The Farmington area Women of Wayne Club will sponsor its annual theatre party at the Farmington Players Barn on Sunday, May 12. The comedy, "Charlie's Aunt," will be the featured attraction and the curtain will rise at 7:30 p.m.

Proceeds will benefit the club's year-round service project of helping needy families in the Farmington area, according to Mrs. J. Miller, of Farmington, club president.

TICKETS ARE NOW available from Mrs. Aldo Vagnozzi, 26930 Killarney, Farmington, GR. 4-3885. The Players Barn is located on Twelve Mile Road west of Orchard Lake Road.

The club, which includes women graduates of Wayne from the suburban communities of Farmington, Livonia, Plymouth, Northville, Redford and Southfield, is also completing plans for its annual dinner.

Slated for June 6 at the Hillside Inn in Plymouth, the dinner will feature award-winning photographer Tony Spina, of the Detroit Free Press, who will show a collection of his famous photos.

For information on these two activities, call Mrs. Miller at GR. 4-6655.

This Is Kimberley

JUDY BURNS GR. 4-3112

The Beechview Swim Club met on April 24th at the school, and in a three hour session well attended by the membership adopted by-laws and rules of operation for the club.

Vice-president Vern McFaney announced that the land was purchased on April 4 for the minimum bid, and that the results of test borings taken on April 15 are excellent.

Secretary Byron Walter announced that an agreement has been reached with the Board of Education concerning the access road to be constructed by the club. The Beechview Swim Club is operating as a "go" project all the way, and is ready to proceed with some visible evidence now that much of the behind-the-scenes paper work has been completed.

THE RULES OF operation read by McFaney contained many variances from the original set of rules distributed at an earlier meeting, with particular emphasis on the now greatly reduced section concerning guest privileges. The rules were adopted by the membership present, as were the by-laws after a section by section presentation and discussion.

It was hoped that as a result of this meeting many doubts would be assuaged and that the interested but hesitant Kimberley families would now come forth as paid members. Good faith in this project may be concretely expressed with cash, a very important necessity right now if we are to make this long awaited dream come true. Repeatedly described at the meeting as a "go project," the club is certainly on the move to getting wet by the end of this summer!

The Kimberley Couples Bowling League completed its second season on Sunday! April 21, with the following results: in first place, O'Malley-Northen; second, Fletcher-Vankoughnet; third, Olson-McChesney; fourth, Melville-Kimbrough; fifth, Shotwell-Odom; sixth, Newman-Foster; seventh, Baum-Martin; eighth, Clark-Burns; ninth, Paton-Peterson; tenth, May-LeBlanc; eleventh, Anderson-Kilkka; and twelfth, Evans-Tournaud. Inasmuch as the league bowled a split season this year a championship roll-off was held last Sunday between the first half champs, Olson-McChesney, and the second half champs, Northen-O'Malley. After three hair-raising heart-stopping, neck and neck games, the team of Doris and Hugh McChesney and Bud and Jo Olson emerged victorious by the slim margin of 18 total pins and were crowned the 1964-65 Kimberley Couples Bowling League Champions. The league will celebrate the season past and award trophies and money to its members on May 21 with a banquet and dance at Danny's on Six Mile Road.

SPEAKING OF BOWLING, congratulations are due our other subdivision champs, the team of Erace Lajoie, Allen Kilkka, Dicky Melville, and Rickey McChesney. The boys are 14 points in front with one week of competition remaining in the Coe-Cole Juniors League that bowls on Saturdays at Bel-Aire Lanes, and will be crowned league champions for their first place finish.

A serious note in this week's news, with the theft of Delta and Ray Rutter's car from in front of their home on Killarney between 8:30 and 9 p.m. on Thursday night, April 25. Due to wet repairs on the driveway the car could not be put in the garage, and the keys were left in the ignition in anticipation of parking in a neighbor's drive for the night. Fortunately, the police found the car the next morning parked on Barwell. The Rutters wish to thank the "borrows" for doing no damage to the car, and are grateful they were not injured or killed in an accident. We parents in Kimberley might well ask ourselves a very pertinent question—where were our kids last Thursday night?

Condolences are extended this week to the Eckhold family of Pipers Lane Court, grieving the passing of Barb's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, on April 22. May it be of some comfort to the Eckholds to know that they have our sympathy.

CONGRATULATIONS ARE offered Herb and Peg Bagwell of Fiddlers Green, grandparents for the first time as of April 1, when their son and daughter-in-law, Hefli Jr. and Carol Bagwell, were blessed with a daughter, Margaret Adele, born in Detroit Osteopathic Hospital.

Birthday bests to April flower Mary Catherine Baum, 9 on April 23, to John Clark on April 21, to Marie Toupin on April 21, to Robert Tournaud, 7 on April 23, and to the Kenney triumvirate, Ellen, 11 on April 5, Mary Margaret, 10 on April 9, and Karen 12 on April 10.

The Kenney girls, daughters of Mary and Don Kenney of Greystone, celebrated their birthdays with a family dinner at Greenfields, an annual custom for the nine Kenneys. This year, however, additional excitement was lent the occasion when the paper dolls under the candle-laden birthday cakes ignited as they were being paraded through the restaurant. In the Kenney's table, creating a gay
