

Center Girls Softball Team Keeps Winning

The Farmington Center Ladies Softball Team won their third straight game last week with a 5-2 victory over Taylor Township.

Jayne Bittner pitched a six-hitter for the Center girls and also collected two hits in her own cause.

CLARA SIMPSON provided three of the 12 hits slammed out by the Center girls. Jean Barber collected two hits and Sandy Walters, Pat Bueh, Jennifer Rathiff, Jane Blough and Cora Billing each knocked out one safely in appearances at the plate for the Center team.

The Center team earned their fourth straight victory last Thursday at the expense of East Detroit, 2-0. It was the first shut-out of the season for Center hurler June King. The hits for the game were even at five for each team but Clara Simpson made one of her two hits count for two runs when she singled with the bases loaded. Jayne Bittner, Sandy Walters and Cora Billing were the other hitters for Farmington.

Orioles Down Yanks in First Half Playoffs

The Orioles downed the Yanks in the playoff game to take the first half championship.

Ralph Zadrozny was the winning pitcher and Mark Lucas the loser.

The Yankees scored their only run in the second as Larry Williams walked and stole around.

THE ORIOLES scored 1 in the second. Don Sharpe tripled and Charles Nichols tripped. The winning run came across in the sixth as Don Flynn walked and scored.

MARK DONOHUE and Joe Himmelsbach still lead the league in batting.

Now the second half of the season is in action with the Cards and Cubs each 2-0.

Carl Misch Pitches No-Hitter For 2nd Time in Babe Ruth Play

Carl Misch, who pitched a no-hitter on June 20 against the Indians, accomplished this feat again on June 29, against the Red Sox won 5 to 1. The only run off of Misch was the error of the catcher.

The Red Sox scored 1 in the second on a single by Jerry Turner and an error; 1 in the third on a walk to Don Wright; 2 in the fifth on a walk to Don Wright, a single by Carl Misch; 2 in the seventh on a walk to Don Wright and a single by Chip Terry and singles by Don Wright and Dan Styes.

CARL MISCH was the winning pitcher, allowing no hits, striking out 7 and walking 5.

The Red Sox downed the Indians, 9 to 8. Terry Goyt was the winning pitcher and Jean Butters the loser.

The Red Sox scored 3 in the second on walks to Don Styes, Bob Swoboda, and Terry Goyt and a double by Don Walfman; 5 in the fourth on walks to Chris Norton, Terry Goyt, Dan Wolfman, and Carl Misch and singles by Chip Terry and Dan Styes; and 1 in the seventh on 2 errors and a single by Terry Goyt.

THE GIANTS scored 4 in the third on a walk to Jean Butters and hits by Fred Niemeir, Ron Lee and Wayne Johnston; 3 in the fifth on hits by Jean Butters and Tim Spencer; and 1 in the seventh on a walk to Tim Spencer and Doug McDonald.

THE PHIGHTS defeated the Indians, 5 to 2. Behind the 3-hit pitching of Ron Cleveland.

RON CLEVELAND was the winner and Ron Schultz the loser.

The Indians scored 1 in the fourth on an error and a single by Bill Bliss; and 1 in the fifth on an error. The Pirates scored 2 in the first on singles by Ron Cleveland and Dave Brown, 1 in the second on a single by Keith Edly and an error; and 2 in the third on singles by Keith Edly and a single by Keith Edly.

ALL 150 HOMES in the Briar Hill community, 13 Mile Road just west of Orchard Lake Road, will fly both the American and State of Michigan flags on July 4th. Part of a day-long community celebration, the flag was introduced by the Briar Hill Home Owners Association and made possible by mutual participation of the Association, individual homeowners, and the Thompson-Brown Company, developers of the community. Preparing to distribute the flags are (L. R.): William Bowman, Thompson-Brown vice president; James Moreen, Briar Hill Subdivision Association president; and Mrs. Kaye Britton, 34234 Northwick, a Briar Hill resident.

N. Farmington Major League Pitcher Ron Weber Fans 15

Ron Weber pitched his Orioles to a shut-out victory over the Cubs, 5 to 0, on Tuesday.

Ron did this by striking out 15 in 8 innings. He was as hot as the weather.

The Orioles also squeaked out a 7-6 victory over the Pirates Saturday. Last Thursday saw the Pirates hang in their first victory by shelling the Red Sox's 21-3.

OTHER ACTION throughout the week saw the White Sox lose out the Athletics, 8-1, then drop one to the Red Sox, 6-2.

The Giants kept in the running by beating the Athletics, 5-2.

STANDINGS through Saturday June 29: Orioles (9-2); Athletics (8-3); Cubs (7-4); Red Sox (5-4); White Sox (3-8); and Pirates (1-10).

Tuesday, the red-hot Senators downed the Cubs, 5 to 3, for their seventh straight victory. Saturday, the victory string was broken by the roaring Tigers who tripped the Senators, 7-3.

Tuesday the Tigers had shut out the Cardinals, 7-0.

THE TIGERS ARE determined to give those Senators a real battle for first place.

Other action for the week saw the Yankees beat the Indians, 5-2, and the Cardinals, 5-2.

The Indians shut-out the Cubs Saturday, 7-0.

The American League standings are: Senators (7-3); Tigers (6-4); Cubs (5-5); Yankees (4-6); Indians (4-6); and Cardinals (4-6).

JO ANNE GUNDERLOCK GR. 6-2850

An open house was held Sunday, June 16, to celebrate Pete and Ann's wedding anniversary. The celebration was held at the home of PHS. His home on Lorik was beautifully decorated with red roses as 36 guests enjoyed a lovely buffet dinner. Gifts and good wishes were presented to Pete and Ann.

A WARM welcome is extended to the Robert Ely family of Bannockburn who moved here recently from Latrobe, Pennsylvania, "the hometown of the Elys." The Elys have two daughters and a son, Pamela who is eighteen, plans to attend Wayne State this fall.

The Elys are fans of bowling and bridge. (and Arnold Palmer!)

The Davidson family of Northingwood has recently opened general bus weeks. Friday, June 21, Diane Davidson, a June graduate of PHS, was driven up to Interlochen, Michigan, where she will enjoy eight glorious weeks at the National Music Camp. She is enrolled in piano courses and is really having a wonderful summer.

MRS. DAVIDSON'S mother, Mrs. R. H. Curry of Shreveport, Louisiana, came up to see her granddaughter, Diane, graduate.

During her week's visit Mrs. Curry was introduced to many friends and neighbors. She was Hoffman and daughter, Mari-Ann.

Brian Kirk of Danford, now an "old man" of one year, celebrated his June 18 birthday on Father's Day. The Kirk family made it a gay double affair and enjoys the time with Brian, grandmother and several neighborhood children.

Another Westbrook resident getting up in age, is Johnny Foley of Bannockburn, who had his fourth birthday June 21.
