HELP WANTED

Anyone answering ads for policemen should understand that most firms are reputable and ethical, yet there are some which a prospective salesman should investigate carefully. A call to the Better Business Bureau is always a safe procedure. The Enterprise is not always able to check up on individuals or distributors, and warns those answering such advertisements that this is entirely their responsibility.

LOCAL MAN, gardener, must be able to run tractor and power mower, general handyman work 5 days a week, 8 hrs. day. Send recent photo, references, gardening season each year, approximately 7 months. Start immediately. Reply to Box No. 2, c/o The Farmington Enterprise, P. O. Box 435, Farmington, Mich. 29-1c

Any Kendallwood or environs club or organization has activities scheduled for June and would like to list them in this column please call this reporter with the information.
MR. JACK GLESSNER, president of the Kendallwood Farms Association, wishes to announce that the board of directors met last week to make plans for the coming year.
The first order of business was a plan to increase membership and to promote new interest in this association. Within the next three weeks every family in K-2, 3 and 4 will be contacted by their area representative and presented with a package containing a map of the area, information about "YOUR" association and membership cards. Every family is urged to join and actively participate in supporting the association so that Kendallwood will be an even better place in which to live.
LYNN JENKS OF Learnington Rd. entertained recently at a luncheon in honor of Judy Short formerly of K-4 who now resides in Illinois. Those attending the event other than those mentioned above were Mary Wrogersworth, Violet Lentz, Verda Elliott; Marge Collins, wedding of a friend. They attended the wedding breakfast and the reception enjoying it immensely.

Lena and Emmert Martin of Broadway Rd., traveled recently to Dayton, Ohio for the Vets; Support your Legion Post
