Speaks Wedding Vows in Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Joyce Laura Dunham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Monroe Dunham of 23149 Churches Street in Southfield, became the bride of Mr. Arthur E. E. Browne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Browne of 30300 Orchard Lake Road in Farmington, in a candlelight wedding ceremony held in the Southfield Methodist Church Saturday, April 6.

The Rev. Theodore Doane, pastor of Southfield Methodist, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

MRS. ARTHUR E. E. BROWNE

THE BRIDE WORE a satin gown gown with chapel train and lace bodice. A pill box with white veils headress accented her gown. She carried a bouquet of white tulips.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Pauline Near. Bridesmaids were Kenneth Dunham, a sister of the bride, Mrs. Jeanne Dunham, a sister-in-law, and Roselyn Bohlinger, another sister of the bride. The bride's attendants were gowns with matching tail leaf hats and carried coral tulips. The matron of honor's gown was coral while the bridesmaids wore gowns of three shades of green.

Harold Cannon was the bridegroom's best man. Ushers were Bob Schneider, Richard Sommer and Kenneth Dunham.

LAURIE SCHNEIDER served as flower girl. Jack Whitman acted as page.

"Whither Thou Goes" and a prayer from the Methodist Episcopal Church were read by the couple by Evelyn Bertram of Southfield, accompanied by Kathy Ferguson of Southfield.

A dinner was served at the church following the wedding ceremony after which a reception was held at the Farmington VFW Hall. Patricia Danielson presided at the guest register.

Easter vacation found many of Kendallwood traveling to different parts of the country or during the holidays with their families and loved ones.

Gale and Vic Girolami with their four children - Gigi, Jane, Linda and "Tag" - visited Hazel in Mequon, Wis., as guests of Phyllis and Neil Williams. While in Wisconsin they visited Zelle's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. G. Girolami.

MR. AND MRS. DAVID CAMP of Dearborn and their children, Pam and Keven, enjoyed Easter with relatives in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Lois and Craig Hausman of 5318 Lois have returned home after a 3-day Florida vacation where they visited in Daytona Beach, toured Cypress Gardens, Marine Land, Silver Springs, and enjoyed swimming and the glorious Florida sun. Lois has only one complaint - she is already missing her lovely sun tan.

Ray and Bill Gobeille visited their son, Dick, at John Miller Academy in Delaford, Wis. Helen and Bill Strenig visited their daughter and her family in the east.

Other travelers included Helen and Harold Lang and Debby and Bob Moran.

ROBERT AND MARGARET Love of K-1 enjoyed a ten-day Easter vacation with their two children, Pam and Linda. They visited Margaret's brother and his family in New Haven, Conn. On their return trip they visited New York stopping at Niagara Falls, and at a beautiful lake.

MARY KAY DRUMMOND of Baintree Rd. is home after an eight day stay in a Detroit Hospital. Happy to report a successful recovery.

The Kendallwood Women's Golf League will commence on Monday, May 6, at 10 a.m. at the Glen Oaks Golf Club. The membership is complete, however, if a small number are being a substitute they may call Marie Weaver at 474-7617 for additional information.

Beechview PTA Meets Monday

The Beechview PTA will meet on Monday, April 22. A short 8 p.m. business meeting will be held in the All-Purpose (Cafeteria) Room. The annual election of officers will take place. At the March meeting the nominating committee presented the following slate: President, Ed Klein; Father Vice President, Phil Odum; Mother Vice President, Norma Young; Treasurer, Betty Hankin.

Following the business meeting an art workshop will be conducted in the Multi-Purpose Room.

MRS. MARCELINE ROSS, Art Consultant, will keynote the experience by giving a brief talk on the art curriculum in Farmington Schools.

An exhibit of children's art work in the areas of in-ner-tube painting, mobiles, kite making, sculpture, etc. will be on display.

There is no intention of duplicating the fantasy of last year's extensive exhibit, but at the request of several parents, workshop participants will actually work with various media to produce results in the areas the children have exhibited.

Classroom teachers will be on hand to demonstrate and assist in the selected areas.

This promises to be an interesting evening of learning and doing to gain an insight into the art philosophy and to gain appreciation for the creative talent and skills involved in producing the finished result of the art product. The program will terminate following with a special period of refreshments.

Nature Field Trips For School Classes

Elementary school classes from the Farmington School District this spring will take guided field trips along the nature trails of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority.

H-CMA naturalists R. Mortenson and William Hopkins will lead the field trips.

District schools participating will be Bond, Cleveland, Flansburg, Kenbrook, Edgewood and Eagle elementary schools.

LADIES STEP FORWARD

Wrinkles are one of man's kind's greatest personal tragedies and are caused by a loss of facial tissue or a weakening in the elasticity of facial muscles.

By keeping the small facial muscles resilient with regular massage, the formation of wrinkles can be prevented, or at least delayed.

Massage regularly, in the morning and at night if possible. Always massage lightly and beginning with the chin, work upward and outward.

No matter how you begin, ladies, it is a good idea to finish up at JEAN'S BEL-AIRE BEAUTY SHOP. This is particularly true of any attention to the hair. Every means of bringing your hair to artful perfection is known to our operators and stylists at JEAN'S BEL-AIRE BEAUTY SHOP, 21410 Orchard Lake Road, Phone GR. 4-7810.

THIS WEEK'S HELPFUL HINT: A good, if unusual, massage for dry skins is to use cocoa butter.
