend of the season, are just two of the styles that will be constructed. She will bring a display of her own artistic creations and her book with some of these designs pictured. Bring your questions and Mrs. Sutton will be happy to answer them.

RARELY HAVE we been able to present you with the privilege of talking and listening to a personality of Mrs.

Town Club Card Party April 4
To Feature Oriental Theme

An Oriental theme has been chosen for the forthcoming Town Club card party scheduled for April 4.

Co-chairmen Mrs. Donald Rice and Mrs. Less Blackburn along with their committees have been busy preparing for this exciting event which will include a dazzling Spring Fashion Show from the Alice Rebecca Salon.

AS A SPECIAL, added attraction, Mrs. Donald Wingard and Mrs. George Hardy have been working with Lavonia Meyer to bring you over 25 door prizes of an elegant and unusual nature.

This year as in the past, our theme will be a "Spring Fertilizer" along with a second and third prize of $50 and $40 respectively, will be awarded from Farmington's own Homestead House. Your ticket will also entitle you to a delicious dessert prepared by the Farmington Bakery.

Proceeds from this and other events are used to support the local welfare agency, purchase walkers for State Homes and to contribute to local organizations such as Little League. Our own closet of medical equipment is currently being used by our public.

LADIES
STEP FORWARD

Fashion is often a good guide to the coiffure a woman should wear. How, however, to choose the style of both fashions and hair, styles which are overwhelming, neither should dominate a woman, rather they should enhance the charm of her appearance and be nicely in tune with both the individual's clothes and personality.

Speaking of clothes, you wouldn't be interested in a charming silver fox cape—especially if it were a Beauty-Rama, with a silver fox cape as first prize. Other prizes include two wigs and many.

Items in the cosmetic line. Ask for details at JEAN'S BEAUTY SHOP, 24129 Orchard Lake Rd. Phone GR. 4-7810.

"Still have time for our Beauty-Rama." The lucky ladies of prizes will be announced March 28th.

"Come Join The Fun!"

THIS WEEK'S HELPFUL HINT: A little eye shadow pencils should match hair color, ash blondes might try a gray pencil and golden blondes light brown.

JEAN'S BEAUTY SHOP is having a Beauty-Rama, with a silver fox cape as first prize. Other prizes include two wigs and many.

These classes are sponsored by the P.T.A. and if any further information is desired, parents may call Mr. Frank Murtland, GR. 4-7028.

At the March meeting of the P.T.A., new officers were elected. President is Mrs. Frank Murtland, father vice-president, Mr. Wm. Papke, mother vice-president, Mrs. Karl Koffler, secretary, Mrs. Theodore Knight, treasurer, Mr. Reuben Halperin, teacher vice-president, Mrs. James Wilmoth. These officers will serve for the 1963-64 school year.
