Orioles Lead Pennant Race In Farmington Little League

Action raged in the Little League last Saturday with the Orioles taking the lead in the pennant race.

The Orioles edged the Cardinals 5 to 4 as the Orioles scored all 5 runs in the 3rd inning on walks to David Helst and Randy Buck; singles by Tom Szymanski, Charles Nichols and Ralph Zadrozny and a double by Ken Hildebrand.

The Cardinals scored 1 in the first on singles by Tony Himmelspach, Mark Heenan and Joe Himmelspach 2 in the 2nd inning on singles by Joe Himmelspach and Mike Moriarity and a triple by Mark Heenan.

In the third the Cards went on short as Jim King and Phil Corville singled but Phil Corville was out trying to score.

KEVEN HILDEBRANT was the winning pitcher and Joe Himmelspach the loser.

The Orioles downed the Cubs by the exact score, 5 to 4, in Monday's game.

The Orioles came from behind 4-0 to win 5 to 4. The Cubs scored 4 in the first as Brad Perkins was safe on an error and Mark Donoghue drove him in. Three came in, in the second on walks by Brad Perkins and Vic Forrester and hits by Mark Donoghue, Art Lennox and Steve Theisen.

The Orioles scored the winning five runs in the 2nd, 4th and 5th on hits by Jeff Dugan, Dave Hughes, Don Sharp, and Ralph Zadrozny, Gerry Evangelista was the losing pitcher and Ross Patton was the winner.

The Braves defeated the Tigers behind the brilliant 1 hit pitching of Tom Russum. The only hit off of Tom was a fluke double by Tiger, Hamilton. The losing pitcher was Tom Garrett who pitched a two-hitter. The Braves scored all three runs in the first inning on a walk to Dave Kenenson, 2 errors and a single by Terry Springs. Tom Russum struck out 11 Tigers.

THE YANKEES trounced the Tigers 6 to 1 behind the 5-hit pitching of Mark Lucas. The Tigers scored their only run in the 5th on a walk to Kerry Feilun and a single by Steve Bigham. The Yankees scored 2 in the first on a single by Larry Williams, a double by Terry Doyle, and a triple by Mike Daley; 1 in the 2nd on singles by Mike Daley and Mark Lucas; in the 3rd on a single by Ker Guyette and an error; and finished their scoring in the 4th on a triple by Mark Lucas, a single by Larry Williams and a homerun by Gerry Williams. Ed Scholten was the losing pitcher for the Tigers.

The Cubs shutout the Braves, 7 to 0 behind the 1 hit pitching of Art Lennox. Gerry Hancock was the loser.

The Cubs scored 2 in the first on walks to Keven Young, Dennis Hatley, and Mark Donoghue and a single by Gerry Evangelest; 1 in the 3rd on walks to Dennis Hatley and singles by Brad Perkins and Mark Donoghue; and scored 4 big runs in the 4th on singles by Brad Perkins and Steve Theisen and 2 errors.

To improve your fishing success with brown trout, study a stream in the day, fish it at night. Drip your bait down into the upper end of likely deep holes and move it only occasionally. Allow plenty of slack line; a brown that feels line drag will spit out the bait.

Farmington Babe Ruth League Provides Exciting Thrills

Anything can happen in the game of baseball, and last Saturday the impossible happened. In a seven inning ballgame between the Dodgers and the Pirates there were 33 walks. And the game took 4 hours to play.

The Dodgers scored 18 runs and hit 14. The Pirates scored 14 runs and hit 10.

BILL FILLIS and Mike Thompson pitched for the Dodgers with Mike Thompson taking the win.

"Dave Brown, Ken Young and John Foster pitched for the Pirates with John Foster the loser.

The Pirates started the scoring in the first as Bob Hoffman, John Foster and Glen Lindsay walked and scored on two Dodger errors. In the bottom of the third the Dodgers tied the score. Woehler was safe on an error, Tom Wirtz walked and Bill Pell was safe on an error and stole home.

In the fourth the Pirates scored six times on walks to Ken Young, Bob Hoffman, John Foster, Ron Cleveland and two errors and a single by George Hiebicht.

The Dodgers fought back as they scored seven runs to lead 9 to 14. Mike Wilson, Joe Domrowski and Mike Searly singled and Art Woehler, Tom Wirtz, Tom Donoghue, Bill Pell and Mike Wilson walked.

In the 5th, 6th and 7th innings the Pirates scored two in each inning as Bob Hoffman and John Foster walked in each inning.

DAVE BROWN had one single and Glen Lindsay two. The Dodgers scored seven runs in the 6th as Mike Wilson, Art Woehler, Tom Wirtz, Mike Searly and Mike Thompson, and singles by Tom Donoghue, Bill Pell and Mike Wilson.

In the bottom of the 6th, the Dodgers scored the final two runs as Tom Wirtz, Tom Donoghue, Mike Wilson and Mike Thompson all walked. Bob Hoffman of the Pirates and Tom Wirtz of the Dodgers walked every time at bat, and in order. The only bright spot was the hitting as the Dodgers had three players who went 2 for 2. Bill Pell, Tom Donoghue and Mike Wilson. Glen Lindsay went 2 for 4, for the Pirates.

In other action Saturday, the Indians handed the Red Sox their second straight defeat, 7 to 5. Both teams had 7 hits but the Indians came out on the long end. Miles Kearney went all the way for the Indians.

Legion Team Opens Season Here This Week

The American Legion baseball team, sponsored in Farmington by the Grosz-Walker Post 346, played its first game Wednesday this week at the Our Lady of Sorrows field against the Troy Legion nine.

A lineup for the opening game consisted of several newcomers although returning veterans are expected to retain the spots within the next week to challenge them. The lineup so far is:

LARRY MILLER, CF; Rick Goyt, RF; Walt Frisch, LF; B. Hamner, 3B; Leo Martini, 2B; J. Stevens, 1B; Tom Armstrong, SS; Keith Watson, 2B; and J. Kratt, C.

Expected out for action soon are Tom Sherlock, star back stop of last year's Legion team, and his battery mate, Paul Rigazio, fireballing righthander. Also out here are Jeff Barth, a 1962 season 18th District All-Star player, and Jim Stevenson.

The Grosz-Walker Post team will play their second game of the season tomorrow (Friday) June 14, against Birmingham's Legion team. All home games scheduled during the week will be started at 6 p.m. with all Sunday games scheduled to begin at 2 p.m.

THE SCHEDULE this year for the American Legion team, the only traveling baseball team in Farmington, includes 25 games with all games scheduled on Sundays doubleheaders. The season will run until July 24.

Farmington's American Legion Post 346 this year will play host for the Third Zone Tournament Playoffs to be held July 25, 26 and 27. The tourney will bring the best teams from all of southeastern lower Michigan into town.

A Sunday doubleheader with Royal Oak is scheduled for June 16. The twin bill will played on the Royal Oak Memorial Field, 93 Mile and Woodward.
