News from Kimberly

DID YOU KNOW? That 91 percent of Kimberly Sub are members of our Associations? That a new Methodist church, colonial influence, will seat 500 people, will be erected and ready for occupancy July 1964, on Eleven Mile across from the Barwell entrance? That our water situation could get worse! Should one of our houses catch fire there may not be enough water to put it out. We could be rationed with only drinking water, cooking purposes and excluding bathing. We are in the Oakland County Dept. to water only from 1 p.m. to midnight, odd numbered houses on odd numbered days, even numbered days. That you may call police on a dog strays into your yard and capture same until police arrive and you, as a citizen, may remain anonymous? However you must know the owner's name. That traffic control signs were voted on and failed, pass? So are careful the child you hit could be your own. That all of this and more was discussed at the Association meeting Wednesday evening, June 12.

WANT TO JOIN the latest fad in Kimberly? It's the break-your-toe fad. By chance if you were driving in the vicinity of Grayhens and Piper roads, you saw Judy Zahler and Betty Wilmer, sitting with elevated feet, (not showing off the gams) they are the originators of the fad. Let them explain to you what you have to do to join this exclusive club (They are hoping for no members, say it's too painful).

The vacation trek has begun: Dick and Roberta Flackner's daughters, Ann and Susan, are leaving for Camp Narrin near Fort Drive in Kalamazoo, Michigan, at the First Methodist Church of Farmington on June 22. The Reverend Richard Markham officiated at the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony. Two bouquets of assorted white flowers decorated the altar.

The bride wore a gown of silk organza and Chantilly lace with a Deni bell front skirt and a full chapel train. Sequins accented the gown's sabbina neckline. She wore a three-listed imported English illusion felt secured with a crown of roses and silk organza, orange blossoms and lilies-of-the-valley. The bridal bouquet was made up with white butterfly roses, Stephanotis and miniature ivy.

FOR THE WEDDING, the bride wore a silk organza sheath dress, wood veil over blue, with a lace trimmed bodice and corded detail at the waistline. She wore a white catalina orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a street length silk linen sheath dress with a scoop neckline, short sleeves and accented with a bow at the back. Her accessories were a turquoise hat, white gloves and turquoise purse and shoes. She wore a catalina orchid corsage.

A RECEPTION was held at the Lincoln Hall in Wixom. Two vases of white flowers and a pale bouquet decorated the bride's table. A buffet luncheon was served to the guests. Miss Mary Jo Patterson of Niles; Michigan and Mrs. Harold Hawkins of Florida served. Miss Sue Childers and Miss Dana Crawford presided at the guest register. The bride's traveling chest was a bright yellow sheath with cape jacket. The newlyweds honeymooned in northern Michigan and are making their home in Ann Arbor where the bridegroom will work at studies at the University of Michigan this fall. Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo. She plans to teach in the New Boston School System. She is a 1959 graduate of Farming Senior High School.
