Novi Rebekah Lodge To Meet This Friday

The Novi Rebekah Lodge will be holding its last regular meeting prior to summer vacation this Friday, July 5. Regular meetings will not resume again until September 26.

Two summer-time activities are planned, however. There will be a picnic at the home of Mrs. Mildred Hunt at Island Lake on Wednesday, August 14, and on Monday evening, Sept. 2, the degree team will hold a practice.

Last Thursday the Novi Rebekahs attended a visitation at South Lyon.

JULY — 1953's half gone. Time to take stock of your accomplishments of the past six months and plan what you want to accomplish during the last six. Did you know that July was named for Julius Caesar?

Patsy Birney, daughter of Madeline and Pat Birney of Old Forge Lane, has received many honors during the past year. To mention a few, she was president of the student council at Our Lady of Mercy High School. She graduated with straight "A" mention a few, she was president of the student council at Our Lady of Mercy High School. She graduated with straight "A" mention a few, she was president of the student council at Our Lady of Mercy High School.

SHE RECEIVED the Detroit Youth Award which was presented to her by Mayor Cavanaugh and Congressman Marsha Griffith.

Patsy also received the National Gold Medal Award for a pencil art work that hung in Carnegie Hall for three months. For other honors she has during the year she received a gold key and five certificates.

Patsy has been accepted at the University of Detroit where she will major in Latin and minor in French.

Mrs. Birney's mother, Mrs. A. E. Kelly, flew to Farmington from San Diego, California for a two-and-a-half week visit to join the family for Patsy's graduation activities.

Jess Rodrick Rites June 27

Jess L. Rodrick of Lakewood, Ohio passed away on Thursday afternoon, June 27, 1953 in Art Centre Hospital, Detroit.

Mr. Rodrick was born in Tiffin, Ohio on July 29, 1883. He was a retired architect and had been a resident of Lakewood for the past 38 years. He was united in marriage on October 15, 1913 to Mrs. Fannie T. Whitehead of Farmington.

Mr. Rodrick resided at the Thayer Funeral Home until Saturday when services took place at 2:00 p.m. in Old Fort, Ohio with Rev. Carl H. Schultz of the Salem United Church of Christ officiating. Interment was in Pleasant Union Cemetery in Old Fort.

Surviving besides his wife are a brother, Earl Rodrick of Tiffin, Ohio and several nieces and nephews.

A wide screen approach to driving is necessary in today's fast-paced traffic.

ROBERT BENJAMIN received a wonderful "Father's Day" gift on June 16 his wife, Wanda, had an adorable little baby girl they named, Jane. The Benjamin's have two other children, sons, Tom and Mike.

Wanda and Stan Mette are enjoying a visit from her nephew's wife, Jeanette Johnson and her year-and-a-half-old son, Carl, who are from Jacksonville, Florida. They will be joined later by Mr. Johnson who is presently serving in Alaska with the United States Navy.

Karen and Joe Breaugh and their young son, Shippy, will be spending the summer with Karen's mother and father, Jeanne and El Jones in Kendallwood.

WANDA METTE and her son, Bruce, drove to St. Louis, Missouri recently for the wedding of Wanda's nephew. After the festive wedding activities they flew back to Detroit. This was Bruce's first flight and a very memorable experience. Incidentally, Bruce also celebrated a birthday on June 26; his twelfth.

Elaine and Bill Dempster and their two sons, Jon and Andy, drove last weekend to Hamilton and Cincinnati, Ohio for the 25th reunion of Elaine's high school class (Hamilton High School).

Kendallwood residents who have been patients in nearby hospitals recently include Eileen Schenkel, Evelyn Nelle, Dennis Trausch, and Mark Kestner. Farmington Township launched an early start for the Fourth of July celebration by staging a parade Saturday, June 22.

WOODBINE Subdivision in attract the attention of the neighbors, heralded the main attraction of a 12 foot rocket manned by cosmonette Charlotte Van Wicklin atop the cone.

Teenagers forming the advanced guard with red, white and blue decorated bikes and dragging strings of tin cans to lotte and Dexter Van Wicklin, Larry and Theresa Hatley, Lois and Jim Warren, Jim and Jim Connors and Gordon and Dorothy Dawson worked to make this parade a great success for youngsters and adults alike.

Woodbiners invite all who would like to help them celebrate at this dance to call one of the following ladies. Mrs. June Ely, GR. 4-6237; Mrs. Lois Hoelcher, GR. 4-6269; Mrs. Frank and Barb Reeder, Char-ny Connors, GR. 4-4414; Mrs. Dorothy Dawson, GR. 4-6922; Mrs. Charlotte Van Wicklin, GR. 4-6244; or Mrs. Theresa Hatley, GR. 4-1834 for tickets.

An electronic network, developed by Westinghouse Electric Corporation especially for The New York Station at Rockefeller Center, called the Host System, takes care of room status, message awaiting and wake-up calls linked into one control panel.
