"We want to welcome some new neighbors to our midst. From Lansing come Ileana and Brian Rowd with their children, Christine, who is twelve, Tom, 11, and Mary, eight years old. They live on Carva Drive. Mr. Rowd works for the Rex Packaging Company. We hope they enjoy their new neighborhood. We're happy to have them with us."

Last week little Colleen Mills took a tumble from her walker. After a trip to the hospital it was found to be nothing more serious than a very nasty bump. But we have a word of caution for all the children in the neighborhood. Please don't push or pull Colleen in her walker, she is better able to manage under her own power.

TO CELEBRATE the Easter Holidays, the Daniel Hickey family left for Chicago, Dan, Yvonne, and their children, Diana, Lisa, and Shawn, left on Friday and returned Sunday night. Send Clothing For Welfare Aid

The Dorcas welfare society of the Farmington Seventh-Day Adventist Church, 23210 Grand River, is preparing a shipment of clothing that will be picked up April 22, to replenish stock at the state warehouse of the church in Grand Lodge. Mrs. Lena Lutman, Dorcas welfare leader, said seven tons of clothing had been shipped from the mid-Michigan warehouse earlier this spring to the Harlan, Kentucky area flood victims. The shipment, which leaves the local church at 23210 Grand River, is composed of hundreds of articles of clothing and shoes given by local members and community minded citizens of Farmington.

Very IS A REAL tribute to Farmington and its many Christian residents who helped make this shipment possible," Mrs. Lutman said in commenting on the movement of supplies in citizens of our community have really applied the Biblical admonition to be your brother's helper in making this happy occasion possible."

Members of the local Adventist welfare group have gathered, sorted, repaired and cleaned every article of clothing in today's shipment to assure each item being useful upon arrival at its destination.

The deepest well ever drilled in the United States exceeded 25,000 feet, nearly five miles, and cost an estimated $3 million. It was a dry hole.
